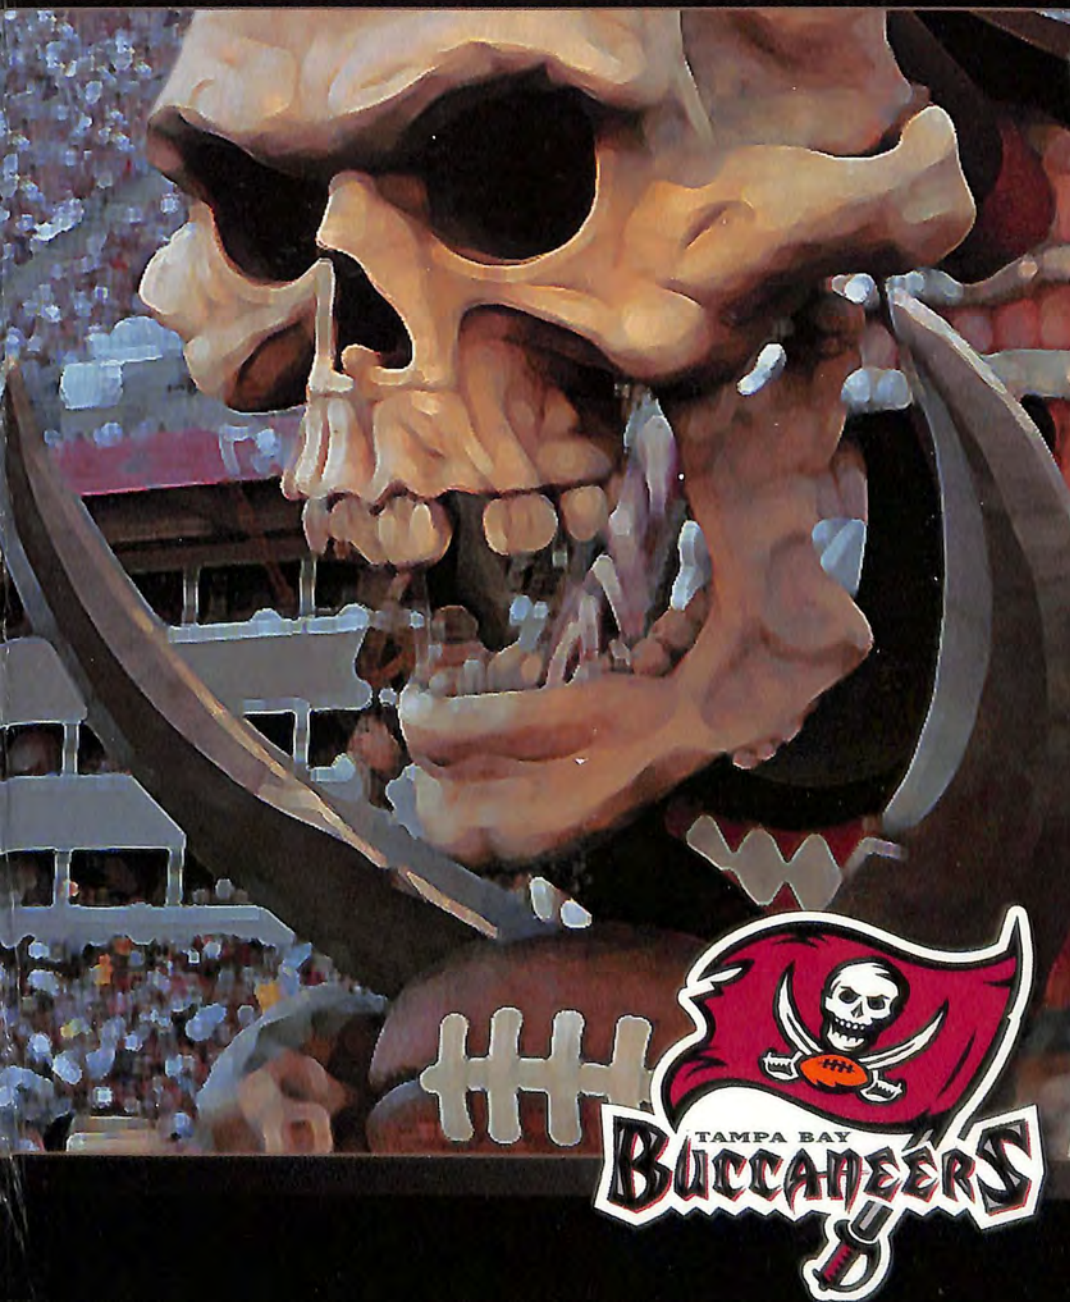
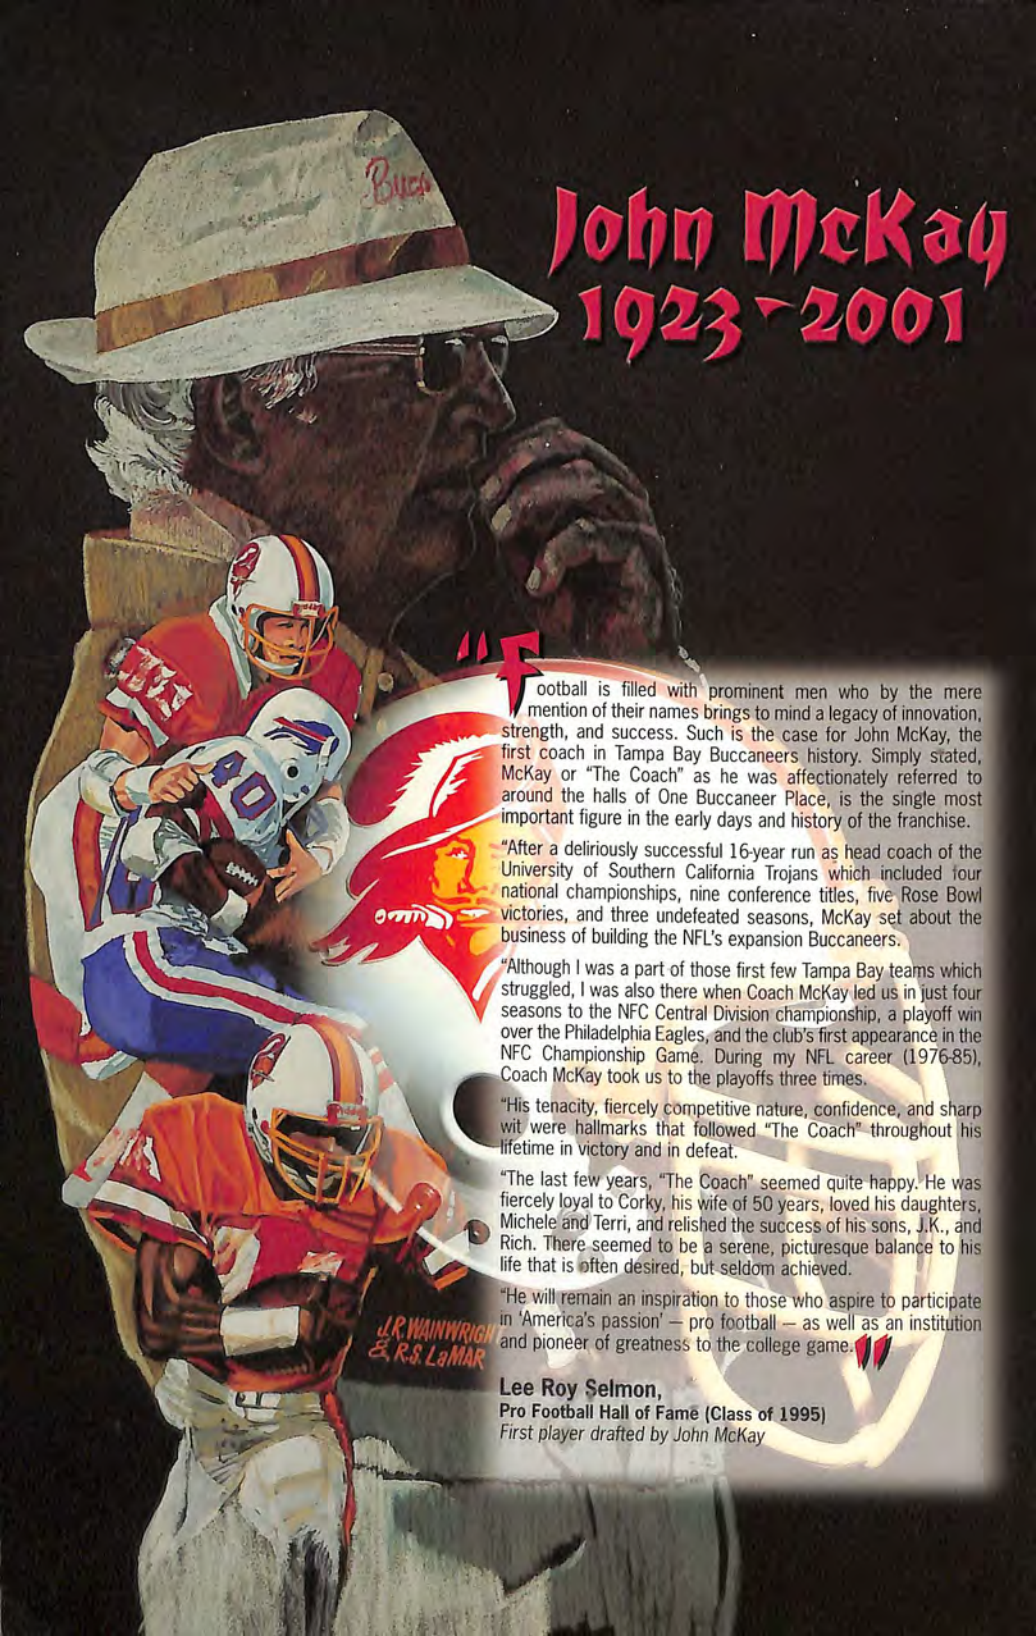
MEDIA GUIDE



John McKay 1923-2001



"Football is filled with prominent men who by the mere mention of their names brings to mind a legacy of innovation, strength, and success. Such is the case for John McKay, the first coach in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history. Simply stated, McKay or "The Coach" as he was affectionately referred to around the halls of One Buccaneer Place, is the single most important figure in the early days and history of the franchise.

"After a deliriously successful 16-year run as head coach of the University of Southern California Trojans which included four national championships, nine conference titles, five Rose Bowl victories, and three undefeated seasons, McKay set about the business of building the NFL's expansion Buccaneers.

"Although I was a part of those first few Tampa Bay teams which struggled, I was also there when Coach McKay led us in just four seasons to the NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over the Philadelphia Eagles, and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. During my NFL career (1976-85), Coach McKay took us to the playoffs three times.

"His tenacity, fiercely competitive nature, confidence, and sharp wit were hallmarks that followed "The Coach" throughout his lifetime in victory and in defeat.

"The last few years, "The Coach" seemed quite happy. He was fiercely loyal to Corky, his wife of 50 years, loved his daughters, Michele and Terri, and relished the success of his sons, J.K., and Rich. There seemed to be a serene, picturesque balance to his life that is often desired, but seldom achieved.

"He will remain an inspiration to those who aspire to participate in 'America's passion' — pro football — as well as an institution and pioneer of greatness to the college game."

Malcolm Glazer

OWNER/PRESIDENT

On January 16, 1995, he stepped to the podium, smiled and promised a winner. The crowd nodded and presumably chuckled. Malcolm I. Glazer had just paid a record price for an NFL team, but it was a team that was mired in a futile cycle. In a bottom-line business, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were consistently hitting bottom, winning only 30 percent of their games over 19 seasons of existence. Few thought Glazer could buck that trend.

Almost five years to the day, Glazer stood in the southwest tunnel of the stadium he helped construct, joining a delirious crowd in watching his Buccaneers fend off Washington to advance to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years. In 1999, Tampa Bay captured its first division title in 18 years, while setting club records with an 11-5 regular-season record and a 7-1 home mark. Tampa Bay followed that with another playoff appearance in 2000 and expectations are even higher for 2001.

"That was an amazing evening," Glazer says. "Our crowd was electric and I'm convinced that they helped fuel our magnificent fourth quarter comeback. That win was the direct result of years of tireless effort from our players, coaches and staff. Hopefully, we can go one step farther in 2001."

Now the rest of the Tampa Bay community is smiling along with Glazer. In six years, the Buccaneers have vaulted from the NFL's basement to within reach of the penthouse. Known among his league peers as an innovative thinker, Glazer has infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization has provided the foundation for the team's rapid rise on the field. That success has resulted in a level of popularity and support that is unmatched in franchise history. The Buccaneers can boast a 54-46 (.540) record and two playoff wins under Glazer's watch, easily the most successful stretch in club annals.

Glazer has successfully constructed a multi-faceted plan, which calls for stable ownership, a talented coaching staff, knowledgeable personnel executives and a solid business partnership within the Tampa/St. Petersburg communities. The most visible aspect of this plan's success is Tampa Bay's state-of-the-art Raymond James Stadium, which hosted Super Bowl XXXV this past January. Dubbed the "Crown Jewel of the NFL" by many league insiders, Raymond James Stadium offers an unmatched game-day atmosphere for fans and players alike. All 25 regular-season and playoff games at the stadium have been sellouts, and the Bucs can boast a gaudy 20-5 record at home. In fact, Tampa Bay's season ticket waiting list has eclipsed the 20,000 mark.

"We said back in 1995 that with the help of Buccaneers fans in the Tampa Bay area, we would build a stadium the community would be proud of," Glazer says. "Raymond James Stadium is that promise come to fruition."

Now that the stadium is complete, Glazer has turned his attention to constructing the team's new training facility, scheduled to open in 2003. The facility will be a three-story building containing approximately 150,000 square-feet of space, a state-of-the-art strength training area, three practice fields, outdoor jogging paths and access control security outlets including a technologically advanced satellite link to the NFL office in New York City.

"Just like our stadium, our training facility and administrative offices will be among the finest in the NFL," Glazer says. "To ensure that our facility will be the best, we sent our football and administrative staffers to visit what we felt were the best NFL training facilities and, in some cases, the best collegiate facilities in the country. We instructed our people to take notes and photographs, and to design their respective areas the way they wanted them to be once the facility is finished. The information our people returned with was amazing. Our plan is to take that information, present it to the architects, and let them create the NFL's best training facility."

Financially and philosophically, Glazer and his sons continue to demonstrate how a franchise can change its identity from perennial also-rans into championship contenders both on and off the field. In 2000, the Buccaneers proved to be major players in free agency, signing three Pro Bowl players to boost their offense. Tampa Bay signed two-time Pro Bowl C Jeff Christy as an unrestricted free agent, then inked his former Vikings linemate, 11-time Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel. And on the eve of the draft, Tampa Bay pulled off the biggest move of the free agency period, trading two first-round picks to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. This offseason, Tampa Bay grabbed two of the most sought-after free agents in QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice, signing both to five-year deals.

Couple those bold moves with some of Glazer's previous offseason maneuvers, and you have a solid football foundation for seasons to come. During the 1997 offseason, Glazer extended the contracts of head coach Tony Dungy, general manager Rich McKay and defensive tackle Warren Sapp, the 1999 NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Glazer also provided the necessary financial support over the ensuing two years to allow McKay to extend the contracts of All-Pro FB Mike Alstott, All-Pro LB Derrick Brooks and All-Pro S John Lynch, as well as key contributors like Pro Bowl CB Donnie Abraham, CB Ronde Barber, LB Shelton Quarles and T Jerry Wunsch.

"We have and will continue to do all of the necessary things the team needs to do to win a championship," Glazer says. "We just have to remain focused and play up to our capabilities. The rest will take care of itself."

At the conclusion of the 1996 season, Glazer spearheaded massive changes at One Buccaneer Place, home of the team's administrative offices and practice facility, which included more than 20,000 square feet of new office space, a revamped season ticket and club seat purchasing operation, upgraded computers and more than 90 additional employees working to make the Buccaneers one of the most respected organizations in all of the professional sports.

Additionally, Glazer, after many years in business, continues to display his personal trademark of accomplishing the "impossible."

He devoted a significant amount of time working to make the organization more fan-friendly by greatly expanding fan activities at Buccaneer home games through the formation of the club's special events department in 1997. His mandate to increase player and coach visibility in the community was reflected in the more than 700 appearances made by Buccaneer players, coaches and front office officials last year, including nationally-acclaimed programs such as LB Derrick Brooks' "Brooks' Bunch" trip to Africa, RB Warrick Dunn's "Home for the Holidays" initiative and T Jerry Wunsch's "Jerry's Journey" program.

"It is important for us to succeed on the field, but I want us to be good citizens in our community as well," Glazer says. "We are role models. Children and adults look up to us. I want us to set the right example."

Glazer's input has been sought on the league level as well, as evidenced by his position on the NFL's Finance Committee, one of the most prestigious working groups of owners in the league.

Glazer is president and chief executive officer of First Allied Corporation. First Allied serves as a holding company for Glazer's varied business interests.

A true American success story, Glazer began working in his father's watch-parts business at the age of eight. When Glazer was 15, his father died and the son assumed responsibility for the family business and expanded it.

Glazer owns, or has owned, a diverse portfolio of nationwide investments whose interests include food service equipment, food packaging and food supplies, marine protein, broadcasting, health care, real estate, banking, natural gas and oil protection, Internet publications, stocks, government securities and corporate bonds. He has been profiled in the New York Times, USA Today, and Forbes Magazine, which stated that Glazer has "an eye for value."

Glazer's philanthropic and charitable activities have included significant local involvement through the Glazer Family Foundation.

The Foundation, the charitable arm of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the West Central Florida region. The Foundation works with established not-for-profit organizations that work with youth and families to help identify and create programs that support positive social and economic development within our communities. The Foundation has made large strides in its two years of existence by contributing more than one million dollars in cash, grants, tickets and merchandise.

In ongoing programs, the Foundation continues its "Cheering You On" Buccaneers teddy bear distribution to every pediatric patient admitted to five Bay area hospitals and two in Orlando. To date, more than 40,000 bears have been given away. In the past two NFL seasons, more than 2,000 young people representing 53 organizations have attended Buccaneers home games as participants in the Game Day Guest Program. The Foundation also contributed $75,000 for the 10 Buccaneers wins during the 2000 season to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, an organization that promotes amateur athletics. This brings the total donation to the Sports Commission to $300,000.

In special projects, the Foundation partnered with Friends of the Library to encourage summer reading. This program enabled youth to receive a free Buccaneers bookmark when they checked out a book from public libraries throughout six Bay area counties.

"The Foundation provides us the opportunity to give back to a community that supports us in so many ways," Glazer says. "We concluded a very successful year and look forward to continuing our out-reach programs."

A resident of Palm Beach, Florida, Malcolm Glazer was born in Rochester, New York. He and his wife, Linda, have six children: Avram, Kevin, Bryan, Joel, Ed and Darcie.

Malcolm Glazer's Reconstruction of the Buccaneers

In 1995, Malcolm Glazer paid a record price for a professional football team that had a 19-year winning percentage of .307. Nevertheless, he predicted success on the field; in fact, practically his first words uttered as new owner of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were, "We expect to be winners."

Six years later, the Buccaneers are enjoying one of the most remarkable turnarounds in recent sports history. Below is a chronology of the events that led to the Buccaneers being termed a "model franchise" in the NFL.

- Just months after buying the team, Glazer announces that his first priority is to build a new state-of-the-art stadium in the Tampa Bay area. After passage of the Community Investment Tax, plans are unveiled for the 66,000-seat facility (Raymond James Stadium) which hosted Super Bowl XXXV on January 28, 2001.
- On January 22, 1996, Glazer hires Tony Dungy as the sixth head coach in team history, proclaiming the former Minnesota Vikings defensive coordinator as "not only one of the finest coaches, but one of the finest people in the NFL." Glazer's words seem prophetic as Dungy directs the team to a 10-6 record in 1997 and a club-record 11-5 mark in 1999 en route to Tampa Bay's first NFC Central Division title in 18 years.
- On April 9, 1997, the Buccaneers unveil new, hard-hitting uniforms sporting primary colors of red and pewter. The team's new look is enthusiastically embraced by players and fans.
- In his continuing efforts to transform the organization into one of the league's model franchises, Glazer undertakes a complete overhaul of the team's front office in 1996, greatly expanding the sales and marketing staffs to meet the team's growing demands.
- Glazer shows his long-term commitment to bringing a championship to Tampa Bay by extending the contracts of key football personnel in 1998. Beginning with a new five-year deal for Dungy, Glazer also locks up General Manager Rich McKay and cornerstone player DT Warren Sapp. The Bucs then sign FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks and S John Lynch, among others, to long-term deals.
- Glazer and his sons open Raymond James Stadium in grand style with a 27-15 victory over the Chicago Bears before a crowd of 66,321 fans. After trailing 15-0 at halftime, the Buccaneers storm back with 27 unanswered points to defeat the Bears. Tampa Bay's win is the first of 20 in 25 games over three seasons at RJS.
- After signing Pro Bowl linemen Jeff Christy and Randall McDaniel to shore up the offensive line, Glazer gives McKay the go-ahead to trade both 2000 first-round picks to the New York Jets for WR Keyshawn Johnson. The Bucs then sign Johnson to an eight-year contract.
- Tampa Bay lands two of the biggest names on the free-agent market in 2001, signing Pro Bowlers QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice to five-year contracts.

TEAM EXECUTIVES

Bryan Glazer

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Entering his seventh season as the Executive Vice President of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Bryan Glazer's leadership has been instrumental in the team's ascension through the National Football League ranks. During Glazer's tenure, the club has become one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the NFL, as well as one of the most technologically advanced clubs in all of professional sports.

An instrumental force in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been the driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence both nationally and in the Tampa/St. Petersburg communities. His commitment to the organization and the local community culminated with the club's effort in constructing the finest facility in professional sports – 66,000-seat Raymond James Stadium, which hosted Super Bowl XXXV this past January.

Along with brothers Joel and Edward, Bryan oversees the day-to-day operation of the franchise, including financial operations, marketing and communications. Since the purchase of the team, he has devoted a significant amount of his efforts to such massive projects as the development and construction of Raymond James Stadium, the overhaul of the team's logo, colors and uniforms and the restructuring and expansion of the Buccaneers' staff.

Since Glazer assumed his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have posted a 54-46 record, including two playoff wins and have reached the postseason in three of the last four years — easily the most successful stretch in franchise annals.

Under Glazer, Tampa Bay has become a perennial playoff team and a Super Bowl contender, attracting some of the top free agent talent over the past two seasons. This past offseason, the Buccaneers signed two Pro Bowlers in QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice. In 2000, Tampa Bay inked a pair of Pro Bowl offensive linemen in C Jeff Christy and G Randall McDaniel, and then pulled off the biggest trade in franchise history by acquiring two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson from the New York Jets.

During the construction of Raymond James Stadium, Glazer worked alongside stadium architects and contractors to produce his vision of what the premier stadium in the NFL should resemble. Glazer oversaw all phases of the construction of Raymond James Stadium, where the Buccaneers boast a 20-5 record. The state-of-the-art stadium features such amenities as 19-inch wide seats with chairbacks, cupholders, and armrests, concourse televisions, full color replay boards at both ends of the stadium, one of the most sophisticated scoreboard systems in all of professional sports and the centerpiece of the stadium – the luxurious club seats and air-conditioned club lounges that make Tampa Bay's three-year home the envy of the NFL. In fact, the club's season ticket waiting list is now more than 20,000.

Glazer also created the club's "Pewter Partners" concept, which rewards the Buccaneers' 17 corporate sponsors with deeper advertising packages, reduced advertising clutter and unprecedented customer service.

In 1996-97, Glazer worked closely with designers and graphic artists from NFL Properties in New York and Los Angeles to develop and refine the Buccaneers' new logo, which was successfully unveiled before an estimated crowd of 5,000 frenzied Buccaneer fans at the Tampa Bay Convention Center on April 9, 1997.

The new logo, which drew rave reviews from such national media outlets as USA Today, Fox Sports, the New York Times, and the Washington Post, consists of a skull and crossed swords on a blood-red, wind-swept flag that is displayed on unique pewter-colored helmets. The modifications, based on research of Caribbean buccaneer history, were the first significant changes to the logo and uniform in the team's 22-year history.

A native of Rochester, the 36-year-old Glazer makes countless community and charitable appearances on behalf of the organization, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Ronald McDonald House and Florida 2012, the organization working to bring the 2012 Summer Olympic Games to the Tampa Bay and Central Florida area. Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986 prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989.

TEAM EXECUTIVES

Joel Glazer

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his seventh year as Executive Vice President, Joel Glazer had a single vision, shared by all members of the Glazer family when they acquired the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995 – build a franchise from the ground up, one that would become one of the most respected and successful franchises in the National Football League.

Under Glazer, the Buccaneers have become a model franchise by securing the top free agent talent over the past two seasons. This past off-season, Tampa Bay signed Pro Bowlers QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice to five-year contracts. In 2000, the Buccaneers grabbed a pair of Pro Bowl offensive linemen in C Jeff Christy and G Randall McDaniel, and then pulled off the biggest trade in franchise history by acquiring two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson from the New York Jets.

After successfully negotiating an agreement to acquire the Buccaneers in 1996, Glazer, along with his brothers Bryan and Edward, began the day-to-day duties of overseeing all aspects of the organization. The first building block came in June of 1995, when they recognized a "diamond in the rough" in general manager Rich McKay. Glazer signed McKay to a long-term contract, thus stabilizing the foundation of the Buccaneers' football operations. Following the 1995 season, after a long and exhaustive search headed by McKay, a consensus was formed on the selection of Tony Dungy as Tampa Bay's head coach. The hiring of Dungy, now heralded as one of the NFL's elite head coaches, provided the next building block for the franchise.

With the key football personnel in place, Glazer turned his attention to other vital elements of building a successful franchise, namely the front office and the stadium. After completely reorganizing the front office, bringing in talented people from a variety of backgrounds, Glazer worked tirelessly alongside Bryan and McKay to build a community consensus for local approval of what would later become Raymond James Stadium. Glazer and his brother set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing the fan's experience and comfort at a stadium. They visited approximately 25 different stadiums, drawing from their experiences as fans and ultimately shaping every detail of RJS.

A massive undertaking, the stadium opened on time and budget to rave reviews, earning nods as the "crown jewel of the NFL." Raymond James Stadium featured amenities never before seen in modern stadiums, including the 24'x92' BucVision video boards now emulated at all new stadiums. However, the true signature of Raymond James Stadium is Buccaneer Cove, featuring the 103' larger-than-life replica pirate ship.

After securing a top-notch general manager and head coach, as well as jumpstarting a new stadium, the stage was set to put a final stamp on the rebirth of the franchise. The team needed a new look. Glazer, along with Bryan, worked closely with NFL Properties to create a dynamic look that would illustrate the attitude and class of the franchise. The result was a complete logo and uniform redesign, introduced to rave reviews. Buccaneers merchandise sales immediately soared throughout the country, vaulting the Buccaneers into the top of NFL merchandise sales almost immediately. On the field, the new look helped create the attitude of a winner. In fact, Tampa Bay's season ticket waiting list is now more than 20,000 strong.

Throughout the construction of RJS, Glazer created the sales and marketing strategies and campaigns that led to record season ticket club seat, luxury suite and group sales. In addition to helping create the club's prestigious corporate "Pewter Partners," Glazer's other duties include overseeing the organization's annual budgets and establishing the club's strategic planning in marketing, community relations, public relations, ticketing and luxury suite relations.

Glazer is currently leading the design and construction of the team's new state-of-the-art training facility. Once completed, it is expected to be one of the premier training facilities in all of sports.

In addition to his duties within the Buccaneers organization, Glazer also represents the team at all NFL Owners' Meetings.

Since moving to Tampa in 1995, Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community. Glazer Family Foundation programs such as "Cheering You On," "Prevent Blindness" and the "Ticket Rewards" programs are just a few of the programs he takes great pride in. In addition, Glazer has been an active member of the Super Bowl Task Force, Tampa Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Outback Bowl Advisory Committee.

Glazer, 34, earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York native lives in Tampa with his wife Angela.

TEAM EXECUTIVES

Edward Glazer

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Since joining the club as Executive Vice President in 1997, Edward Glazer has made significant contributions to the Buccaneers and the Tampa Bay community. Overseeing all aspects of the club's administrative offices, Glazer has aggressively worked to implement comprehensive improvements at each level of the organization.

In 1999, Glazer spearheaded the development, design and construction of www.buccaneers.com, the team's official website. Upon its introduction, the New York Times said Buccaneers.com "bustles with information" and was "potent." In addition, the Tampa Bay Advertising Federation recognized Buccaneers.com as the region's top interactive media effort by awarding it a "Best of the Bay" Addy Award in 1999 and 2000.

Leading the Buccaneers' Community Relations objectives and initiatives, Glazer works closely with local, regional and national non-profit agencies in an effort to take the Buccaneers' philanthropic efforts to a national level. Over the past few seasons, the Buccaneers have been recognized by several national media outlets including the CBS Evening News, CNN, The Sporting News and HBO's Inside the NFL as one of the most charitable teams in the league with programs such as running back Warrick Dunn's "Homes for the Holidays," Derrick Brooks' "Brooks' Bunch," and Jerry Wunsch's "Jerry's Journey."

Under Glazer's leadership, the Buccaneers founded the Student Advisory Board in 1999. This program takes high school students inside the workings of a NFL team. The students get to participate in game day operations, meet coaches and players and also get involved with volunteerism in the Tampa Bay community. Glazer teaches a resume workshop to help the students as they search for employment.

Glazer also works closely with the Glazer Family Foundation, helping implement new programs, including the "Cheering You On" program that gives every child admitted to a local hospital a Buccaneers teddy bear and activity book.

Glazer, along with his brother Joel, continue to oversee all aspects of the team's sales campaign, including television, radio and outdoor billboards, which have resulted in unprecedented season-ticket sales. In fact, the club's season ticket waiting list has more than 20,000 requests. In 1998 the brothers were the driving force behind the Buccaneers' nationally recognized club seat sales film designed to educate fans about the luxurious club seating available at Raymond James Stadium. The film, hosted by ABC Sports Al Michaels, won such prestigious awards as the Communicator Crystal Award and the Telly Award for short film. By winning a Telly, the club seat film was singled out as one of the year's most outstanding non-network video productions and received notable mention in various film and trade publications across the country.

Edward is also heavily involved, along with his brothers Bryan and Joel, in the design of the Buccaneers' new training facility. This new facility scheduled to open in 2003 will be a technological marvel and set a new standard of excellence for training facilities in the NFL.

One of Glazer's most popular concepts with the fans has been the "Buccaneer Battle Flags." Each time the Buccaneer offense penetrates the opposition's 'red zone,' the red flags are raised throughout the stadium. This dramatic game enhancement has quickly become a signature at Buccaneer home games.

Glazer and his wife Shari live in Tampa and are deeply committed to providing aid and assistance in their community. Shari is actively involved with organizing the charity work of the Buccaneer Women's Organization, which annually hosts children from the Boys and Girls Clubs, The Spring, Joshua House and the Children's Home at local petting zoos and cultural events at the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center. Shari has volunteered her time at many local charities, including Camp Good Days and Special Times, the Children's Cancer Center, and the Tampa Aids Network, where she has served as co-chairperson for the Tampa AIDS Walk for the past two years. Last year Shari was named honorary co-chair for the Susan G. Komen Tampa Bay Race for the Cure.

Edward Glazer was born in Rochester, New York and earned a bachelor's degree from Ithaca College.

GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

The Glazer Family Foundation, the charitable arm of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, is dedicated to assisting charitable and educational causes in the West Central Florida region. The Glazer Family Foundation works with established not-for-profit organizations that work with youth and families to help identify and create programs that support positive social and economic development within our communities.

Making A Difference

"Cheering You On" Hospital Program

An ongoing program that provides all pediatric patients admitted to five Bay area hospitals and two in Orlando with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers stuffed teddy bear and activity book. Since December 1999, the Foundation has distributed more than 40,000 bears and books to children and teens.

"Youth With Promise"

In the past two NFL seasons, more than 2,000 young people representing 53 organizations in West Central Florida have attended Buccaneers home games as participants in the Game Day Program. The youth were chosen to attend games based on incentive programs, positive behavior and academic performance. Organizations may apply to be Game Day Guests by downloading an application from the Foundation's website.

Bi-annual Grants

In 2000, the Foundation implemented a bi-annual "mini" grant program that focuses on youth in the areas of general health, safety, education and recreation. A total of $50,000 was given out to 30 Bay area non-profit organizations during the Grant 2000 Program.

Applications for 2001 can be downloaded from the Foundation's website and are accepted from May 1st to June 15th and September 1st to October 15th.

Tampa Bay Sports Commission

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers have committed to donate up to two million dollars over a 30-year period to the Tampa Bay Sports Commission. This contribution promotes the development of amateur sports in Hillsborough and Pinellas Counties. The team donates $7,500 for every Buccaneers victory and has donated $300,000 to date since 1997.

GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Make Reading Your Goal

The Foundation partnered with Friends of the Library to encourage summer reading. This program enabled youth to receive a free Buccaneers bookmark when they checked out a book from their local public library over the summer. A total of 100,000 bookmarks were distributed to more than 50 library branches in Hillsborough, Pinellas, Pasco, Polk, Manatee and Sarasota Counties. The Foundation was recognized by the Hillsborough County Board of County Commissioners for its support of the public library system.

Boy Scouts of America

The Foundation purchased 1,000 uniforms, including shirts and neckerchiefs, for the Gulf Ridge Council Boy Scouts. This contribution enabled disadvantaged boys in seven Bay area counties to participate in the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts.

Jackson Heights Community Center

The Foundation donated $125,000 to the NFL Youth Education Town (YET) Center. The contribution helped provide a youth football field at the Jackson Heights Community Center in East Tampa. The community center will open in January 2002 and will give children access to a gymnasium, computers, cultural activities and community service projects.

Holiday Food Drive

In 2000, the Foundation teamed up with Divine Providence Food Bank and Raymond James Financial for its first holiday food drive. More than 20 tons of food were collected from fans and distributed back to the Tampa Bay community through America's Second Harvest Food Bank Network.

VERONICA COSTELLO

Executive Director

Veronica Costello was one of the first senior executive staff members hired by the Glazer family during the reconstruction of the Buccaneers' front office in 1996.

As Executive Director of the Foundation, she is responsible for all aspects of the Foundation, including its business plan, budget, contributions, public relations and special events. She created and launched the bi-annual grant program and devised other Foundation programs and projects. She also oversees the Foundation's website and works on various ownership projects.

Costello was initially hired as Vice President of Sales Administration, overseeing the team's general, club and luxury suite sales. In Spring 1999, after managing record sales goals, Costello accepted the position with the newly organized Glazer Family Foundation. Before joining the Buccaneers, she worked with Tucker/Hall, focusing on corporate positioning, issue management and community relations. Prior to that, she was the Director of Public Affairs for Hill and Knowlton, Florida. Her extensive government experience includes Central Florida District Assistant to U.S. Senator Bob Graham and eight years working with the Florida Legislature in Tallahassee.

Costello, a Florida native, is a graduate of Florida State University. She is on the Board of Directors for the Florida Sports Foundation and the Tampa Bay Sports Commission. She is also a member of the Council on Foundations, Florida Funders Group, Leadership Tampa Alumni and the University Club.

Costello and her husband Harry, live in Tampa. She has two stepsons, Brian and Mark.

TEAM EXECUTIVES

Rich McKay

GENERAL MANAGER

It is unique in the complex financial era of today's NFL that a franchise could have 12 current or former Pro Bowl performers on its roster. But Buccaneers general manager Rich McKay has successfully accomplished this feat, positioning the team into annual playoff contenders and a perennial favorite to compete for the Super Bowl.

McKay's value to the Buccaneer franchise is immeasurable. Numbers alone cannot tell the story, but some just cannot be ignored. Take into account that prior to McKay's arrival as the team's general manager, Tampa Bay had a total of just 18 Pro Bowl selections in the club's first 20 seasons. But since 1995, the Buccaneers have had 29 Pro Bowl honorees, including a league-high and team-record nine players this past February. In all, 12 players have been to the Pro Bowl over the last few seasons, representing 50% of Tampa Bay's starting lineup.

McKay has worked diligently to provide the Buccaneers with Pro Bowl caliber talent, developing the club through the draft and adding veteran leadership and depth through free agency the past two offseasons.

After Tampa Bay reached the playoffs for the third time in four seasons in 2000, McKay ventured into the free agent market by landing one of the league's biggest prizes in Pro Bowl QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who brings nine years of experience to an already talent-laden offense, boasts the best completion percentage (61.8%) among all active quarterbacks. On March 23, Tampa Bay followed by inking one of the league's premier pass rushers, DE Simeon Rice, to a five-year deal. Rice joins an already imposing defensive line that set a club record with 55 sacks last season. Tampa Bay's defensive line now features four former first-round draft selections: Rice, DE Marcus Jones, DT Anthony McFarland and All-Pro DT Warren Sapp, who racked up a franchise-record 16.5 sacks last year. In addition, McKay re-signed a pair of starters – CB Ronde Barber and T Jerry Wunsch – who have developed into key contributors over the past two seasons.

The signing of high profile free agents continues a trend that began after the 1999 season. McKay capped off Tampa Bay's most ambitious offseason in club history by signing perennial Pro Bowlers C Jeff Christy and G Randall McDaniel to re-tool the Buccaneer offensive line. McKay followed by pulling the trigger on the biggest trade in franchise history one day prior to the draft, acquiring two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson, who posted a team-high 71 receptions and eight touchdowns in his first season in Tampa Bay. Mix those aggressive steps with the in-season contract extensions of Pro Bowler John Lynch and Jones, and it is evident that McKay has positioned the Buccaneers for long-term success .

Entering his 10th season with the club and seventh overall as the team's general manager, McKay supervises the entire football operation of the Buccaneers and negotiates player contracts. Additionally, McKay presides over the club's college and pro personnel departments, including the NFL draft, waiver wire transactions, trades, free agency acquisitions and salary cap management.

Prior to McKay's arrival, the Buccaneers struggled, posting 10 consecutive losing seasons from 1985-94. Tampa Bay's record over that 10-year stretch was 43-117 (.269). But McKay's tenure as general manager has produced a 52-44 regular-season record (.542) and three playoff appearances, easily the most successful run in club history. Tampa Bay has the second-most wins in the NFC (29) over the last three seasons and the third-most victories in the conference (39) over the previous four years.

McKay has nurtured a team from the ground up, arguably utilizing draft picks better than any executive in the league over the past seven seasons. The main architect of Tampa Bay's last seven drafts, McKay has guided the Buccaneers from one of the worst drafting teams in the NFL to one of the league's best in a relatively short period of time. In

Draft Accolades

Prior to this year's draft, The Sporting News ranked all 31 NFL teams in several categories based on the previous five drafts (1996-2000). The Buccaneers were the only organization in the entire league to receive an "A" rating in that publication.

2000, Tampa Bay posted their second consecutive 10-win season for the first time in club history. That followed a 1999 campaign in which the Buccaneers set a franchise record with 11 wins en route to its first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Adopting a philosophy based on on-field production rather than game-breaking potential, McKay has developed into one of the more astute and crafty draft-day technicians in the NFL.

In six of the seven NFL drafts from 1993-1999, the Buccaneers selected at least one player that has gone on to become a Pro Bowl performer for the Buccaneers. That impressive list includes: S John Lynch (1993 draft), QB Trent Dilfer (1994), Sapp (1995), LB Derrick Brooks (1995), CB Donnie Abraham (1996), FB Mike Alstott (1996), RB Warrick Dunn (1997) and K Martin Gramatica (1999). During the 1997 season, the Buccaneers sent a NFL-high eight players to the Pro Bowl. It marked the first time in team history that more than three Buccaneers attended the league's post-season all-star event. Five Buccaneers earned Pro Bowl nods in 1998 and Tampa Bay sent six players (five of them starters) to Honolulu after advancing to the NFC Championship Game in 1999. As for last season, a league-high and team-record nine players made the trip to Hawaii, including six as starters.

Under McKay's leadership, the 1994-2000 drafts have been the major focal point in turning the team's fortunes around. During that span, 24 of the Buccaneers' 54 draft picks remain on the team's roster. Entering this season, 15 of Tampa Bay's 24 projected starters were draft choices made under McKay's direction. During the 1995-97 seasons, McKay positioned the team with a league-high six first-round selections over that three-year time period.

Prior to this year's draft, The Sporting News ranked all 31 NFL teams in several categories based on the previous five drafts (1996-2000). The Buccaneers were the only organization in the entire league to receive an "A" rating in that publication.

Additionally, The War Room 2000 preseason publication named McKay NFL Executive of the Year.

"McKay is not only one of the brightest executives in the NFL, but he is also one of the most decent," the publication stated. "If you ask a lot of so-called experts, they look at the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a model of how to run an NFL franchise."

During the 1998 offseason, McKay was appointed co-chairman of the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee, replacing retired New York Giants General Manager George Young. Since 1994, McKay has served on the committee of NFL coaches and executives who study the game and pass rules modifications to ensure player safety while promoting competitiveness in the league.

During his tenure as a Competition Committee member, McKay has played a vital role in helping secure such progressive rules changes as instant replay, the two-point conversion, the spotting of missed field goals from the point of the kick, and moving of the kickoff spot from the 35-yard line to the 30-yard line.

In 1996, McKay coordinated the team's search for a new head coach following the 1995 season, which culminated in the hiring of Tony Dungy. Dungy's unparalleled leadership, combined with McKay's familiarity with personnel matters, have produced the foundation for one of the league's best teams. Only two head coach and general manager combinations in the NFL have been together longer than Dungy and McKay.

> Under McKay, the Bucs have become a model franchise, a perennial playoff team and a Super Bowl contender by consistently drafting well and handling free agency better than other teams.

McKay began his tenure with the Buccaneers as Vice President of Football Administration from 1992-94. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, McKay represented a number of professional sports teams on a variety of stadium issues regarding acquisitions, financing, and debt service. Additionally, he played a key role in securing the club's new state-of-the-art stadium — Raymond James Stadium — which hosted Super Bowl XXXV this past January. McKay, along with Buccaneers Executive Vice Presidents Bryan and Joel Glazer, negotiated the terms for the lease of Raymond James Stadium with Tampa Mayor Dick Greco and Hillsborough County Administrator Dan Kleman.

Before joining the Buccaneers on a full-time basis, McKay was an attorney with the Tampa law firm of Hill, Ward, and Henderson, joining them in 1986. While in that position, he served as the team's legal counsel for six years and helped facilitate the reworking of the team's lease agreement with the Tampa Sports Authority in 1991.

McKay, who also taught a course in sports/entertainment law at Stetson University's College of Law, earned his bachelor's degree in 1981 from Princeton University. He graduated from Stetson's College of Law in 1984 and clerked for two years for Tampa U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges.

McKay is the son of the late legendary coach John McKay, who won four national championships at the University of Southern California and was the first head coach in Buccaneers history (1976-84). Born in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School where he was the football team's starting quarterback. An avid long distance runner, he has participated in and finished two New York City Marathons.

McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons, Hunter and John, and reside in Tampa.

Pro Bowl Splurge

Since Rich McKay assumed the reins of general manager in 1995, the Buccaneers can boast 29 Pro Bowl selections, including a league-high and club-record nine this past season. Prior to 1995, Tampa Bay had 18 Pro Bowl selections in 20 seasons.

Rich McKay's Draft-Week Dealing

General Manager Rich McKay has helped shape the Buccaneers' build-through-the-draft approach and has made that philosophy work with extensive maneuvering during draft week. Below is a look at McKay's most important draft-related moves over the last seven years.

- Traded TE Harold Bishop to Cleveland in 1995 for a second-round pick in the 1996 draft, which was used to selected four-time Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott. Bishop had been selected by Tampa Bay in the third round in 1994 and had been activated in six games with no starts as a rookie.
- Traded the seventh overall selection in the 1995 draft (and a third-round pick) to the Philadelphia Eagles for three draft picks which included the 12th overall selection. This trade allowed the Buccaneers to select four-time Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp with the 12th overall pick and later enabled Tampa Bay to package the additional draft picks to obtain another first round selection in the first round of that same draft. The Buccaneers used that pick to select four-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks.
- Traded restricted free agent QB Craig Erickson to Indianapolis in 1995 for a first-round draft choice in 1996, which was used to select DE Marcus Jones.
- Traded a 1996 second-round pick to San Diego for the Chargers' first-round choice in 1997. That pick was eventually used to select all-rookie WR Reidel Anthony, the team's leading receiver in '98. The Buccaneers' six first-round picks over a three-year span (1995-97) were the most by any NFL team in that period.
- Traded the Buccaneers' first-round pick in 1998 draft to Oakland for two of the Raiders' second-round picks. With these second-round picks, Tampa Bay then selected WR Jacquez Green and CB Brian Kelly.
- Traded the Buccaneers' second-round pick in 1998 to San Diego in exchange for the Chargers' first-round pick in 2000.
- Traded the Buccaneers' two first-round picks in 2000 to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson.
- Traded Tampa Bay's first and second round picks in 2001 to the Buffalo Bills for their first-round selection (14th overall). With the pick they selected OT Kenyatta Walker.

COACHING STAFF

Tony Dungy

HEAD COACH

When Tampa Bay stumbled to a 3-4 record to start off the 2000 campaign, Buccaneers head coach Tony Dungy heard the advice, suggestions and ideas from all the critics about what was wrong with his team. Dungy understood the Bay Area community's frustration; he had been through this once before. Just one year earlier, Dungy and the Buccaneers started out 3-4 in 1999, before rallying to win eight of their last nine games en route to winning the NFC Central Division title and advancing to the franchise's first NFC Championship appearance in 20 years.

Riding a four-game losing streak following a loss to the Detroit Lions on national television, Dungy, as he did the previous season, patiently explained at his weekly press conference that there would not be any brash personnel moves or drastic changes to his football team. Still, while many hit the panic button after the loss to the Lions, Dungy never wavered — not with his players, not with his coaches and not with his inherent philosophy on how to win football games. He was certain that his players and coaching staff would respond to the challenge. While others continued to disagree with Dungy's motives, no one could argue with the final outcome. Tampa Bay rallied in the second half of the season, winning seven of its last nine games to post a club-record second consecutive 10-win season.

> "I think I'd be hard-pressed to find a man in the NFL whom I respect more – as a coach, as a person, as a motivator, as a human being who will have meaning in his players' lives long after they stop playing football – than Tampa Bay coach Tony Dungy. There are more good guys per square inch in the Bucs' locker room than in any locker room in the NFL, and Dungy is a big reason why."
> — Sports Illustrated's Peter King

Along the way, Dungy (45-35) became the all-time winningest coach in franchise history after Tampa Bay defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion St. Louis Rams, 38-35, in an emotional come-from-behind win in front of a nationally televised audience on Monday Night Football. More importantly, the Buccaneers' victory over the Rams propelled Tampa Bay into the playoffs for the third time in four seasons.

Over the last four seasons, Dungy has led his troops to easily the most successful run in franchise history. Under Dungy, who also holds the best winning percentage in club history with a .563 mark, Tampa Bay has the second-most wins in the NFC (29) over the last three seasons and the third-most victories (39) over the past four seasons.

One of the most popular and respected head coaches in the NFL, Dungy has been pivotal in helping extend the contracts of core players on the club's roster. Pro Bowlers CB Donnie Abraham, FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp all have re-signed long-term contracts during Dungy's tenure. Dungy's stellar reputation has also helped attract the top free agent talent in the league. During the 2000 offseason, the Buccaneers had their most ambitious offseason in club history, inking a pair of Pro Bowl free agents in C Jeff Christy and G Randall McDaniel. Tampa Bay then followed by pulling off the biggest trade in franchise history by acquiring two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. And this offseason, Dungy landed a pair of Pro Bowlers, signing QB Brad Johnson and DE Simeon Rice. All five players cited Dungy as one of the primary reasons for joining the Buccaneers.

"I think I'd be hard-pressed to find a man in the NFL whom I respect more — as a coach, as a person, as a motivator, as a human being who will have meaning in his players' lives long after they stop playing football — than Tampa Bay coach Tony Dungy," Sports Illustrated's Peter King wrote after the 1999 NFC Championship Game. "There are more good guys per square inch in the Bucs' locker room than in any locker room in the NFL, and Dungy is a big reason why."

When Dungy was named the Buccaneers' sixth head coach in 1996, he was not intimidated by the franchise's share of disappointments during the previous two decades. Dungy instead embraced the challenge and his reward is one of the top teams in the National Football League. The Buccaneers are now synonymous with the Bay Area, playing to sold-out crowds and monopolizing the banter about town. Has there been a more surprising turnaround in recent professional sports? You be the judge. In the 10 seasons prior to Dungy's arrival, the Bucs posted a 43-111 (.279) mark with nine double-digit loss seasons and no playoff appearances. Entering his sixth season, Dungy has posted the aforementioned franchise-best 45-35 (.563) record with three post-season appearances and two playoff wins.

Under the watch of Dungy, the Buccaneers also sent a league-high and team-record nine players to the Pro Bowl last season. Tampa Bay's six starters — Alstott, Brooks, Christy, McDaniel, Lynch and Sapp — were also the most in the NFL and a club record. Abraham, RB Warrick Dunn and K Martin Gramatica also joined their teammates in Hawaii.

Dungy, long considered one of the game's great defensive minds, watched his defensive troops finish among the top 10 in the NFL in overall defense for the fourth straight season in 2000. The Buccaneers, one of the league's most imposing defenses, established a single-season record with 55 sacks and tied a mark with five defensive touchdowns. In 2000, turnovers continued to be a staple of Dungy's alert and aggressive scheme. During Tampa Bay's second-half surge, the defense forced 27 turnovers over a nine-game stretch, resulting in 73 points. Dungy's defenses have been known for takeaways and scoring TDs. In his last 18 seasons, his units have scored an amazing 56 defensive TDs. In fact, since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, only nine teams have scored as many as seven defensive touchdowns in a season and four of those have come under Dungy's guidance.

The defense produced three first-team All-Pros for the second consecutive season: Brooks, Lynch and Sapp. In the club's first 23 seasons of existence, Tampa Bay could boast only five first-team All-Pro selections. While the Buccaneers' defense corralled some well-deserved accolades, Dungy's offense showed signs of improvement, despite a low statistical ranking. The Buccaneers set records for points scored (388), touchdowns (43) and average per rush (4.2) last season.

In 1999, Dungy led the Buccaneers to their first NFC Central title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concluded the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins and its seven wins set a club record. Tampa Bay then rallied from a 13-0 deficit to defeat Washington 14-13 in the divisional playoff round,vaulting the Buccaneers to their first NFC Championship since 1979. Tampa Bay, a 14-point underdog to St. Louis, nearly pulled off the upset before falling 11-6.

In 1998, the Buccaneers also ranked first in the NFC in defense, second overall. The offense finished second in the NFC with 2,148 rushing yards, the second-best effort in club annals. Dungy's 1997 season served as the launching pad for his team's rise to prominence. Dungy was selected as the Professional Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club after guiding the Bucs to a 10-6 mark and a wild card win over Detroit. Tampa Bay's playoff appearance was its first in 15 years. On March 11, 1998, Dungy was awarded with a new five-year contract that essentially voided out the terms of his original contract and ensured he would be with the team through the 2002 season.

Dungy was named head coach of the Buccaneers on January 22, 1996. Eleven months later, he guided his club to victories in five of their final seven games, including five consecutive victories at home. The strong finish would serve as an early indicator of the organization's rise the following year. Dungy's first NFL victory was a 24-13 win in Tampa over his former employer, the Minnesota Vikings.

When Dennis Green became the Minnesota Vikings' head coach in 1992, he named Dungy as his defensive coordinator. In his four seasons with the Vikes, his defenses intercepted an NFL-best 95 passes as the team qualified for post season play three times. In 1995, Dungy's troops racked up impressive statistics. The Vikes finished second in the NFL in takeaways with 40, ranked second in the league in INTs with 25, ended up fourth in the NFL against the rush and were tied for first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44.

Dungy directed another successful defensive effort for the Vikings in 1994 despite having fewer first-round picks (one) than any other playoff defense. Minnesota ranked first in the NFL in defensive TDs with seven, first in the league in run defense, was fifth in the NFL in total defense, tied for first in the NFC in fumble recoveries with 16, fourth in the conference in takeaways with 34 and tied for fifth in the NFC with 36 sacks. The Vikings' league-best 68.1 rushing yards allowed per game was the fourth-best in NFL history and the top league mark in 30 years (Buffalo 65.2 in 1964). Three of the four NFC Defensive Players of the Month for the '94 campaign were Vikings. CB Anthony Parker established a new NFL record with a defensive score in three consecutive games while CB Dewayne Washington tied a league rookie record with three defensive scores for the season.

In 1993, under the direction of Dungy, the Vikes boasted the NFL's top-ranked defense (275.3 yards per game). Minnesota was also the league's only team to rank in the top six defenses against both the run and the pass. Only the defenses of the Vikings, Oilers and Jets produced more than one shutout in '93. Dungy's corps also led the NFC and ranked second in the NFL in interceptions with 24, was third in the NFC in takeaways with 34, paced the league in fewest first downs permitted (259), was number one in highest percent of opponents' passes intercepted (5%) and finished fourth in the conference in sacks with 45.

In his first year with Minnesota (1992), Dungy's defense had five new starters yet still led the NFL in INTs with 28, ranked first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 42 takeaways, tied for the league lead in defensive touchdowns with eight (NFL's best total in eight years), and tied for third in the NFL in sacks with 51. Additionally, the Viking defense was second in the league in yards allowed per play (4.5), finished first in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per pass play, had the NFL's lowest percentage of TD passes allowed (2.4 percent), finished third in the league in fewest TDs allowed with 23, ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and was seventh in the NFL against the pass. Four Vikings defensive players were selected to participate in the Pro Bowl.

From 1989-91, Dungy was the defensive backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs under head coach Marty Schottenheimer. In 1989, the Chiefs finished first in the AFC and second in the NFL in pass defense while the club qualified for the playoffs in 1990 and '91. From 1989-90, Kansas City allowed both the second fewest completions in the NFL (503 behind Minnesota's 470) and the league's second lowest completion percentage (51.2 percent behind Philadelphia's 48.5 percent). Under Dungy's guidance, CBs Albert Lewis and Kevin Ross were two-time Pro Bowl selections.

Dungy's first NFL coaching stop was with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1981-88. In '81, he became the youngest assistant coach in the NFL (25) when he joined the Steelers as a defensive assistant. From 1982-83, Dungy served as Pittsburgh's defensive backs coach, tutoring such Steeler stars as Mel Blount and Donnie Shell. In 1983, the Steelers' secondary permitted just seven TD passes in 16 games. In 1984, Dungy became the youngest coordinator in the NFL when, at the age of 28, the Steelers tabbed him to run their defense. Pittsburgh's "D" ranked among the league's top six in each of his first two seasons as coordinator and, in his five years in that position, his defenses averaged 24 INTs and 37 takeaways per season while scoring 20 TDs (including a league-best seven in 1987).

Dungy began his coaching career in 1980 at the age of 24 when he served as the defensive backs coach at the University of Minnesota (his alma mater). As a player, Dungy was a quarterback at the University of Minnesota from 1973-76. He finished his Golden Gopher career as the schools all-time leader in pass attempts (576), completions (274), passing yards (3577) and touchdown passes (25). Dungy also rushed 413 times for 1,345 yards and 16 touchdowns. A two-time team Most Valuable Player, Dungy played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Japan Bowl. At the time he completed his college career, he ranked fourth in Big Ten history in total offense behind Mike Phipps, Archie Griffin and Bob Griese. As a junior, he established a single-season school record with 15 TD passes while leading the Big Ten and ranking fifth nationally in both total offense and passing. As a freshman, Dungy played for the 1973-74 Gophers varsity basketball team, averaging 2.6 points per game before ultimately concentrating on football. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration.

Following his UM career, Dungy signed as a free agent with the Steelers in May, 1977. In training camp, he was converted from quarterback to wide receiver to safety, and he impressed the Pittsburgh coaching staff sufficiently to become the first free agent to make the team's final roster in two years. Dungy appeared in 14 games as a rookie and notched three INTs. In a '77 game against the Houston Oilers, Steeler QBs Terry Bradshaw and Mike Kruczek were both injured and Dungy completed three of eight passes for 43 yards and rushed three times for eight yards. He had the unusual experience of picking off a pass and throwing an INT in the same game.

In 1978, Dungy played in all 16 games and, despite starting just two contests, he ranked second in the AFC with six INTs. He saved the Steelers' 15-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns with an end zone interception on the game's final play which he returned 65 yards. Dungy played in the Steelers' 35-31 victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl XIII. During training camp in 1979 (8/21), Dungy was traded to the San Francisco 49ers in exchange for a 1980 10th-round draft choice. He participated in 15 games for the 49ers in '79. Prior to the 1980 campaign (3/27), Dungy was dealt to the New York Giants along with RB Mike Hogan in exchange for WR Jimmy Robinson and CB Ray Rhodes.

Since arriving in the Tampa Bay area, Dungy and his wife, Lauren, have been very active in community affairs. Dungy has done extensive work as a speaker for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Athletes in Action. In 1997, he launched Mentors for Life, a program which provides tickets to Buccaneer home games to area youth and their mentors. Additionally, he has been a large supporter of a variety of

Mark Asanovich

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

7TH NFL SEASON, 6TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Mark Asanovich enters his sixth season as the team's strength and conditioning coach. Asanovich oversees all aspects of the club's strength and conditioning program, including the highly successful four-month off-season voluntary workout program. The voluntary off-season conditioning program continues to be one of the most highly attended off-season programs in the National Football League, boasting a participation level from eligible roster players of nearly 100 percent.

Under Asanovich's guidance, the Buccaneers have upgraded virtually every facet of their weight training facilities. Asanovich provides each Buccaneer player with a clearly defined road map on how he will reach his full potential in areas of conditioning, nutrition, and strength training.

Asanovich spent the 1995 NFL season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Minnesota Vikings. Prior to joining the Vikings, Asanovich worked from 1987-95 as the strength and conditioning coach at Anoka (MN) High School. During his tenure there, the school captured state football championships in 1990 and 1994. Anoka also won state titles in soccer (1989), wrestling (1991), and basketball (1992) during his nine years at the school. Asanovich came to Anoka after spending 1986 in a similar capacity at The Citadel.

In 1984, Asanovich was hired as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl that season. That same year, he also worked as the strength and conditioning coach at Grove City (Ohio) High School. Asanovich was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach at Ohio State the following year as the team went 9-3 and defeated Brigham Young in the Citrus Bowl.

While in Minnesota, Asanovich was a member of the Governor's Council for Health and Physical Fitness and also was on the Executive Board of the Minnesota Association of Physical Education, Health, Exercise, Recreation, and Dance. He was also one of the first 15 coaches certified by the National Strength Conditioning Association.

Asanovich earned his bachelor's degree in special education from St. Cloud State and his master's in strength training and athletic conditioning from Ohio State. A native of Duluth, Minnesota, Asanovich played guard and linebacker at the city's East High School. He and his wife, Allisen, reside in Odessa with their daughter, Haley KayLynn.

Joe Barry

LINEBACKERS COACH
2ND NFL SEASON, 1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Joe Barry, who spent the 2000 season as defensive quality control coach for the San Francisco 49ers, was named Tampa Bay's linebackers coach on February 8, 2001.

Barry spent the 1999 season coaching linebackers under John Robinson at UNLV. Prior to that, he worked with linebackers and defensive ends at Northern Arizona for three seasons from 1996-98.

Barry was a three-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Southern Cal and then worked as a defensive graduate assistant for two seasons (1994-95) at USC. He served as a co-captain during his senior year in 1993.

Barry's father, Mike, has served as the offensive line coach for the University of Tennessee since 1998. Barry joins his father-in-law, Rod Marinelli, on the defensive staff of the Buccaneers, where Marinelli has coached the defensive line for the last five seasons.

Barry and his wife, Christine, have two daughters, Camryn and Lauren.

QUARTERBACKS COACH
1ST NFL SEASON, 1ST WITH BUCCANEERS

Jim Caldwell was named Tampa Bay's quarterbacks coach on February 8, 2001 after serving as head coach at Wake Forest for the past eight seasons (1993-2000).

Caldwell has coached on the collegiate level for more than two decades. In 1999, Caldwell led the Demon Deacons to their first winning season and the school's first bowl game since 1992 — Wake Forest defeated Arizona State 23-3 in the Aloha Bowl. During Caldwell's tenure, Wake Forest ranked among the nation's Top 25 teams in passing offense on four different occasions, including 10th in the NCAA in 1995. That season, QB Rusty LaRue established seven NCAA passing records.

Before leading the Demon Deacons program, Caldwell served as an assistant coach at Southern Illinois (1978-80), Northwestern (1981), Colorado (1982-84), Louisville (1985) and Penn State (1986-92). Caldwell first joined Penn State's staff as its wide receivers coach. He then coached quarterbacks the following season and added passing game coordinator responsibilities in 1988.

At Penn State, Caldwell tutored QB Kerry Collins, who went on to win the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top college quarterback and the Maxwell Award as the nation's most outstanding player. Caldwell has coached in six bowl games and won a national championship with Penn State in 1986.

Caldwell was a four-year starter as a defensive back at the University of Iowa and worked as a graduate assistant for the Hawkeyes in 1977.

Caldwell and his wife, Cheryl, have four children: Jimmy, Jermaine, Jared and Natalie.

Clyde Christensen

Offensive Coordinator

6th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Clyde Christensen, who enters his sixth season on the Tampa Bay coaching staff, was promoted to offensive coordinator this past offseason.

After spending his first three seasons tutoring the Buccaneer tight ends, Christensen worked with the Tampa Bay quarterbacks for each of the last two seasons (1999-2000).

Christensen helped a Buccaneer offense that set several club marks in 2000, including points scored and touchdowns. He also was instrumental in the late-season development of rookie signal-caller Shaun King in 1999. King was pressed into duty at Seattle when starter Trent Dilfer went down with a clavicle injury. The rookie engineered a victory, then ushered Tampa Bay to four wins in its last five contests en route to the NFC Central title. King then became just the second rookie quarterback since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to win a playoff game, rallying the Bucs to a 14-13 divisional playoff win over Washington. King completed 61 percent of his passes during his regular-season run and tied Doug Williams' club rookie record of seven TD passes. Christensen wrapped up the 1999 campaign by serving as offensive coordinator for the NFC in the Pro Bowl, leading his charges to a 51-31 victory.

Before joining the Buccaneers in 1996, Christensen spent two years (1994-1995) as the co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Clemson University. From 1992-1993, he served as the quarterbacks coach at the University of Maryland where he worked closely with John Kaleo and Scott Milanovich. Under Christensen's direction, Kaleo ranked second in the nation in total offense in 1992 while Milanovich finished fourth in 1993. In 1991, Christensen served as running backs coach at South Carolina after spending the 1989-1990 season as an assistant coach at Holy Cross University.

While coaching the Crusaders, he oversaw the receivers and tight ends in '89 before being promoted to offensive coordinator for the 1990 season. From 1986-88, Christensen was the offensive coordinator and was also in charge of recruiting at East Carolina as the Pirates built a reputation for offensive explosiveness against ranked opponents.

Christensen oversaw the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Temple from 1983-85 after holding the position of offensive coordinator at East Tennessee State from 1980-82. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Mississippi in 1979.

As Tampa Bay's former tight ends coach, Christensen oversaw the development of a young corps anchored by the emergence of veteran Dave Moore. Under Christensen's guidance, Moore successfully made the transition from backup role player to starter, equaling receivers Karl Williams and Reidel Anthony with a team-high four receiving TDs in 1997 and corralling a club-high five scoring tosses in 1999.

As a player, Christensen was an All-America quarterback for Fresno City Junior College from 1975-78. He continued his collegiate career as a QB at North Carolina where he lettered for the Tar Heels from 1977-78 as they earned trips to the Peach Bowl and Liberty Bowl. Christensen earned his bachelor's degree in industrial relations from UNC.

Born in Covina, California, Clyde and his wife, Debbie, reside in Tampa with their three daughters, Rachel, Rebecca and Ruth.

Les Ebert

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Buccaneers

Les Ebert enters his third season as Tampa Bay's assistant strength and conditioning coach. Ebert is responsible for assisting strength and conditioning coach Mark Asanovich in all areas of the club's conditioning program, along with administering one-on-one strength workouts with each player. He also tailors specific workouts based on a player's individual needs and capabilities.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ebert worked as the strength and conditioning coach at Blaine (MN) High School in 1998. In 1997, Ebert served as the Buccaneers' season-long strength and conditioning intern.

Ebert graduated with honors from the University of Minnesota Duluth in 1997, earning a bachelor's of science degree in physical education. Ebert is a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association. Les and wife Rebecca reside in Tampa.

Chris Foerster

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

9TH NFL SEASON, 6TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Chris Foerster enters his sixth season with the Buccaneers and ninth overall in the National Football League.

Foerster has done a remarkable job in his first five seasons. Foerster, whose offensive line featured three new starters this past season, molded a capable unit that paved the way for Tampa Bay to average a club-record 4.2 yards per rush last season. The additions of perennial Pro Bowlers G Randall McDaniel and C Jeff Christy helped pave the way for RB Warrick Dunn to rush for a career-high 1,133 yards and eight touchdowns. The line lost veteran standout T Paul Gruber to retirement and T Jason Odom missed the entire season with a back injury. Despite the injuries, the unit helped pave the way for the offense to set club records for points and touchdowns. The rushing attack gained 2,066 yards on the ground, third-best in the NFC and the fourth-best single-season total in franchise history.

In 1999, the line lost Odom to a back injury in Week 4, but Jerry Wunsch did a solid job of filling in and is now entrenched at RT. Gruber injured his knee in the season finale at Chicago, but Pete Pierson took over at LT and helped Tampa Bay reach the NFC Championship Game. Since-departed C Tony Mayberry made his third Pro Bowl under Foerster, while Mike Alstott and Warrick Dunn formed the lone rushing duo in the league to each net more than 1,000 yards from scrimmage.

In 1998, Tampa Bay's offensive line orchestrated the second-best rushing total (2,148) in club history, enabling the Bucs to finish second in the NFC in rushing. The Bucs also allowed just 28 sacks. In 1997, Tampa Bay finished fifth in the league in sacks allowed (32). Foerster's five starters in 1996 played together in just one game but still yielded just 30 QB takedowns.

Foerster was one of the first assistants hired by Tony Dungy in 1996. The two had worked together three seasons in Minnesota. Foerster joined the Vikings staff in 1993 as assistant offensive line coach and also helped with the tight ends in 1994. In 1995, Vikings Head Coach Dennis Green promoted him to tight ends/assistant offensive line coach. In 1994, Minnesota gained a club-record 5,848 yards (since broken) and permitted just 31 sacks in 704 pass attempts. That ratio of a sack every 22.7 passes was the second best in team history. In Foerster's first Viking season, the club produced a sackless streak of 14 consecutive quarters, which was a team record.

In Foerster's three years with the Vikings, the aforementioned McDaniel was selected to three Pro Bowls. In 1992, prior to accepting his post with the Vikings, Foerster worked as the offensive line coach at the University of Minnesota under head coach Jim Wacker. That season, the Gophers set a school mark for completions while also leading the Big Ten in passing yards. One of Foerster's players, T Keith Ballard, was named as the team's Most Valuable Player.

From 1988-91, Foerster tutored the offensive line at Stanford, working the last three years for then-Cardinal head coach Dennis Green. While Foerster was at Stanford, T Bob Whitfield developed into an All-America and 1992 first-round draft choice, and FB Tommy Vardell set a school career and single-season record for rushing TDs. Foerster began his college coaching career at Colorado State in 1983 as a graduate assistant. He was promoted to offensive line coach the following season and remained with the Rams through the 1987 campaign.

Foerster played center at Colorado State from 1979-82, originally as a walk-on before earning a starting job and a scholarship as a sophomore. In his senior year, the Rams set a school record for passing yards in a season. The previous year, Foerster was named as CSU's outstanding scholar-athlete. Foerster earned his bachelor's degree in history from Colorado State.

A native of Milwaukee, Foerster grew up in Tucson, Arizona where he earned all-city honors in football. He and his wife, Michelle, live in St. Petersburg with daughter Kathleen and sons Jake and Micah.

Monte Kiffin

Defensive Coordinator

19th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Monte Kiffin, the architect of one of the NFL's most talented and revered defensive units, enters his sixth season as Tampa Bay's defensive coordinator.

Kiffin's troops continued their attack on opposing offenses last season. Boasting four Pro Bowlers and three first-team All-Pro selections, Tampa Bay finished among the league's Top 10 in overall defense for the fourth consecutive season. The defense established team records for sacks (55) and tied a single-season record with five defensive touchdowns last season, and DT Warren Sapp set the club single-season mark with 16.5 sacks. After a 3-4 start, the Buccaneers won seven of their last nine games to reach the NFC playoffs for the third time in four seasons. The primary catalyst for that run was Kiffin's defense, which produced 27 turnovers resulting in 73 points over that nine-game stretch. Under Kiffin's direction, Tampa Bay's defense has produced 16 Pro Bowl selections over the last five seasons. Prior to that, the Buccaneers' defense had just 12 Pro Bowl selections in the previous 20 years.

The Buccaneer defense was just as impressive in 1999. Boasting four Pro Bowlers and three first-team All-Pro selections, Tampa Bay's defense electrified the league with one of the most dominating defensive stretches in recent memory. The Bucs rallied to win eight of nine games to capture their first NFC Central title in 18 years. In the playoffs, Tampa Bay's defense posted phenomenal performances. The Bucs held Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs in Tampa Bay's 14-13 divisional playoff win. Both of the Bucs' scores came off Redskins turnovers. In the NFC Championship Game, Kiffin's lightning-quick defense held the top-ranked Rams offense to 11 points, 22 below their season average.

Tampa Bay finished third in the league in total defense, first in the NFC. The Bucs allowed just three 100-yard rushers and set club single-season marks for fewest points allowed (235), fewest opponent first downs (228), fewest opponent rushing yards (1,407), fewest opponent rushes (361) and lowest opponent completion percentage (52.7 percent).

And, in the process, certain members of Kiffin's crew became household names. Sapp posted a then career-high 12 1/2 sacks en route to NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. LB Derrick Brooks racked up 180 tackles, cementing his status as the league's fastest and most fearsome LB. SS John Lynch collected 128 stops, reaffirming his rank among the league's hardest hitters. All three players earned first-team All-Pro honors for the first time.

At the heart of their success — as well as the accomplishments of the other 21 members of the defense — is the irrepressible Kiffin. Under Kiffin, the Bucs' defense is the only unit in the league to rank among the top 10 in total yards allowed and total points allowed each of the last four seasons. Kiffin, the most experienced assistant on Tony Dungy's staff, consistently confuses and smothers enemy offenses with an ingenious variety of perfectly timed blitzes, coverage disguises and an array of ball-hawking schemes that seemingly always place defenders in position to cause and recover a fumble or pick off an errant pass.

Kiffin came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 campaign as the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. In 1995, the Saints tied for fourth in the NFL in sacks with 44. Just prior to coaching in New Orleans, Kiffin spent four seasons (1991-94) as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive coordinator for head coach Jerry Burns in 1991 and as inside linebackers coach for head coach Dennis Green and defensive coordinator Tony Dungy from 1992-94. During that tenure in Minnesota, the Vikes led the league in both total defense and run defense in 1994.

In 1990, Kiffin tutored the linebackers for the New York Jets under then-head coach Bruce Coslet and defensive coordinator Pete Carroll. Kiffin had his first tour of duty with the Vikings as the team's linebackers coach from 1986-89. During that time, he coached standout Viking LBs Scott Studwell, Chris Doleman and Mike Merriweather. In both '88 (255.7, 4.3) and ' 89 (261.5, 4.1), Minnesota was the league leader in both total defense and yards allowed per play.

From 1984-85, Kiffin coached the linebackers for the Buffalo Bills, overseeing players like Darryl Talley and Jim Haslett who later coached with Kiffin in New Orleans. Kiffin's first professional coaching job came in 1983 as the linebackers coach for the Green Bay Packers under Bart Starr.

Kiffin was the head coach at North Carolina State from 1980-82, compiling a 16-17 record including 6-5 marks in 1981 and '82. Former Philadelphia Eagle Pro Bowl WR Mike Quick played for the Wolfpack under Kiffin. From 1977-79, Kiffin was defensive coordinator for Lou Holtz at Arkansas while also serving as assistant head coach in '79. Arkansas led the nation in scoring defense in 1977.

Kiffin began his coaching career at Nebraska where he worked from 1966-76 under both Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne. Kiffin directed a Cornhuskers defense that led Nebraska to consecutive national championships in 1970-71. When Osborne became Nebraska's head coach in 1973, he named Kiffin as his defensive coordinator.

As a player, Kiffin was both an offensive and defensive tackle at Nebraska from 1959-63. Following graduation, he sat out the 1964 season due to a knee injury before playing defensive end for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in 1965.

A native of Lexington, Nebraska, Kiffin was that state's High School Athlete of the Year in 1958. Monte and his wife, Robin, live in Tampa. They have three children: daughter Heidi and sons Lane and Chris.

Coaching Staff

Joe Marciano

Special Teams Coach

16th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Joe Marciano, regarded by his peers as one of the game's top special teams coaches, enters his sixth season on Tampa Bay's coaching staff.

Tampa Bay's special teams in 2000 had an outstanding year, highlighted by a Pro-Bowl selection for second-year K Martin Gramatica. Last season, Marciano's unit established a single-season record by blocking seven kicks (4 FGs, 3 punts), while his charges were responsible for two of the club's seven return touchdowns. Marciano's unit was also fueled by the outstanding individual performance by Gramatica, who tied or set six club records. Gramatica established single-season marks in points scored (126), field goals (28), field goals from more than 50 yards (5), consecutive field goals (16) and extra points (42).

In 1999, Marciano's units received some outstanding individual performances. LB Shelton Quarles set a team record with 31 special teams tackles, breaking Sam Anno's 10-year mark of 28 stops. P Mark Royals finished third in the NFC with a franchise-best gross average of 43.13 yards. Royals' net average of 37.4 ranked second in the conference. And rookie kicking sensation Gramatica shattered two single-season club marks. His 106 points broke Donald Igwebuike's 10-year record of 99 points. Gramatica also nailed 27 FGs, two better than Michael Husted's effort of 25 FGs in 1996. Gramatica hit 84.4 percent of his FG attempts.

The Bucs also ranked fourth in the league in kickoff coverage with an average opponent drive start of 25.5. Tampa Bay opponents averaged just 17.6 yards per kickoff return, which set a club record (17.8, 1993) for lowest opponent kickoff return average. Chicago was the lone NFL team with a lower opponent average.

In 1998, Marciano's charges set single-season club marks in both kickoff return average (23.7) and punt return average (13.7). That season, rookie WR Jacquez Green finished second in the league with a 15.1-yard average on punt returns, including a club-record 95-yard return for a TD at Green Bay in his initial NFL game.

Marciano and the Buccaneers' special teams also excelled in 1997. In Marciano's second year with Tampa Bay, Karl Williams recorded just the third punt return for a touchdown in franchise history and rookie LB Alshermond Singleton blocked two punts. Williams finished as the NFC's second-leading punt returner and the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field goal percentage.

Marciano has turned the Bucs' special teams units into big-play producers. In five seasons under his tutelage, Buccaneer special teamers have recorded eight NFC Player of the Week awards, 18 blocked or deflected kicks and eight of the 10 longest punt and kickoff returns in team annals.

Marciano joined Tampa Bay after spending the previous 10 years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. In 1995, the Saints ranked third in the league in lowest punt return average allowed (6.5) and sixth in lowest kickoff return average permitted (19.8). During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Joe Paterno at Penn State. There, he coached future NFL offensive lineman Ron Heller who played TE for the Nittany Lions. Marciano also coached tight ends at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pennsylvania in 1976.

Marciano was a quarterback at Temple where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. A native of Dunmore, Pennsylvania, he is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and resides in Odessa with his son, Joseph.

Rod Marinelli

Defensive Line Coach

6th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Rod Marinelli enters his sixth season as Tampa Bay's defensive line coach.

The Buccaneers' defensive line continued to wreak havoc in opposing backfields last season, yet another nod to Marinelli. One of the game's most innovative instructors on the finer points of technique, leverage and balance, Marinelli's troops finished tied for second in the NFL after racking up a single-season record 55 sacks, 45.5 of which came courtesy of the team's front four.

In 2001, Marinielli's defensive line is expected to be one of the most imposing defensive lines in the league, featuring four former first-round draft picks – All-Pro DT Warren Sapp, NT Anthony McFarland, DE Marcus Jones and Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice. Sapp posted 16.5 sacks in 2000, breaking Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's single season mark of 13 established in 1978. Sapp added a career-high 76 tackles, easing the transition for second-year McFarland, who posted 6.5 sacks. Marinelli also oversaw the development of Jones, who ripped through opposing defensive lines to record a career-high 13 sacks. Rice, one of the top free agents this offseason, racked up 51.5 sacks in his first five NFL seasons with the Arizona Cardinals.

Sapp collected a then career-high 12 1/2 sacks in 1999, earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press and his third Pro Bowl berth. He became the first Buccaneer since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon (1979) to win the AP honor. But Sapp's linemates also turned in outstanding seasons. DT Brad Culpepper paced the line with 72 tackles and added six sacks, while first-year starter Steve White emerged as a force during Tampa Bay's playoff run. And Jones, who moved from tackle to end, collected 36 tackles and seven sacks after posting just 32 stops and one sack in his three previous seasons. Marinelli also saw flashes of brilliance from rookie McFarland, the Buccaneers' first-round pick.

In 1998, Marinelli's unit collected 37 sacks and ranked eighth in the league against the run. In 1997, Tampa Bay's defensive line racked up a club single-season record 44 sacks. That season, Sapp emerged as a bonafide star as the Bucs made their first playoff appearance in 15 years.

A veteran of 20 seasons as a college assistant coach, Marinelli came to Tampa Bay after spending the 1995 season as the defensive line coach at Southern Cal under John Robinson. From 1992-94, Marinelli was the assistant head coach/defensive line for head coach Bruce Snyder at Arizona State. In 1993, three of his starting linemen earned All-Pac- 10 honors. Shante Carver was an All-America pick and was also a finalist for the Outland and Lombardi trophies before being selected in the first round of the draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

From 1983-91, Marinelli coached the defensive line at California, adding assistant head coach to his title for his final two Golden Bear seasons. Snyder became the school's head coach in 1987 and retained Marinelli. While at California, Marinelli coached several future NFLers including Chidi Ahanotu, Rhett Hall and Natu Tuatagaloa.

Marinelli's first coaching job came in 1976 from Snyder who was then the head coach at Utah State. From 1976-81, Marinelli oversaw the Aggies' defensive line before becoming USU's offensive line/special teams coach for the 1982 campaign. In six seasons as the defensive line coach for Utah State, three of his players (Rulon Jones, Mike Perko, Shawn Miller) won conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Marinelli began his coaching career at his alma mater, Rosemead High School in San Gabriel Valley, California, from 1973-75.

Marinelli played offensive and defensive tackle at Utah in 1968 before serving a one-year stint in Vietnam. He returned from the service and attended California Lutheran from 1970-72, earning NAIA All-America honors as an offensive tackle in '72. Marinelli earned his bachelor's degree in history from CLC.

Born July 13, 1949 in Rosemead, California, Rod and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tampa. The family includes daughters Christine and Gina. Christine is married to Joe Barry, Tampa Bay's new linebackers coach. Marinelli also has two granddaughters.

Tony Nathan

Running Backs Coach

14th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Tony Nathan begins his sixth season as Tampa Bay's running backs coach.

Nathan's explosive backfield of FB Mike Alstott and RB Warrick Dunn were the league's only tandem to be selected to the Pro Bowl last season. The pair's one-two punch of bruising strength and slash speed helped keep opposing defenses off balance. In 2000, Dunn rushed for a career-high 1,133 yards and eight touchdowns en route to his second Pro Bowl selection, while Alstott was named to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl (the lone rusher in Buccaneer history to earn four consecutive trips to Hawaii) after finishing tied for second on the club with five rushing touchdowns. Under Nathan's direction, Tampa Bay's potent rushing attack totaled 2,066 rushing yards, marking the fourth-best mark in franchise history and the third-best total in the NFC last season. In 2000, Nathan's troops finished second in the conference with 18 rushing touchdowns and averaged a club-record 4.2 yards per carry.

In 1999, Alstott and Dunn were the only backfield tandem in the NFL to each top 1,000 yards from scrimmage. Alstott (1,188 total yards) racked up a career-high 949 rushing yards and rushed for seven scores. Dunn (1,205 total yards) rushed for 616 yards and paced the club with a career-best 64 catches. Alstott also earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl selection and his third consecutive first-team All-Pro nod from the Associated Press.

In 1998, the Bucs finished fourth in the league in rushing with 2,148 yards – the second-best total in franchise history. Dunn rushed for 1,026 yards, becoming the teams' first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995. In 1997, Dunn was the only rookie to make the Pro Bowl, joining Alstott in Hawaii. In Nathan's four seasons as running backs coach, the Bucs have averaged 116.3 yards rushing per game, the club's best stretch since Tampa Bay's playoff squads of the late 1970s and early 1980s.

Nathan, a versatile, pass-catching running back for nine seasons in a Miami Dolphin uniform, has helped mold Alstott and Dunn in that same fashion. Either Alstott or Dunn has led the team in receptions in three of Nathan's four seasons in Tampa.

Nathan, in his 14th season as an NFL assistant coach, helped the Bucs improve from 22nd in the league in rushing in 1996 to 11th in 1997 and fourth in 1998.

From 1988-95, Nathan was an assistant coach for the Dolphins. Initially hired by legendary Miami head coach Don Shula as a coaches' assistant, Nathan's responsibilities included breaking down game film and charting plays. In 1993, he was promoted to Miami's offensive backs coach.

In 1995, Bernie Parmalee, formerly an undrafted free agent, led the Dolphins in rushing with 878 yards and nine TDs while Terry Kirby finished in the AFC's top 10 in receptions. In 1993, Nathan's first season supervising the team's RBs, Kirby (75) and Keith Byars (61) combined for an NFL backfield-best 136 receptions, which was also the highest total by two backs in Dolphin annals.

Nathan was a running back for Miami from 1979-87. He ranks fourth on the club's all-time list in rushing attempts (732), rushing yards (3,543) and receptions (383). He is also fifth in receiving yards (3,592), tied for ninth in scoring (198 points, 33 TDs), seventh in punt return yards (484) and ninth in kick return yards (1,133).

In 1981, Nathan was named the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player after leading the team in rushing with a career-high 782 yards and posting an NFL-best 5.3-yard rushing average.

Nathan played in Super Bowls XVII and XIX for the Dolphins. Perhaps the single play Nathan is most remembered for occurred in one of the NFL's greatest games, a 41-38 OT playoff loss to San Diego on January 2, 1982. Nathan scored on a 25-yard run following a lateral from WR Duriel Harris on the famous "hook and ladder" play.

As a collegian, Nathan starred at Alabama from 1975-78. In both his junior and senior seasons, the Crimson Tide posted an 11-1 record, winning a national championship in 1978. In his Alabama career, Nathan rushed for 1,997 yards on 310 carries with 29 TDs. He gained 770 yards in the national championship season and ran for 127 yards in the Tide's 14-7 Sugar Bowl win over Penn State that clinched the title.

Born in Birmingham, Alabama, Nathan was a four-sport letterman at Birmingham's Woodlawn High School. Tony and his wife, Johnnie, have three daughters, Francheria, Natalie and Nadia.

Kevin O'Dea

Offensive Assistant

8th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Kevin O'Dea begins his first season as Tampa Bay's offensive assistant after serving as the club's defensive assistant for the previous five seasons.

O'Dea is responsible for assisting the offensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including the production of detailed scouting reports, statistical research, opponent's film breakdown, and the assembling of offensive game plans and playbooks.

O'Dea helped the Buccaneer defense finish among the league's Top 10 in overall defense in each of the last four seasons (1997-2000). The 2000 defense established team records for sacks (55) and tied a single-season record with five defensive touchdowns, and DT Warren Sapp set the club single-season mark with 16.5 sacks.

O'Dea joined the Buccaneers after spending the 1994-95 seasons in a similar role with the San Diego Chargers under head coach Bobby Ross. In his first San Diego season, O' Dea worked with the linebackers, then was primarily involved with the defensive backs in 1995.

Prior to his stint in San Diego, O'Dea spent three years (1991-93) working for Joe Paterno at Penn State. In 1991, he was a graduate assistant coach working with the wide receivers before being promoted to assistant strength coach and also working with the defensive line (1992) and the linebackers (1993).

O'Dea also had a similar three-year stint at the University of Virginia from 1988-90. He began as a graduate assistant (defensive backs) for two years under head coach George Welsh before moving on to become the assistant strength coach in his final season with the Cavaliers. In 1987, O'Dea was the defensive backs coach at Cornell University.

After a four-year term in the Coast Guard from 1979-83, O' Dea enrolled at Lock Haven University. He played defensive back and wide receiver for the Bald Eagles from 1983 until suffering a back injury during the 1985 season. He helped out coaching the receivers for the remainder of the '85 campaign, then served as the team's receivers coach in 1986 while still a student at the school.

O'Dea earned his bachelor's degree in fitness management from Lock Haven and also has a master's in sports medicine from Virginia. A native of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, O'Dea recently married the former Mary Anne Dooley. The couple lives in Tampa.

Ricky Thomas

TIGHT ENDS COACH

5TH NFL SEASON, 5TH WITH BUCCANEERS

Ricky Thomas enters his fifth season with Tampa Bay, including his third campaign as tight ends coach.

Thomas spent first two seasons in 1997 and 1998 as Tampa Bay's offensive assistant coach. His tight end group has become known for its physical run-blocking and proficiency in the red zone.

Under Thomas' guidance, TE Dave Moore continued to be a solid pass-catching target, hauling in a career-high 29 receptions for 288 yards with three touchdowns a year ago.

During his first two seasons with the team, Thomas was responsible for game film analysis of upcoming opponents and the production of various offensive scouting reports.

Thomas, who coached for nine years on the high school and collegiate levels, came to the Buccaneers in 1997 after a short stint on the coaching staff of Gardner Webb University. He was named Gardner Webb's defensive backs coach on January 20, 1997 after spending one season as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Kentucky.

Prior to joining Kentucky's staff, Thomas spent five years (1992-96) on the faculty at the McCallie School in Chattanooga, Tenn., teaching human development and coaching the football, wrestling and track and field teams. During this time, he also completed his master's degree in secondary education at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. Thomas arrived at McCallie after serving three years as the academic advisor for the football and men's basketball teams at the University of Alabama.

As a player, Thomas was a four-year starter at strong safety for the University of Alabama, where he earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. Though not drafted, he joined the Seahawks' training camp in 1987 and made the team as a free agent rookie, appearing in one game. Thomas also went to training camp with the Indianapolis Colts in 1988.

Long associated with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Thomas served as that organization's co-president in 1985-86. A native of Niceville, Florida, Thomas and his wife, Kimberly, have two children.

Mike Tomlin

Defensive Backs Coach

1st NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Mike Tomlin was named Tampa Bay's defensive backs coach on February 8, 2001. Tomlin joins the Buccaneers after serving two seasons at the University of Cincinnati as the Bearcats' defensive backs coach.

At Cincinnati, Tomlin took over a secondary unit that ranked 111th in the nation in pass efficiency defense in 1998 and helped improve them to 61st overall in 1999. Last season under Tomlin's guidance, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions, as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Bearcats, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons with Arkansas State, coaching the wide receivers in 1997 and switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, working with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. In 1995, Tomlin began his coaching career as wide receivers coach at the Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin, a three-year starter at William & Mary, concluded his playing career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, Tomlin established a school-record with a 20.2 yards per catch average.

Tomlin is married to the former Kiya Dawn and the couple resides in Tampa.

Alan Williams

Defensive Assistant

1st NFL Season, 1st with Buccaneers

Alan Williams was named Tampa Bay's defensive assistant on April 2, 2001 after spending the previous five seasons as an assistant coach at William & Mary.

Williams, a former standout running back for William & Mary, coached defensive backs for the last three years (1998-2000) after tutoring running backs for each of his first two campaigns from 1996-97. In two seasons as the backfield mentor, Williams helped guide tailback Alvin Porch to consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons (a school first) and two all-conference awards, including first-team honors in 1996. As defensive backs coach, Williams tutored three defensive backs in two seasons who garnered all-conference recognition.

Williams, a native of Norfolk, Va., joined the William & Mary staff from Norview High School, where he worked for four years (1992-95) as the assistant head coach for running backs and defensive backs. In addition to his football duties at Norview, he also served as the head track and field coach for three seasons.

Williams graduated from William & Mary in 1992 after gaining 2,559 yards of total offense (1,220 yards rushing and 1,331 receiving) for the Tribe from 1988-91. As a senior in 1991, Williams led William & Mary in receptions with 57 for 598 yards and was second in rushing with 439 yards on 104 attempts.

Williams and his wife Lisa reside in Tampa.

Charlie Williams

Wide Receivers Coach

6th NFL Season, 6th with Buccaneers

Charlie Williams begins his sixth season as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach.

Williams' talented unit is led by two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson, who paced the team with 71 receptions for 874 yards and eight touchdowns in 2000. Johnson's scoring reception total marked the second-most in franchise history and his reception total marked the fourth-best in club annuals.

Under Williams' leadership, WR Jacquez Green (51 receptions) enjoyed another productive season, posting more than 50 catches for the second consecutive season, while WR Reidel Anthony finished second on the team with four touchdown receptions. In 1999, Williams coached Green to a career-best 56 catches for 791 yards and three scores. The receiving corps also features Karl Williams, a valuable third-down receiver; and talented first-year pro Frank Murphy.

Prior to coming to Tampa, Williams spent three years in a similar capacity at the University of Miami. With the 'Canes, he was instrumental in the development of their outstanding group of young receivers. In 1995, Williams was retained by new UM head coach Butch Davis after spending his first two Miami seasons working for Dennis Erickson.

Williams spent one year (1992) coaching the receivers at the University of Minnesota for head coach Jim Wacker. He had followed Wacker to UM from Texas Christian where he had spent the 1988-91 seasons coaching the Horned Frogs' wideouts. In 1989, The Sporting News recognized TCU's group of receivers as the best in the nation. From 1986-87, Williams tutored the running backs at New Mexico State after serving as the defensive backs coach at Long Beach City College from 1984-85. Williams' first two coaching jobs were on the high school level, at Long Beach Poly in 1983 and at Fairview H.S. in Boulder, Colo. in 1982. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State in 1981.

As a collegian, Williams played defensive back at Long Beach City College from 1977-78 before transferring to Colorado State where he played from 1979-80. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from CSU.

A native of Long Beach, California, Charlie and his wife, Shellie, reside in Tampa with daughter Sydney and son Gregory.

Tim Ruskell

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Tim Ruskell enters his 15th season on the Buccaneers' staff, including his first as Tampa Bay's new director of player personnel. Ruskell, who has nearly 20 years of pro scouting experience, will oversee the team's professional and college scouting department.

Ruskell joined the Buccaneers as a regional scout in 1987 before being promoted to director of college scouting in 1992. In that role, he coordinated a staff of five regional scouts and oversaw the compilation of information on college players. During his tenure, the Buccaneers had at least one player named to the Pro Bowl in each of the last five seasons from 1996-2000. Tampa Bay boasted a league-high and club-record nine Pro Bowlers last season, including a league-best six starters. Since 1996, Tampa Bay has had 15 different players go to at least one Pro Bowl. In addition, the Buccaneers 29 Pro Bowl selections since 1996 is tied for the most in the NFC and second-best in the NFL.

> "Without question, Tim is one of the best-kept secrets in football. His intelligence and common sense approach to personnel evaluation is exceptional."
> — Jerry Angelo
> General Manager, Chicago Bears

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ruskell served as the director of scouting for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits from 1985-86. He also worked as a scout for the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders from 1983-85. Ruskell was hired in Saskatchewan by then-general manager John Herrera, who had previously been a scout for the Buccaneers.

In addition, Ruskell has spent each of the last six years as a member of the NFL's selection committee for the National Combine Invitational Camp.

Ruskell attended the University of South Florida and earned his bachelor's degree in journalism in 1978. While a student at USF, he worked for the Buccaneers during their inaugural training camp in 1976 and also did research projects for the team's scouting department. In addition, Ruskell served as the student chairman for the original committee to bring football to the University of South Florida.

Ruskell was born in Yokohama, Japan, where his father was stationed in the Army. The family eventually relocated to Tampa, and Ruskell graduated from King High School. Tim and his wife, Linda, live in Lutz with their daughter Samantha and son Jack.

Ruston Webster

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Ruston Webster enters his first season as Tampa Bay's director of college scouting after serving in several different capacities during his first 13 seasons with the Buccaneers. Webster coordinates a staff of five regional scouts and oversees the compilation of information on college players.

Webster joined the Buccaneers in 1988 as the team's scout for the northeastern United States. From 1989-91, he served as the club's director of pro personnel. In 1992, he returned to the field as Tampa Bay's scout for the southern states and shifted to the Midwest region in 1993 and the southwest region from 1995-2000.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Webster was the tight ends/safeties coach at Tulsa University in 1987. In 1986, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama under former Buccaneer head coach Ray Perkins. Webster also served as a graduate assistant at Southwestern Louisiana in 1985.

Webster earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from the University of Mississippi. A native of Madison, Mississippi, he and his wife, Gayle, reside in Tampa with daughter Hannah and son Jacob.

ADMINISTRATION

Reggie Roberts

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Reggie Roberts enters his fifth season as Tampa Bay's director of communications. Roberts serves as the day-to-day spokesman for the Buccaneers on all football and non-football matters, and is responsible for coordinating all media coverage and publicity for the team. Additionally, Roberts is the club's liaison between local, national, and international media, and the main club contact with the television networks that broadcast Buccaneer games.

Now in his 12th season in the NFL, Roberts came to Tampa Bay in 1997 from the NFL's New York headquarters where he was the National Football Conference Director of Information for seven seasons (1990-96).

Following the 1997 season, Roberts and his staff received the coveted Rozelle Award from the Professional Football Writers of America. The award is presented annually by the PFWA to the NFL's top public relations/communications staff. It marked the first time in franchise history the Buccaneers communications staff had ever received the award. The Bucs were again a finalist for the award in both 1999 and 2000.

During seven seasons with the NFL office, Roberts was the public relations director and primary league office contact for the 15 NFC teams. He also coordinated media operations at seven NFC Championship Games, seven Super Bowls (XXV-XXXI), and three Tokyo American Bowls in Tokyo, Japan. Roberts has also been selected as a member of the NFL's Communications Staff at Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego, Super Bowl XXXIII in Miami, Super Bowl XXXIV in Atlanta and Super Bowl XXXV in Tampa.

Before joining the NFL in 1990, Roberts spent four-and-a-half years as a sportswriter with the Austin American-Statesman in Austin, Texas where he won two national Associated Press Sports Editor awards and one Texas Associated Press Sports Editor award.

ADMINISTRATION

Stephanie Waller

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Stephanie Waller was named director of community relations for the Buccaneers in February, 1999 after spending one season as the team's senior manager of community relations. Waller's department oversees all of the charitable inquiries directed to the Buccaneers, from donation item requests to player appearances and player involvement with individual charities.

Waller and her staff are also responsible for creating and coordinating individual player programs and extending the team's charitable commitment to the Tampa Bay and Orlando tri-county areas. These programs, such as Warrick Dunn's Homes for the Holidays, Derrick Brooks' Brooks Bunch and Jerry Wunsch's "Jerry's Journey" program, have received national recognition for their impact on local children and families.

In addition, the community relations department oversees the NFL's only Student Advisory Board and the league's largest game-day ticket program, which involved 20 players and coaches hosting school children and charitable groups at each Buccaneers home game in 2000.

Waller originally joined Tampa Bay's staff in 1990 and has been involved in the team's community relations efforts since 1995. She moved into the team's public relations staff in 1991 as an assistant and remained in that role through the 1996 season before concentrating solely on community relations as a manager in 1997.

A native of nearby Plant City, Waller is near completion of a degree in business management at Eckerd College. She resides in Tampa.

Maury Wilks

DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL EVENTS

Maury Wilks enters his first season as Tampa Bay's director of special events after working in several capacities with the organization over the last three seasons.

Wilks is responsible for the production of all team special events, including the Publix Golf Tournament, Checkers Bucs on the Beach Volleyball Tournament and the TECO Draft Day Dash. He also coordinates all logistical aspects of Buccaneer training camp each year prior to the season. In addition, Wilks oversees all live game day entertainment, including the Tampa Bay Buccaneer cheerleaders.

Wilks began with the Buccaneers as a club seat sales representative in June of 1998 before moving into special events in March of 1999. He was promoted to director this past February. Wilks also served as the Buccaneers' Super Bowl Task Force representative for Super Bowl XXXV this past January, assisting the NFL and the Tampa Bay community with all of their Buccaneer related needs.

The 26-year old Wilks graduated from Marist College with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He was a three-year starter on the football team and served as captain his senior season.

A native of Long Island, New York, Wilks is single and resides in Tampa.

ADMINISTRATION

George Woods

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING

George Woods enters his fifth season as Tampa Bay's director of marketing.

Woods has developed and implemented the Buccaneers' Pewter Partner agreements with the team's top sponsors. This new approach to sports marketing is founded on reducing advertising clutter while giving fewer sponsors deeper packages. The results have been a better game day experience for the fans and more impact for the Pewter Partners. By design, the Buccaneers have the fewest amount of sponsors in the National Football League.

Woods' department focuses on servicing existing Pewter Partners and securing new ones. In addition, Woods oversees the statewide Buccaneer Radio Network and the team's preseason television network. He also oversees sponsor marketing and community outreach programs for all events.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Woods spent 10 years in marketing and media planning with Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., in Atlanta and St. Louis.

Woods is a graduate of the University of Florida with a degree in advertising and a minor in marketing. The Lakeland native is married to Jennifer, his high school sweetheart. They are the parents of three children: Alexis, Lindsey and Lloyd.

Running Back

HT: 6-1
WT: 227
BORN: 4/27/75
NFL: 4TH YEAR
ACQUIRED: FA, 1998
COLLEGE: LEHIGH

Pro: Strong, reliable runner whose playing time has increased over his three seasons in the NFL... Will switch to the FB position after backing up RB Warrick Dunn... Has been a steady contributor on special teams, collecting 32 special teams tackles... Had season-highs in carries (16) and yards (70) during 2000... Lone rookie free agent to make Tampa Bay's roster in 1998.

2000: Played in 12 games and saw action at RB in seven of those games... Also came off the bench in playoff contest... Rushed for a career-high 70 yards on 16 carries (4.4 avg.)... Posted a career-high 16 special teams tackles, fourth-best on the team... Had two rushes for 18 yards, including a career-long 19-yard run on a fake punt that set up a crucial first down at Chicago (11/19)... Had a career-high and team-best four special teams tackles versus Buffalo (11/26)... Posted career-highs in carries (10) and yards (38) against Dallas (12/3)... Also had first reception of the season for 11 yards... Had first kickoff return of the season against Miami (12/10) that netted 16 yards... Also contributed four carries for 14 yards (3.5 avg.)

Xtra Points

The first Buccaneer ever from Lehigh, Rabih was the lone rookie free agent to make Tampa Bay's active roster out of training camp in 1998.

1999: Played in 15 games, starting one at RB... Rushed five times for a career-best 12 yards... Also posted a career-high 12 special teams tackles... Snagged first career catch for eight yards at Detroit (10/31)... Started in place of Warrick Dunn (ankle) at RB in 24-17 win over Minnesota (12/6)... Rushed four times for 12 yards at Oakland (12/19)... Collected three special teams stops against Green Bay (12/26), but left the game with a broken right thumb... Placed on injured reserve three days later.

1998: Subbed in all five preseason games and led team in rushing with 50 carries for 280 yards and two TDs... Came through on longshot bid by making Bucs' 53-man roster, but was inactive for each regular-season contest... Became first Lehigh player ever to appear on Bucs' active roster.

College: In just over three seasons at Lehigh, amassed 3,696 yards and 33 touchdowns on 672 carries... Played in 33 games and started 32, averaging 5.5 yards per carry and exactly one TD per game played as a collegian... As a senior, started 10 games and carried 244 times for 1,225 yards and 15 TDs ... Missed all but a few plays of original senior campaign (1996) after suffering a knee injury in the first half of the opening game... As a junior, started all 11 games and set school records with 257 carries and 1,536 rushing yards, scoring 11 times and averaging six yards per tote... Was a first-team all-conference choice... Started 10 of 11 games as a sophomore and earned second-team all-conference attention for his 915 yards and seven TDs on 168 carries... Graduated from Lehigh with a degree in international business.

Personal: Single... Played basketball, track and football as a prep at Barham Clark High School in Roselle, New Jersey... Manned both RB and DB positions on the gridiron and earned all-state, all-county and all-conference honors... Along with father, Shahid, and mother, Niamah, adds Muhammad Ali and Jim Brown as role models during his youth... Father played in the NFL with the New York Giants and Green Bay Packers during the preseason under the name Richard Soules... Plans to begin breeding pit bulls and currently owns one, named Onex... Also enjoys rock climbing... Intends to use business degree to enter field of stock trading following football career... Worked as an assistant to the Dean at Lehigh during the summer while in college... During high school years, held summer job as a counselor for inner city children participating in sports, crafts and recreational activities... Full name is Rabih Fard Abdullah, born April 27, 1975 in Martinsville, Virginia.

COLLEGE: PURDUE

Pro: Regarded as the top all-around fullback in the National Football League after being selected to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl... Four Pro Bowl appearances is tied for the most by an offensive player in club history... Boasts tremendous balance and excellent footwork to leave potential tacklers in the dust... Also mixes in brute force to leave would-be tacklers thinking twice about hitting the A-Train... Led the Buccaneers in rushing with a career-high 949 yards in 1999... Bucs own a 27-5 record when he crosses the goal line... Already ranks third in club history with 3,302 yards rushing... Ranks fourth in the Buccaneer scoring annals with 234 points... His 39 career TDs is second on the team's all-time list (RB James Wilder, 46).

2000: Started 13 games, earning a fourth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl at FB... Missed three games with a third degree sprain of the MCL in his left knee at Chicago (11/19)... Finished second on the team in rushing with 465 yards on 131 carries (3.5 avg.)... Tied for second on the team with five rushing touchdowns... Also caught 13 passes for 93 yards (7.2 avg.)... Continued his punishing ways against New England (9/3), recording 54 yards on 16 carries with two bruising scoring runs of five yards and three yards, respectively... Posted game-winning touchdown late in the third quarter... Moved into fourth on the club's all-time scoring list with his second quarter TD... Also moved into second place on the all-time TD list with his 35th and 36th career scores... Passed RB Errict Rhett for fourth on the team's all-time rushing chart with a five-yard run in the second quarter... Had 15 carries for a season-high 71 yards (4.7 avg.) and one touchdown versus Chicago (9/10)... Had the run of the day, breaking three tackles while carrying another defender into the end zone on a 20-yard scamper... Led the team in rushing with 68 yards rushing on 21 carries at Detroit (9/17)... Scored for the third consecutive week with a four-yard touchdown in the third quarter... Had 60 yards on 16 attempts (3.8 avg.) to lead the Bucs in rushing for the third consecutive week versus the Jets (9/24)... Had fourth touchdown of the year against Washington (10/1), rushing for 46 yards on 15 carries... Racked up 10 rushes for 56 yards (5.6 avg.), including a 14-yard run in the fourth quarter that helped set up a WR Reidel Anthony touchdown grab... Was injured at Chicago (11/19) with a third degree sprain of the MCL in his left knee... Missed the next three contests, but returned to the starting lineup in a Monday Night win versus St. Louis (12/18)... Led the team in rushing in a Wild Card game at Philadelphia (12/31), carrying the ball seven times for 42 yards (6.0 avg.)... Had an 18-yard run in the second quarter that help set up a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica.

1999: Started all 16 games, earning Associated Press All-Pro honors and a trip to the Pro Bowl... Also collected first-team All-Pro honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest... Rushed for a career-best and team-leading 949 yards on a career-high 242 carries (3.9 avg.)... Accounted for all seven of Tampa Bay's rushing TDs... Also caught 27 passes for 239 yards and two scores... Carried 15 times for 64 yards and scored on a 17-yard screen pass in 19-5 win at Philadelphia (9/19)... Rushed for a career-high 131 yards on a career-best 25 carries in 13-10 win over Denver (9/26)... Opened scoring with a 28-yard TD run on Tampa Bay's opening possession, then gobbled up 52 yards in the fourth quarter... Racked up 87 yards on 14 carries at Green Bay (10/10)... Scored on a 22-yard run that gave the Bucs a 23-19 lead with 1:45 left... Netted 72 yards on 14 carries in win over Chicago

(10/24)... Toted the ball 25 times for 117 yards and one score in 31-16 win at New Orleans (11/7)... Racked up 64 yards in the fourth quarter, including a game-clinching 25-yard TD run... Rushed for 48 yards – 29 in the final quarter – in win over Atlanta (11/21)... Totaled 73 yards in 16-3 win at Seattle (11/28), including 24-yard catch that set up Tampa Bay's lone TD... Collected 95 yards on 23 carries in Monday Night win over Vikings (12/6), including season-best 30-yard scamper that set up a FG... Scored twice in the fourth quarter to rally Bucs to 23-16 win over Lions (12/12)... Plunged into the end zone from one yard out, then scored on a 22-yard screen pass with 4:18 left to give Tampa Bay its first lead... Carried 19 times for 79 yards and two TDs in win over Packers (12/26) ... Scored on a five-yard run to extend Bucs' lead to 22-10... Sealed the game with a 17-yard run, faking CB Mike McKenzie out of his cleats on his way to the end zone... Rushed for 61 yards in the fourth quarter... Carried 22 times for 64 yards and a one-yard TD run in division-clinching win at Chicago (1/2)... Turned in a highlight-reel scoring scamper that ignited a two-TD rally in 14-13 divisional playoff triumph over Washington (1/15)... Initially ventured right, eluded some tackles, then cut back to the middle, bounced off another tackle and rumbled into the end zone for perhaps the longest two-yard TD run ever caught on film... Rushed for 39 yards on 12 carries in NFC Championship Game at St. Louis (1/23).

Xtra Points

Mike made his fourth straight appearance in the Pro Bowl this past February, marking the most consecutive appearances by a Buccaneer offensive player in franchise history.

1998: Played in his second consecutive Pro Bowl as the NFC's top vote-getter at fullback (considered a non-starting position)... Also the only Buccaneer selected to the Associated Press All-Pro first team and earned the same honor from USA Today... Pro: Has established himself as one of the top young CBs in the National Football League... Re-signed to a six-year contract as an unrestricted free agent on April 10, 2001... Has started 43 of the past 45 games (counting playoffs) after playing in just one regular-season contest as a rookie in 1997... Can boast 242 total tackles, six interceptions, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and 53 passes defensed... Also has tallied 24 career special teams stops... Became the second player in club history to score on a fumble return and an interception return in the same season (also Richard Wood in 1977) in 2000... Has scored in three different ways in his career (fumble return, interception return and punt return), just the second player in team history to do so (also Ricky Reynolds)... Twin brother RB Tiki Barber plays for the N.Y. Giants.

2000: Started in all 16 games and one playoff contest at RCB... Had career bests in tackles (97), passes defensed (20) and sacks (5.5), while matching his career-high in interceptions with two... Also added six special teams stops... Led all NFC defensive backs with 5.5 sacks on the season... Posted five tackles, including one sack for a loss of eight yards, and one pass defensed at New England (9/3)... Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after registering three tackles, 2.5 sacks, one forced fumble and one 24-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown against Chicago (9/10)... Another stellar performance at Detroit (9/17) where he supplied great special teams effort with a touchdown saving tackle, a tipped punt and a recovery of a blocked punt... Also had two tackles and one pass defensed... Five tackles, one pass defensed and one interception that he returned for 37 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter against the N.Y. Jets (9/24)... Had four tackles and one pass defensed at Washington (10/1)... Had two tackles and one sack in Monday Night clash with Minnesota (10/9)... Had seven tackles on Thursday night game vs. Detroit (10/19)... Had nine tackles, one sack and one pass defensed vs. Minnesota (10/29)... Had four tackles in a win at Atlanta (11/5)... Had a career-high 10 tackles and one pass defensed in a game with Green Bay (11/12)... Finished with nine tackles and one pass defensed at Chicago (11/19)... Equaled his career-high with 10 tackles, also contributed two passes defensed and one special teams tackle vs. Buffalo (11/26)... Matched his career-high for the third time this season with 10 tackles and posted a career-high in passes defensed with five against Dallas (12/3)... Had four tackles and two passes defensed at Miami (12/10)... Had one of three interceptions against the Rams (12/18) aerial show with his first quarter pick and also chipped in six tackles and one pass defensed... Had seven tackles and three passes defensed at Green Bay (12/24)... Had five tackles in Wild Card game at Philadelphia (12/31).

Returned pick 43 yards late in the fourth quarter to cement win... Recorded six stops, two passes defensed and one sack in 24-17 Monday Night win over the Vikings (12/6)... Dropped QB Jeff George for a 10-yard loss, forcing the Vikings back to the Bucs 40 on their last-ditch drive... Posted seven tackles and one pass defensed versus Lions (12/12)... Broke up a career-high four passes in 29-10 win over Packers (12/26), adding four tackles... Collected six tackles in division-clinching win at Chicago (1/2)... Recorded three tackles and one pass defensed in divisional playoff win over Washington (1/15) ... Racked up season-high nine stops and two passes defensed in NFC Championship Game at St. Louis (1/23).

1998: Played in 16 games with nine starts and had a breakthrough season after seeing little playing time as a rookie... Opened three games at LCB and the final six at RCB, originally entering the starting lineup due to injuries to Donnie Abraham and Anthony Parker but eventually winning permanent job opposite Abraham... Led all Buccaneer CBs in both tackles (68) and passes defensed (17) and also recorded three sacks, two INTs and two forced fumbles... Moved into nickel back position by season's second game at Green Bay (9/13) and contributed three tackles... Came in at nickel back against Giants (10/4) and helped seal victory with a fourth-quarter INT, the first of his career, which he returned 11 yards to New York's 30... Replaced injured Donnie Abraham at LCB in fourth quarter vs. Carolina (10/18) and made two tackles, then started in place of Abraham the following week at New Orleans (10/25), leading all DBs with seven tackles and two passes defensed... Moved over to starting RCB spot vs. Detroit (11/22) after injury to Parker and immediately posted eight tackles plus two more passes defensed... Started at RCB at Chicago (11/29) and, in addition to four tackles and a pass defensed, scored the Bucs' second TD of the day when he picked up a deflected

Chicago punt and weaved 23 yards through traffic to the end zone... In Monday Night Football win over Green Bay (12/7), led the Buc secondary with nine tackles and also recorded one sack and two forced fumbles, the second of which led to Tampa Bay's final TD in the fourth quarter... Tallied five tackles and three passes defensed at Washington (12/19)... Finished season with seven-tackle, one-INT outing at Cincinnati (12/27), returning his pick 56 yards for the Bucs' longest INT runback of the year and tied for the 11th-longest in team annals.

1997: Saw action in only game of season against Arizona (9/28), contributing three tackles while participating primarily on passing downs... Stayed on the active roster the remainder of the season but was declared an inactive for each contest until the second playoff game at Green Bay (1/4), in which he registered two tackles and a pass defensed as the team's nickel back... Drafted by the Buccaneers in the third round (66th overall) in 1997.

College: Finished Cavalier career with 15 INTs, third-highest total in school history and just two shy of UVa record (17 by Keith McMeans, 1987-90)... Also broke up 26 passes, made 154 tackles, forced one fumble and recovered another during three-year Virginia career... Started all 36 Cavalier games and earned All-ACC first-team honors each of three seasons, including two bowl games... In a pair of bowl games, added two INTs, 10 tackles, four passes defensed and a fumble recovery... Pro: Big play back who can damage opposing defenses both on the ground and through the passing game... Great balance allows him to bounce off would-be tacklers... A two-time Pro Bowl selection (1997, 2000)... Has the ability to take over a game every time he touches the ball... Already ranks second all-time in franchise history with 3,753 career rushing yards entering just his fifth NFL season... Also ranks ninth on the Bucs' all-time receptions list with 191 career catches totaling 1,817 yards... Has 20 career TDs (14 rushing, six receiving)... Reached the 1,000-yard plateau for the second time in his career in 2000 (also 1998)... Became third Buccaneer (James Wilder and Errict Rhett) to reach 1,000 rushing yards twice in a career... Owns the longest run in club history (76 yards vs. Chicago - 12/21/97) and is tied with Wilder for the most 100-yard rushing games in a season (5 in 1997)... Plays prominent role off the field through his nationally-acclaimed "Homes for the Holidays" program.

2000: Played in all 16 games with 14 starts, and also started playoff contest... Finished the season with a team-high 1,133 yards on 248 attempts (4.6 avg.) and eight TDs... Finished third on the team with 44 receptions for 422 yards (9.6 avg.) and one TD... His 1,133 yards rushing marked the most since RB Errict Rhett (1,207) in 1995... Became go-to-guy in the Bucs offense the second half of the season... Gained just 366 yards in the first half of the season, but more than doubled that output over the last eight games (767 yards)... Averaged just under one rushing touchdown per game over that eight-game stretch after finding the end zone on the ground only one time in the first eight games... Club was 9-2 when he rushed for 50 or more yards... Opened the season at New England (9/3) with a team-leading 56 yards on 16 carries (3.5 avg.) and added one reception for five yards... Against Chicago (9/10), rushed for 53 yards on 14 attempts (3.8 avg.) and grabbed two passes for five yards... Had excellent all-around game at Detroit (9/17), gaining 34 yards on 10 carries with one TD and 49 yards on three catches (16.3 avg.)... Jacquez won the Madden Bowl 2001, a competition that pits NFL players against each other at the controls of Playstation, at Super Bowl XXXV in Tampa. Green, using the Washington Redskins roster, replaced starting quarterback Brad Johnson with backup Jeff George to defeat Cincinnati's Corey Dillon in the final.

1999: Played in all 16 games, starting nine... Finished second on the club and first among WRs with 56 catches for 791 yards and three TDs... Averaged a team-best 14.1 yards per catch... His 791 yards led all Bucs receivers and his three scores were second to TE Dave Moore's five TDs... Also finished seventh in the NFC with an 8.9-yard average on punt returns... Caught three passes for 27 yards in season-opening loss to Giants (9/12)... Made second career start in place of injured Reidel Anthony (ribs) at Philadelphia (9/19), making one catch for 17 yards... Caught four passes for 49 yards at Minnesota (10/3)... Assumed starting role at Detroit (10/31) and snagged seven passes for 96 yards... Paced team with four catches for 89 yards and one TD in 31-16 win at New Orleans (11/7)... Raced down the right sideline and hauled in 62-yard scoring strike from QB Trent Dilfer to give Bucs 7-3 lead... Collected seven catches for a career-high 164 yards and one TD in 17-10 win over Kansas City (11/14)... Yardage total tied Mark Carrier (at Chicago, 11/19/89) for the sixth-best single-game total in club history... Hauled in a 52-yard scoring bomb in the third quarter that proved to be the winning score... Also snagged a 54-yard strike late in the fourth quarter... Had five receptions for 75 yards versus Atlanta (11/21)... Led team with five catches for 70 yards and one score in Monday Night win over Vikings (12/6)... Made a leaping, 29-yard grab in the end zone to give Tampa Bay a 17-14 lead... Collected a career-high 10 receptions for 113 yards in division-clinching win at Chicago (1/2)... Had two catches for 25 yards in divisional playoff win over Washington (1/15)... Paced team with four catches for 59 yards in NFC Championship Game at St. Louis (1/23).

1998: Played in 12 games and started one, missing four of first six games due to toe, thumb and shoulder injuries... Ranked sixth on team with 14 receptions for 251 yards and tied for third with a pair of TD receptions... Averaged 15.1 yards on 30 punt returns, a mark that ranked second in the NFL to Dallas' Deion Sanders (15.6) and was the best in franchise history among players with at least 15 runbacks... Also averaged 22.9 yards on 10 kickoff returns and ran three end-arounds for a total of 12 yards... Missed season-opener at Minnesota (9/6) after sustaining turf toe injury in preseason finale at New Orleans (8/28)... In first regular-season NFL game, at Green Bay (9/13), scored Bucs' first points in a loss by returning a fourth-quarter punt 95 yards for a 23-15 score... Just the fourth punt or kickoff return for a TD in franchise history, that runback ranks as the longest scoring play of any kind in Buc annals... Also snared first two career receptions for 26 yards at Packers... Sat out following two games vs. Chicago (9/20) and at Detroit (9/28) due to sprained thumb suffered during workouts... In absence of Karl Williams, took over as third receiver versus Detroit (11/22) and snared three passes for a season-high and team-best 98 yards... Scored first TD against Lions on a 44-yard post pattern... Helped Bucs to first Monday Night Football win since 1982 by turning a quick slant into a 64-yard TD reception against Green Bay (12/7)... Versus Pittsburgh (12/13), set up the Bucs' go-ahead FG with a 46-yard punt return and finished with three runbacks for 73 yards... Recorded first career start at Washington (12/13) in place of Reidel Anthony (shoulder) and caught one pass for 12 yards... Matched season high in season finale at Cincinnati (12/27) with three receptions for 23 yards... Drafted by the Buccaneers in the second round in 1998 (34th overall).

College: Finished Florida career fifth on Gators' all-time list with 2,181 receiving yards on 113 career catches despite starting just 19 games as a collegian... Scored a total of 30 TDs, 23 receiving, three rushing and four on punt returns... Four career punt return TDs established new Florida record... Averaged 12.6 yards on punt returns (61-776) and 20.3 yards on kickoff returns (26-528)... Earned first-team All-America status from AP and most publications as a junior... Was a finalist for the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver, and a semi-finalist for Football News' Offensive Player of the Year award... Also placed on SEC's all-conference first team... Started all 12 games (including bowl) and led Gators with 61 receptions for 1,024 yards and nine TDs... Also Florida's primary punt returner, running back 27 for 392 yards (14.5 avg.) and two TDs... Caught 10 passes for 185 yards and a TD against Tennessee... Followed with 10-catch, 139-yard, three-TD effort in downing of Kentucky... Amazingly, accounted for all three TDs in 24-10 win over Auburn in three different ways: a 12-yard TD pass to Jamie Richardson, a 10-yard scoring reception and a five-yard scoring run... Played in every game and started seven plus the bowl game during sophomore campaign... Tallied 33 receptions for 626 yards and nine scores... Also returned 25 punts for 324 yards (13.0 avg.) and two TDs and 10 kickoffs for 216 yards (21.6 avg.)... In 65-0 shutout of Kentucky, returned punts for 66 and 79-yard TDs, becoming the first Gator to score on a punt return since 1984... In national-championship-deciding rematch against Florida State in Sugar Bowl, contributed five catches for 79 yards... After red-shirting in 1994, contributed strongly as a freshman... After sitting out opener, played in every remaining game and started one contest... Blocked three punts on special teams to tie a school single-season record... Caught 19 passes for 531 yards and five TDs, averaging an astounding 28 yards per grab... Also returned nine punts for 50 yards (5.6 avg.) and 16 kickoffs for 312 yards (19.5 avg.) and ran seven times for 93 yards and a TD... His play led the Redskins back from a 20-10 fourth-quarter deficit to a 26-20 overtime victory that clinched the NFC East title and the 471 passing yards set a Redskins single-game total, surpassing Sammy Baugh's 446 yards in 1948... Connected on 15-of-31 passes for 171 yards and one TD in an NFC Wild Card Playoff win over Detroit (1/8)... Acquired by Washington in trade (2/15/99) from Minnesota for 1999 first-round and third-round draft choices and a 2000 second-round pick.

1998: Played in four games with two starts... Started the season opener vs. Tampa Bay (9/6) and tied a career-best with four TD passes in the Minnesota victory... Forced out of the St. Louis game (9/13) in the fourth quarter with an undisplaced distal fracture of his right leg and was inactive for the next five games... Returned to the sideline but was inactive as the third QB vs. Tampa Bay (11/1)... Replaced an injured Randall Cunningham in the first quarter vs. New Orleans (11/8) and completed 28-of-38 passes (73.6 percent) for 316 yards... Broke his right thumb in that game and was sidelined again for the next five weeks... Returned vs.

Jacksonville (12/20) and completed 4-of-7 passes for 34 yards and a TD in relief of Cunningham... Was the Vikings backup to Cunningham in the playoffs but did not play.

1997: Started 13 games... Finished fourth in the NFC in QB rating (84.5)... Despite missing three games, finished tied for third in the NFC in TD passes (20) and was fourth in passing yards (3,036)... Led the NFL in fourth-quarter passing with a 111.8 rating... Started the first 13 games of the season but injured his neck vs. Green Bay (12/1) and went on injured reserve for the last three regular season games and the playoffs... At the time of his injury, led the NFC in third-down passing yards (862) and third-down completions (77)... Threw a career-high 109 straight passes without an INT (10/12-11/9) and set a team record for consecutive games with a TD pass (15)... Set a career-high for completions (33) and completion percentage (75 percent) vs. Chicago (9/7) to earn NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors... The next week totaled 334 yards passing vs. Tampa Bay (9/14)... Completed 13 straight passes vs. Green Bay (9/21)... Against Carolina (10/12) completed a three-yard TD pass to himself to become the only player in NFL history to accomplish the feat... For that play won an ESPY for the NFL Play of the Year and the Fans Choice Award... Led the Vikings to three fourth-quarter comebacks during the season: Chicago (9/7), Arizona (10/5) and Chicago (11/9).

1996: Played in 12 games with eight starts and also started the Vikings playoff game... Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors twice and finished third in the NFL in QB rating (89.4)... Also tied for third in the NFC in TD passes (17), despite starting just eight games... His 62.7 completion percentage was the second-highest in Vikings history and fourth in the league... Also ranked fifth in TD percentage (5.5 percent) and tied for seventh in yards-per-pass attempt (7.26)... His 99.7 QB rating in the fourth quarter led the NFC... Replaced an injured Warren Moon in the season opener vs. Detroit (9/1) and threw his first career TD pass... Started his first career game the next week vs. Atlanta (9/8) and earned his first NFC Offensive Player of the Week distinction with 275 yards passing and two TDs... Completed a career-long 82-yard TD pass to Jake Reed at Oakland (11/17)... Set a career-high with four TD passes and completed 19-of-26 passes (73.1%) vs. Arizona (12/1)... His 152.4 QB rating vs. the Cardinals was the second-best single-game rating in Vikings history and earned him another NFC Offensive Player of the Week distinction... Ran for a TD in the playoff game vs. Dallas (12/28).

1995: Played for the World League's London Monarchs during the spring... Led the league in completions (194) and was second in yards (2,227) and TDs (13)... Played with the Vikings in five games... First action came vs. Pittsburgh (9/24) when he completed his only pass for 36 yards... Hit 10-of-17 in the fourth quarter vs. Green Bay (10/22)... Had completed 54 straight passes before suffering his first career INT in that game... Replaced Warren Moon in the final quarter of games vs. New Orleans (11/19) and Tampa Bay (12/3) and saw his final action of the season vs. Cleveland (12/9), completing 9-of-11 passes for a career-best completion percentage (81.8).

1994: Earned the Vikings backup role behind Moon due to a strong training camp and pre-season performance... Played in four games, seeing his first career action vs. Chicago (9/18), completing all three passes in the fourth quarter... Led the Vikings to their final TD in a 42-14 victory over the Bears... Also completed all five passes in the fourth quarter vs. Tampa Bay (10/30)... Saw his most extensive action vs. Detroit (12/17) when he replaced an injured Moon in the third quarter and completed 14-of-29 passes for 104 yards.

1993: Dressed as the Vikings third QB but was not active for the first 10 games... Did not dress for the final six games.

1992: Was inactive for 15 games... Activated but did not play vs. Washington (10/25)... Selected in the ninth round (227th overall) of the 1992 NFL Draft by the Vikings, the 14th quarterback taken.

College: A four-year letterman for Florida State... Played in nine games during the 1991 season... As a senior, completed 37-of-61 passes (60.7 percent) for 462 yards and five TDs and rushed for 52 yards on 10 carries... Began the 1990 season as the Seminoles' starting QB but was replaced by Casey Weldon in the sixth game... Finished the season with a career-high 1,136 yards, completing 109-of-163 passes (66.9 percent) with eight TDs... In addition to football, played on the Seminole basketball team as a freshman in 1987-88, starting 11 games... Earned a degree in physical education.

Personal: Married to Nikki, couple has a son Max (4/20/01)... Was an all-American QB at Owen High in Black Mountain, North Carolina... HT: 6-6
WT: 278
BORN: 8/15/73
NFL: 6TH YEAR
ACQUIRED: D1B, 1996
COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA

Pro: Has established himself as one of the most dangerous pass rushers in the NFL... Savvy veteran that has unmatched power and speed... Has had experience at every position across the defensive line... Will line up at LDE after playing on the right side the past two seasons... Ranks ninth on the club's all-time sack list with 21 career sacks... Set a club record with four sacks vs. Detroit (10/19/00)... Had just 32 tackles and one sack in his first three NFL seasons but can boast 86 tackles and 20 sacks in his last two seasons (1999-2000)... Signed a seven-year contract extension on November 15, 2000.

2000: Started all 16 regular season games at defensive end... Established career highs in tackles (50) and sacks (13.0)... Also contributed one forced fumble and one pass defensed... Sack total tied him with Hall of Fame DT Lee Roy Selmon for second on the club's single-season sack list... Sack total was second only to DT Warren Sapp's 16.5 QB sacks... Came into training camp second on the depth chart but earned the starting RDE position by the end of camp... Was a staple in the New England (9/3) backfield with four tackles and one and a half sacks... Had one tackle and half a sack in a decisive win against Chicago (9/10)... Contributed three tackles and one sack against Detroit (9/17)... Had a season-high eight tackles and one sack at Washington (10/1).... In Monday Night matchup at Minnesota (10/9), sacked

QB Daunte Culpepper twice and contributed three tackles... Set a club record with four QB sacks versus Detroit (10/19) and added seven tackles... Against Minnesota (10/29), had three tackles and one fumble recovery that set up a nine-yard TD reception by WR Keyshawn Johnson... Recorded two tackles at Atlanta (11/5)... Had two tackles and one sack at Chicago (11/19)... Had four tackles and one sack versus Buffalo (11/26)... Recorded his 13th sack of the year versus Dallas (12/3), moving him into second place on the team's single-season sack list... Also recorded a blocked FG attempt on Dallas K Todd Seder... Contributed three tackles at Miami (12/10)... Helped hold the defending Super Bowl champion Rams (12/18) to only 90 yards rushing with four tackles in the Monday Night clash... Recorded four tackles at Green Bay (12/24)... Missed playoff game at Philadelphia (12/31) due to a left foot sprain.

1999: Played in all 16 games, starting four (three at RDE, one at LDE)... Collected a career-best 36 tackles, seven sacks and two forced fumbles... Also broke up one pass... Sack total was second only to DT Warren Sapp's 12½ QB drops... Saw limited playing time in season-opening loss to Giants (9/12), then exploded the following week at Philadelphia (9/19)... Posted three tackles and a career-high two sacks for 12 yards in Tampa Bay's 19-5 win... Dropped QB Doug Pederson in the second quarter, then welcomed rookie Donovan McNabb to the league with a fourth-quarter sack... Posted two tackles in 13-10 win over Denver (9/26)... Earned second career start in place of an injured Steve White (ankle) at Minnesota (10/3), racking up career-high seven tackles... Started again for White at Green Bay (10/10), notching four stops and dropping QB Brett Favre for a 12-yard loss... Recorded five tackles versus Chicago (10/24)... Started at LDE at Seattle (11/28) and had two stops... Posted two tackles and one sack in crucial division win over Lions (12/12)... Collected two tackles and dropped Favre again in 29-10 win over Packers (12/26)... Had two tackles, one sack and one forced fumble in division-clinching victory over Bears (1/2)... Stripped QB Cade McNown deep in Chicago territory, leading to a TD... Played in both playoff contests... Dislocated his right forefinger in NFC Championship Game loss to Rams (1/23) but returned.

Xtra Points

Marcus has exploded for 20 sacks and 86 tackles in each of the last two seasons after notching just one sack and 32 tackles in his first three NFL campaigns.

1998: Inactive for first game but earned playing time in final 15 contests, primarily on special teams and as a sub at defensive tackle... Pitched in with six tackles and first career fumble recovery... Saw most extensive playing time in late-season stretch, beginning with three-tackle outing against Detroit (11/22)... Subbed at DT following week at Chicago (11/29) and added two more tackles... Recorded first career fumble recovery vs. Green Bay (12/7), setting up last-second field goal try to end first half.

1997: Played in six games, with one start, and contributed one tackle and a pass defensed while playing majority of season with bone chips in both ankles... Saw action in six of first nine games before being declared inactive for the season's remaining seven games... Posted lone tackle of season vs. Miami (9/21) after starting in place of injured starter Warren Sapp... Placed on injured reserve on 12/23 prior to wild card game vs. Detroit.

1996: Saw substantial action in first 16 contests of NFL career, recording 25 tackles... Recorded three stops for loss, a pass defensed and one sack... Served as starting LDT in contests against Green Bay (10/27), Chicago (11/3) and Oakland (11/10)... Made strong NFL debut, tallying season-high five stops in first game against Green Bay (9/1)... Registered four tackles as sub at both DT positions at Denver (9/15)... Had first career start and recorded four tackles at Green Bay (10/27)... Made first career sack as team's starting LDT in overtime conquest of Oakland (11/10),... Drafted by Buccaneers with second of two first-round picks (selected with pick obtained from Indianapolis in 1995 Craig Erickson trade) in 1996 (22nd overall).

College: Played three seasons at DT and one (junior) at DE at North Carolina... Four-year statistics included 222 tackles (132, 90), 24 sacks, 17 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery... In four bowl games, added 19 tackles (12, 7), two sacks and a pass defensed... Broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks (21), a record since surpassed...

As a senior, was first UNC consensus first team All-America in 12 years (DE William Fuller, 1983) and was only Atlantic Coast Conference player to accomplish that in '95... Was also ACC Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC choice... First Tar Heel since Lawrence Taylor (1980) to be named conference player of the year and first UNC player since Natrone Means (1991-92) to earn back-to-back first-team All-ACC accolades... Also was semi-finalist for Lombardi Trophy... Ended up with career-best 94 tackles (53, 41) plus seven sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery... In junior campaign, came up with 62 tackles (39, 23), 7.5 sacks (second in ACC) and nine passes defensed in only season at defensive end... Became first UNC defensive lineman to earn first-team all-ACC honor in seven years (Carlton Bailey, Tim Goad in 1987)... Was voted team's Most Valuable Defensive Player... In sophomore season, contributed 50 tackles (30, 20), 8.5 sacks and five pass breakups... Was selected as second-team All-ACC... Sack total was best by a UNC player in 12 years (Fuller's nine in 1981)... Played as a true freshman, notching 16 tackles (10, 6) and a sack... Majored in communications.

Personal: Married to Bethany, couple lives in Tampa... Attended Southwest Onslow High School in Jacksonville, N.C., lettering in football, basketball and track... HT: 6-0
WT: 225
BORN: 5/29/77
NFL: 3RD YEAR
ACQUIRED: D2, 1999
COLLEGE: TULANE

Pro: Capable passer who has guided the Bucs to 14 wins the past two regular seasons and an appearance in the NFC Championship Game (1999)... Shows poise in the pocket and great instincts on the run... Has combined for 30 touchdowns (25 throwing and five running) in only 22 career games... Steady decision maker who avoids making the killer mistake... Was forced into action his rookie season when starting QB Trent Dilfer broke his clavicle in week 11... Led the Bucs to a 4-1 record over the next five weeks while completing 61 percent of his passes... Helped the Bucs set the team completion record of 60 percent during the 1999 season... Is one of six rookie quarterbacks to start a playoff game since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and one of only two rookies (Pat Haden, 1976) to win a playoff contest... Expected to contribute to what may be the most talent-laden quarterback crop in the league.

2000: Started 16 regular season games and one playoff game... Tied the club record for most rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with five (Steve Young, 1986)... Completed 233 of 428 passes (54.4 %) while throwing for 18 scores and 13 interceptions... Threw to eight receivers in the season opening win at New England (9/3), completing 12 of 24 for 167 yards and one touchdown ... Connected on 10 of 21 for 167 yards against Chicago (9/10), including a 58-yard touchdown to Jacquez Green and a 13-yard scoring pass to Keyshawn Johnson... Ran for a score (six yards) and connected with Randall McDaniel for a two-yard touchdown in a road victory over Detroit (9/17)... Finished the day 18 of 30 for 211 yards... Almost single-handedly forced overtime in Washington (10/1), leading the Bucs back from a 10-point deficit in the final three minutes of regulation... One of his 19 completions was a 46-yard touchdown to Reidel Anthony on which the young QB recovered his own fumble and threw a frozen rope... Set a career-high for completions (26) and a season-high for yards (295) in a loss at Minnesota (10/9)... Also ran for a touchdown on an 11-yard dart up the middle in the first quarter... Ravaged the Vikings secondary for a career-high four TDs in Tampa (10/29)... Completed 16 of 23 passes for 267 yards in his best outing of the year... Three of his 11 completions in Atlanta (11/5) went for touchdowns in a 27-14 win... Completed 16 of 27 for 164 yards in a home victory over Green Bay (11/12)... Connected with Keyshawn Johnson on a five-yard dart and Reidel Anthony on 19-yard fade, both resulting in scores... Ran for a career-high 72 yards on 11 carries against the Bears (11/19), including a nine-yard touchdown... Led a balanced offense over Buffalo, completing 10 of 18 passes for 106 yards and running for a touchdown on a courageous two-yard dive (11/26)... Was on the mark against the Dolphins (12/10), completing 11 of 15 for 147 yards in a tropical storm... Finished second on the team with 27 yards rushing on six carries... Took his game to another level as the nation watched a Monday night epic between the Bucs and Rams (12/18)... Connected on 18 of 38 for 256 yards and two touchdowns... Recorded one of the most memorable plays in Bucs history when he scampered for six-yards on a 4th-and-4 to keep an improbable winning drive alive... Finished the night with 58 yards on seven carries... Attempted a season-high 42 passes in Green Bay (12/24), completing 21 passes for 237 yards... Connected with Keyshawn Johnson for an 18-yard score.

King sponsored "King's Dream," an education-based program that involved teaching middle school students about civil rights. The King's Dream program included an educational trip through the South this past April with stops in Atlanta, Birmingham and Montgomery.

1999: Played in the final six games of the regular season, starting the last five... Also started both playoff contests... Completed 89 of 146 passes (61.0 percent) for 875 yards, seven TDs and four INTs... Compiled a passer rating of 82.4... Designated the club's third QB for the first seven games... Elevated to the No. 2 slot at New Orleans (11/7) after Eric Zeier went down with a rib injury... Remained the No. 2 QB for wins over Kansas City (11/14) and Atlanta (11/21)... Thrown into the fire the following week at Seattle (11/28)... Replaced Dilfer on the third play of the second half with Bucs leading 6-3... Completed 3 of 7 passes for 32 yards and one TD, leading Bucs to 16-3 win... First career completion was a six-yard throw to WR Jacquez Green in the third quarter... Hit TE Patrick Hape on a two-yard TD toss in the fourth quarter to seal the win... Made his starting debut in Monday Night battle between 7-4 Bucs and 7-4 Vikings (12/6)... Completed 11 of 19 passes for 93 yards, with two TDs and one INT in 24-17 win... Both scoring tosses came in the second half as Tampa Bay rallied from a 14-10 halftime hole... Hit Green on a 29-yard TD strike to give Bucs a 17-14 lead... Found TE Dave Moore in the end zone from a yard out to push the lead to 24-14... Completed 23 of 37 attempts for 297 yards (all career-highs) with two TDs and one INT in 23-16 win over Lions (12/12)... Victory catapulted Tampa Bay into sole possession of first place... Rallied Bucs from 10-0 and 16-9 deficits... Hit RB Warrick Dunn on career-long 68-yard pass, setting up three-yard TD toss to FB Kevin McLeod at the end of the first half... Completed 30-yard pass to WR Reidel Anthony on 3rd and 17 to sustain game-tying drive... Later connected with FB Mike Alstott on a 22-yard scoring strike for game-winning score... Completed 17 of 29 passes for 142 yards and one INT in loss at Oakland (12/19)... Completed 17 of 30 passes for 133 yards with one TD and one INT in 29-10 win over Packers (12/26)... Hit Dunn on an eight-yard crossing route in the third quarter to give Tampa Bay the lead for good... Set up Alstott's game-clinching 17-yard TD run with a six-yard scramble on 3rd and 5... Connected on 18 of 24 passes for 178 yards and one score in division-clinching victory at Chicago (1/2)... Hit Moore on a six-yard scoring strike in the fourth quarter, giving Bucs 20-6 lead... Completion tied Williams' club rookie mark of seven TD tosses, set in 1978... Became first rookie QB to start a playoff game in eight years (Todd Marinovich, Raiders, 12/28/91 versus Kansas City) in divisional matchup versus Washington (1/15)... Completed 15 of 32 passes for 157 yards with one TD and one INT in 14-13 win... Set club playoff record with 15 completions... Rallied Bucs from 13-0 third-quarter deficit... On 3rd and goal from the Redskins 1, hit TE John Davis in the end zone to give Tampa Bay a 14-13 lead... In a split-second, eluded DE Ndukwe Kalu and lofted a quick alley-oop to Davis, who cradled it for the winning score... Became first rookie QB to win a playoff game since the Rams' Pat Haden engineered a 14-12 divisional playoff win at Dallas (12/19/76)... Completed 13 of 29 passes for 163 yards and two INTs in 11-6 NFC Championship loss at St. Louis (1/23)... Drove Bucs to Rams 22 with 1:25 left before drive stalled... Drafted in the second round (50th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft.

College: Started 39 of 41 games in four seasons at Tulane... List of Green Wave records include total offense (9,468 yards), passing yards (8,419), TD passes (70), completions (646) and passing attempts (1,163)... Connected on 55.5 percent of his career tosses, including 61.1 percent over his final two seasons... Threw 70 scoring passes and just 34 INTs... Led Tulane to 11-0 regular-season mark and Liberty Bowl triumph his senior season... Broke the all-time NCAA record with passing efficiency rating of 183.3, surpassing Danny Wuerffel's 1995 mark of 178.8... Pro: One of the league's top pass rushers... Signed a five-year contract as an unrestricted free agent on March 23, 2001... Spent his first five NFL seasons with the Arizona Cardinals... Led Arizona in sacks in four of his five seasons... Totaled 51.5 sacks and 263.5 tackles in his career... Played in 79 career games with 73 starts for the Cardinals... Established Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999 to earn Pro Bowl berth... Ranked second in team history with 51.5 quarterback sacks behind Curtis Greer (66)... Exceeded lofty expectations as Arizona's 1996 first-round draft choice (third overall) with one of the finest rookie seasons by a defensive end in NFL history in 1996... Equaled NFL rookie quarterback sack record of 12.5 set by San Diego's Leslie O'Neal in 1985 and then broken in 1999 by Tennessee's Jevon Kearse (14.4)... Consensus NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year in 1996... Pro Bowl alternate status as rookie... Sack total also shattered Ken Harvey's 1988 Cardinal rookie record of six and ranked third in the NFC.

2000: Contract impasse resulted in him not joining team until second week of regular season... Played in 15 games (11 starts) and recorded 30 solo tackles, 16 assists, team-best 7.5 quarterback sacks and 20 hurries, eight tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery... Did not play in season opener at N.Y. Giants (9/3) while on reserve-did not report list... Received first action of season midway through first quarter of home opener vs. Dallas (9/10)... Finished game with two tackles, including a sack and tackle for loss... Also hit Cowboy passer Randall Cunningham's arm on third-and-five from Cardinal 15-yard line as ball popped in the air, only to see Dallas running back Michael Wiley pluck the fluttering ball out of the air and run 15 yards to the end zone... Started first game of season vs. Green Bay (9/24) and posted four tackles, one assist, a pair of hurries and two tackles for loss... Had three hurries of 49er passer Jeff Garcia at San Francisco (10/1) rushing from numerous positions along the defensive line... Provided two tackles, two hurries and induced two holding calls in 29-21 win over Cleveland (10/8)... Did not start due to shoulder ailment vs. Washington (11/5) but provided one solo tackle in reserve role... Shoulder prevented him from starting at Minnesota (11/12) but made potential key play in third period with Minnesota nursing 17-7 lead... On second-and-seven at Arizona eight-yard line, slapped ball away from Viking passer Daunte Culpepper on hard outside rush and recovered the ball at the 12 yard-line as Cards drove to midfield before losing possession on a fumble as well... Finished game with three overall tackles, two hurries, and the sack/forced fumble and recovery... Impressive first half at Philadelphia (11/19) with single-game career-best three sacks of Donovan McNabb — most by Cardinal since Ken Harvey's three vs. Washington in 1993... Added two more tackles for loss as all five of his stops resulted in lost yardage... Back into starting role vs. N.Y. Giants (11/26) and provided one tackle for loss ... Active day vs. Baltimore (12/17) with four solo tackles (including one for loss,) one assist, and a hurry... Achieved season-best eight tackles including six solo stops, a sack, and a tackle for loss in season finale at Washington (12/24).

In addition to sack total, posted 56.5 tackles (45.5 solos), team-best 24 hurries, seven forced fumbles, two tackles for loss, three passes defensed, and one fumble recovery... Opened season with monster game at Philadelphia (9/12) with nine tackles that included two quarterback sacks and three forced fumbles — one of which stripped Eagle passer Doug Pedersen of the ball that tackle Jerry Drake recovered... Versatile effort vs. San Francisco (9/27) and finished with five solo tackles, one sack of passer Steve Young on first play of second quarter to force a punt, and three hurries... Nailed Giant passer Kerry Collins for six-yard sack on Giants' first play of second half at Meadowlands (10/10), then added another drop late in the game near midfield along with three tackles and a hurry... Three hurries vs. Washington (10/17)... Supplied constant pressure with two sacks and five combined tackles vs. New England (10/31)... Second consecutive two-sack game with five tackles and a pair of drops of Jet passer Rick Mirer in second quarter at N.Y. Jets (11/7)... Outstanding effort at N.Y. Giants (11/28) with three tackles, forced fumbles on both sacks of Giant passer Kerry Collins, recovering one of the loose footballs, and two hurries... Key effort vs. Philadelphia (12/5) with three tackles, three hurries, and one timely sack after Eagles marched inside the 20-yard line with a resulting forced fumble that linebacker Rob Fredrickson recovered at the Cards' 19-yard line to end scoring threat... Managed a hurry and sacked passer Doug Flutie vs. Buffalo (12/19)... Three solo stops and a hurry at Atlanta (12/26)... Finished finest NFL season at Green Bay (1/2) by sacking Packer passer Brett Favre twice, once on a third-quarter scramble and again in the fourth quarter when he slapped the ball out of Favre's hand.

1998: Returned to rookie-season form to lead club in sacks (10), quarterback pressures (23), and recovered fumbles (4)... Also deflected five passes and forced one fumble... Finished season with 29 solo tackles and 12 assists as 16-game starter... Four two-sack games... After just five combined tackles in first two games, splashed vs. Philadelphia (9/20) with four tackles, two sacks, one fumble recovery and 10-yard return, and four hurries... The recovery and return set up the go-ahead touchdown late in 17-3 victory in home opener vs. Eagles... Four tackles and a third-quarter sack in win at St. Louis (9/27)... Another active game vs. Oakland (10/4) as a down lineman and upright end with four tackles and two deflected passes... Also added three hurries and four quarterback hits... Three tackles in win over Chicago (10/11) and returned a Curtis Enis fumble 29 yards to the Bear 21-yard line to set up 10-0 Card lead... Monster game at Detroit (11/1) with two sacks, four hurries, and one forced fumble and recovery... Another productive game vs. Washington (11/8) with six combined tackles, including his second consecutive game with two sacks... In rematch with Redskins at Washington (11/22), peppered 'Skins with two sacks, had a third negated by penalty, and posted five hurries... Two solo tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (12/6) but missed majority of defensive snaps in second half after rib injury... Pushed season sack total to 10 vs. New Orleans (12/20) with drop of Saint passer Kerry Collins... Just one solo tackle from scrimmage vs. San Diego (12/27) but made key fumble recovery in third quarter... Although just one assisted tackle, pressured Dallas passer Troy Aikman numerous times and registered four hurries in playoff win at Dallas (1/2)... One solo stop in divisional playoff loss at Minnesota (1/10).

1997: Started all but the season finale... Battled through effects of training-camp virus when he lost 15 pounds and missed the entire preseason... Finished sophomore season with 58 tackles (32 solo), five quarterback sacks, team-high 18 hurries, four tackles for loss, one interception, and one forced fumble... Also knocked down six passes at the line of scrimmage... Three sacks in first two games pushed his 20-game total to 15.5 sacks, just one sack short of O'Neal's league best of 16.5 sacks in his first 20 NFL games (1985-86)... Hospitalized in Phoenix with virus two days into training camp... Though stamina was a concern due to the virus, still managed three tackles and a sack in season opener at Cincinnati (8/31)... Eight tackles in victory vs. Dallas (9/7), highlighted by two sacks... Four stops at Tampa Bay (9/28)... Notched fourth sack of the season and added two tackles vs. Minnesota (10/5)... 99 WARREN SAPP

Defensive Tackle

HT: 6-2
WT: 303
BORN: 12/19/72
NFL: 7TH YEAR
ACQUIRED: D1A, 1995
COLLEGE: MIAMI

Pro: The most dominant defensive player in the NFL... Has re-invented the defensive tackle position just as Lawrence Taylor changed the linebacker spot... Plays the game with a tantalizing unbridled passion... His 29 sacks the past two seasons ranks first in the NFL... Career sack total of 58.5 places him second in club history behind Buccaneer lineman Lee Roy Selmon's mark of 78.5... Selected to four consecutive Pro Bowls, joining Selmon (1979-84) as the only Bucs' linemen to earn repeat nominations to Hawaii... Production continues to increase despite facing double and triple-teams constantly... Has averaged 9.75 sacks per season... Career totals include 330 tackles, 11 forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries and 14 passes defensed, in addition to four sacks in five playoff contests... Rugged but durable, missing only three games in his six-year career.

2000: Played in all 16 regular season games with 15 starts at defensive tackle (all but

Washington)... Also started playoff contest... Selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth consecutive season, including his third straight as a starter... Also earned first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, The Sporting News, Football Digest and USA Today... Named to Pro Football Weekly's All-NFL team and All-NFC by Football News... Recorded career-highs in sacks (16.5) and tackles (76)... Shattered Selmon's franchise best total of 13 sacks during the 1977 campaign... Tied for second in the NFL (with Miami's Trace Armstrong) with the 16.5 sacks, trailing only New Orleans' La'Roi Glover (17 sacks)... Had the third-most sacks ever in a single season for a defensive tackle in NFL history... Added one forced fumble, four passes defensed and two blocked field goal attempts... Posted a sack in 11 of the team's 16 games... Helped the Tampa Bay defense finish in the NFL's Top 10 (ninth) for the fourth consecutive season... Recorded 1.5 sacks and six tackles in the season opener (9/3)... Had one sack, one pass defensed and two tackles in a win over the Bears (9/10)... Played arguably his best game as a pro in Detroit (9/17), tying a career-high with three sacks and four tackles... Limited Lions' backs to a paltry 17 yards... Tallied four tackles and a sack after missing the first quarter at Washington (10/1)... Also keyed a fourth quarter comeback by blocking a Michael Husted field goal attempt... Posted five tackles and one sack in Minneapolis (10/9)... Blocked a field goal that resulted in a Donnie Abraham 53-yard return for a touchdown that gave the Bucs a fourth quarter lead... Had a season-high nine tackles against Detroit (10/19) and contributed two sacks and one pass defensed... Notched three tackles, one sack, one forced fumble and one pass defensed in a romp over Minnesota (10/29)... Knocked Brett Favre out of a November meeting (11/12) with a sack and added five tackles... Became the Buccaneers single-season leader in sacks when he recorded two sacks in a win over the Bills (11/26)... Helped limit the Dolphins to less than 100 yards on the ground and pressured QB Jay Fiedler into four interceptions (12/10)... Dropped the Rams' Kurt Warner twice (12/18) and added seven tackles in a Monday night thriller with St. Louis (12/18)... Nailed Favre again for a sack and contributed seven tackles in the regular season finale (12/24).

Xtra Points

Warren broke the team's single-season mark for individual sacks against Buffalo (11/26/00), eclipsing the record of 13 sacks held by Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon set in 1977. Warren finished the season with a record 16.5 sacks.

1999: Started 15 games, missing one contest (Minnesota, 10/3) with a broken hand... Racked up 54 tackles and a career-best 12.5 sacks... Selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl... Also named Defensive Most Valuable Player by Pro Football Weekly and College and Pro Football Newsweekly... Earned Defensive Player of the Year nod by Football Digest... Also selected to the Football News All-NFC Team... His 12.5 sacks bested previous career mark of 10 1/2 (1997), finishing one-half sack shy of Selmon's single-season club mark of 13, set in 1977... Finished fourth in the NFC and fifth in the NFL in sacks, but each player above him lined up at end... Helped defensive unit rank first in the NFC and third in the league in total defense in the NFL... Opened season with six tackles, one sack and one pass defensed against the Giants (9/12)... Helped limit the Giants to 107 total net yards (28 rushing), the second-stingiest showing in team history... Owned Veterans Stadium the following week against the Eagles (9/19), tying a career-high with three sacks, totaling 28 yards... Added a season-high seven tackles... His three sacks were one of nine team sacks, one off the club record (at Baltimore,

2000 GAME-BY-GAME RECAP

BUCS 21 PATRIOTS 16
SEPTEMBER 3, 2000
FOXBORO STADIUM
(60,292)

FOXBORO – The Bucs defense held off a late rally as it downed New England 21-16 in front of 60,292 at Foxboro Stadium in the 2000 season opener. Tampa Bay's defense notched six sacks on Patriots' quarterback Drew Bledsoe, tying with Washington for tops in the NFL on the day. New England converted on just 4-of-17 third down opportunities and gained only 88 yards rushing. Tampa Bay's offense was led by the duo of Mike Alstott and Warrick Dunn, who combined for 110 yards and two Alstott scores on the ground. Alstott's first touchdown, a five-yarder, gave the Bucs a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter. The Patriots regained the lead on a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown by Troy Brown, but Tampa Bay rebounded to grab a 14-10 edge at the half. With the clock winding down in the opening 30 minutes, QB Shaun King faked a spike to stop the clock and instead found WR Reidel Anthony in the end zone for an eight-yard touchdown. The play was set up by a 33-yard third down completion to WR Jacquez Green on the previous play. The Bucs added to their lead in the third quarter as the defense forced a New England fumble and gave the offense the ball at the Patriots' 24-yard line. Alstott hit paydirt for the second time four plays later on a three-yard touchdown. New England closed the gap with a 39-yard scoring strike with three minutes left in the game but the Bucs defense kept the Patriots out of the end zone as time expired.

[65,569]

TAMPA – The Bucs displayed a complete effort on offense, defense and special teams as they recorded the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in the home opener before 65,569 at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay improved to 2-0 for the fifth time in club history, while the Bears dropped to 0-2. The two teams played a scoreless first quarter before K Martin Gramatica booted field goals of 23 and 47 yards for a 6-0 Bucs lead. The game changed drastically, though, in the final three minutes of the first half. CB Donnie Abraham intercepted a Cade McNown pass off the hands of RB James Allen and returned it to the Bears four-yard line. QB Shaun King scored on three-yard run three plays later for a 13-0 lead. The Bucs defense was not finished as CB Ronde Barber, who had 2.5 sacks on the day, recovered a fumble forced by Abraham and took it 24 yards for a touchdown and a 20-0 halftime advantage. King added touchdown strikes to WR Keyshawn Johnson – his first touchdown as a Buccaneer - and WR Jacquez Green in the third quarter, while FB Mike Alstott closed out the scoring with a 20-yard run in the final period. The Bucs defense extended their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and permitted the Bears just 165 total yards, including 49 passing. Tampa Bay forced four turnovers and allowed Chicago one third down conversion in 11 tries.

PONTIAC – In an early season battle of unbeatens, Tampa Bay won for just the second time in its last eight trips to Detroit with a 31-10 victory before 76,928 at the Pontiac Silverdome. Tampa Bay improved to 3-0 for the third time in club history. For the second time in three games, the Bucs fell behind as Jason Hanson booted a 38-yard field goal to open the game. Karl Williams helped put the Bucs on the board two series later as he returned a punt 42 yards to the Detroit 18-yard line. King kept the ball for a six-yard score four plays later to give Tampa Bay a lead it would not relinquish. FB Mike Alstott fought his way into the end zone from four yards out late in the first quarter and King found a wide-open OG Randall McDaniel for a two-yard score with time winding down in the second quarter. The score, the first of McDaniel's career, gave Tampa Bay a 21-3 lead. The Lions grabbed some momentum briefly as they cut the edge to 21-10 with a 50-yard touchdown pass on the final play of the first half. The Bucs changed that momentum following the break, keeping the ball for a 19-play field goal drive spanning nine and a half minutes. The Lions struggled offensively as the Bucs forced three second half turnovers, including an interception that led to a one-yard plunge by RB Warrick Dunn in the fourth quarter, his first rushing touchdown since 1998. The Bucs offense flourished in the red zone, finishing a perfect 5-5. QB Shaun King completed 18-of-30 passes for 211 yards with one TD and no INTs, including eight to WR Keyshawn Johnson. The Bucs defense allowed just 17 net yards rushing, tied for the third-best effort in team history and the special teams unit blocked one Lions punt and tipped another.

TAMPA – The Jets rallied from a 17-6 fourth quarter deficit to snap Tampa Bay's eight-game home winning streak with a 21-17 win before 65,619 at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay lost for the first time, while the Jets remained unbeaten at 4-0. Jets RB Curtis Martin found WR Wayne Chrebet in the back of the end zone for an 18-yard touchdown on a halfback option with 52 seconds left in the game. The play capped a frantic final two minutes when New York scored twice. Martin caught a six-yard TD pass from QB Vinny Testaverde with 1:54 remaining to cut Tampa Bay's lead to 17-14. Bucs FB Mike Alstott fumbled on the second play, giving New York the ball at the Tampa Bay 24-yard line. The Jets capitalized with the deciding touchdown two plays later. After the two teams swapped first quarter field goals, TE Dave Moore gave the Bucs a 10-3 edge with a one-handed three-yard TD grab in the back of the end zone from QB Shaun King. New York added a field goal before intermission, but Tampa Bay extended the lead to 17-6 late in the third quarter on an outstanding defensive play by CB Ronde Barber. Barber stepped in front of a Testaverde pass and ran untouched 37 yards for a touchdown, his second defensive score of the season. Tampa Bay's offense gained 239 total yards (119 rushing, 120 passing), but managed just 17 yards in the final quarter and committed a season-high four turnovers. The Bucs defense forced three Testaverde interceptions but allowed 296 total yards.

REDSKINS 20 BUCCANEERS 17 (OT)
October 1, 2000
FedEx Stadium
(83,532)

LANDOVER – Former Buccaneer K Michael Husted kicked a 20-yard field goal just over four minutes into overtime as Washington downed Tampa Bay 20-17 in overtime before 83,532 (the largest crowd to ever see a Bucs game) at FedEx Field. The game-winning field goal was set up by a 57-yard punt return by Deion Sanders, which gave Washington the ball at the Bucs eight-yard line. The Bucs, who trailed 17-7 with less than three minutes remaining in regulation, forced overtime as K Martin Gramatica nailed a 42-yard field goal as time expired. Tampa Bay had cut the lead to three with two minutes left in the fourth quarter as QB Shaun King hit WR Reidel Anthony on a 46-yard strike after fumbling the ball following the snap. The game was deadlocked at 7-7 at halftime and the Redskins took their first lead of the game on a Husted field goal in the third quarter. Washington then appeared to seal the victory with 3:57 left in the final period on an eight-yard TD reception by Larry Centers from QB Brad Johnson. The Bucs struck first, thanks to the defense forcing a Redskins turnover. FS Damien Robinson recovered a Johnson fumble that was forced by DT Anthony McFarland and the offense took over at the 25-yard line. Alstott scored from two yards out five plays later for an early 7-0 lead. Washington came back, though, as Stephen Davis broke free for a 50-yard touchdown late in the first half, the first rushing score against Tampa Bay since Game 14 at Oakland last season.

MINNEAPOLIS – For the second time in its last three games, Tampa Bay lost a fourth quarter lead as Minnesota rallied for a 30-23 victory before 64,162 at the Metrodome and a national television audience on Monday Night Football. The Bucs, who trailed for most of the game, took their first lead with 12:13 remaining in the game when CB Donnie Abraham returned a blocked field goal attempt 53 yards for a 23-20 Bucs lead. The block by DT Warren Sapp, his second in the last two weeks, gave Tampa Bay its first touchdown on a return of a blocked field goal since 1978. But the Vikings regained the lead on a 42-yard scoring pass from QB Daunte Culpepper to WR Randy Moss and then extended the edge to seven on a Gary Anderson field goal with 59 seconds left in the game. Tampa Bay reached the Viking 43-yard line, but QB Shaun King's "Hail Mary" pass on the final play of regulation fell incomplete in the end zone. Minnesota scored just 24 seconds into the game after a Tampa Bay fumble gave the Vikings the ball at the 27-yard line. The Bucs tied the score on an 11-yard run by King following a fumble by Culpepper, which was recovered by SS John Lynch. Minnesota regained the lead on a field goal and a touchdown in the second period, but K Martin Gramatica hit the first of three FGs on the night to cut the halftime lead to 17-10. WR Jacquez Green set a career-high with 11 receptions and the Bucs defense registered six sacks.

TAMPA – For the first time since 1996, Tampa Bay lost its fourth straight game as Detroit came back for a 28-14 victory before 65,557 fans and a national television audience on ESPN's Thursday Night Football. The Lions, who had trailed for most of the first half, scored 14 points in the final quarter on two short touchdown runs by James Stewart after K Martin Gramatica had tied the game at 14-14 with a career-long 55-yard FG. Gramatica, who tied his single-game mark with four field goals, connected on his first two and the Bucs added a safety after a blocked punt by LB Nate Webster for an 8-0 lead early in the second period. The two teams traded field goals, but Detroit evened the game at 11-11 just before the half on the first of Stewart's three TDs. Gramatica and Lions K Jason Hanson swapped field goals again after the break before Detroit took control in the final 13 minutes. DE Marcus Jones set a club record with four sacks and added a blocked field goal as the Bucs totaled seven quarterback sacks. DT Warren Sapp added two sacks and DT Anthony McFarland notched one takedown. Detroit's defense forced four Tampa Bay turnovers, including a career-worst three interceptions by QB Shaun King and a Mike Alstott fumble. The Bucs offense also was held to just 2-11 on third down attempts.

BUCS 41 VIKINGS 13
October 29, 2000
Raymond James Stadium
(65,589)

TAMPA – The Bucs offense scored on each of its first four possessions as it snapped a four-game skid and ended Minnesota's 7-0 start before 65,589 fans at Raymond James Stadium. WR Keyshawn Johnson gave Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead on a nine-yard TD play following a Vikings fumble forced by DT Warren Sapp. Following a Minnesota FG, RB Warrick Dunn scored on a 23-yard pass from QB Shaun King, but Minnesota cut the lead to 14-10. The Bucs responded with 17 consecutive points, including LB Derrick Brooks' 34-yard interception return for a TD, for a 31-10 halftime lead. The 31 points tied the club record for points in a half. The Bucs defense forced three turnovers, leading to 21 points, and Tampa Bay did not attempt a punt for the first time since 1998. Tampa Bay gained 413 yards in total offense, including 152 on the ground. King set a career-high with four TDs and K Martin Gramatica extended his field goal streak to eight straight with two three-pointers. RB Warrick Dunn led the ground attack with 89 yards on 11 carries, while Johnson eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the first time in a Buccaneer uniform with six receptions for 121 yards. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scored 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

BUCS 27 FALCONS 14
November 5, 2000
Georgia Dome
(70,097)

ATLANTA – The Bucs defense tied a season-high by forcing four turnovers and WR Keyshawn Johnson caught two touchdown passes as Tampa Bay won its third road game of the year with a 27-14 victory over Atlanta at the Georgia Dome. Tampa Bay's defense added four quarterback sacks and the special teams unit added a blocked punt and a successful fake punt. CB Donnie Abraham snagged the first of his two interceptions on the day, setting up TE Dave Moore's one-yard TD reception for a 7-0 lead. The defense knocked Falcons QB Chris Chandler out of the game after sacking him on three consecutive plays in the second quarter, leaving backup Danny Kanell to run the offense. The Bucs special teams helped extend the lead to 14-0 as John McLaughlin blocked a Dan Stryzinski punt midway through the second quarter, giving the Bucs offense the ball at the three-yard line. Two plays later, QB Shaun King found Johnson for his first score on a five-yard pass. The blocked punt was the sixth block (three punts, three FGs) of the season for the Bucs and marked the first block allowed by Atlanta since the 1992 season. The Falcons cut the lead to 14-7 after the break, but K Martin Gramatica hit a 51-yard field goal and Johnson added his second score for a 24-7 lead. Gramatica tacked on a 34-yarder with 4:27 remaining to put the game out of reach.

GAME 10

BUCS 20 PACKERS 15
November 12, 2000
Raymond James Stadium
(65,621)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay won its third consecutive game as it rallied in the fourth quarter to down Green Bay 20-15 at Raymond James Stadium. K Martin Gramatica nailed field goals from 54 and 51 yards to complete the rally, giving the Bucs their third consecutive victory at home over the Packers for the first time in series history. Green Bay grabbed its first lead of the game at 15-14 on a fake field goal for a touchdown with 14:01 left in the game, but Gramatica nailed the 54-yarder for a 17-15 Bucs lead less than four minutes later. After the Tampa Bay defense forced a fumble by RB Ahman Green, Gramatica extended the lead with his fifth field goal of 50 or more yards this season. The Bucs defense stopped Green Bay on its final two drives to preserve the victory. After a scoreless first quarter, QB Shaun King hooked up with WR Keyshawn Johnson for a five-yard score early in the second quarter. Packers K Ryan Longwell cut the lead to 7-3 with his first of three field goals, but King connected with WR Reidel Anthony with less than two minutes remaining in the first half for a 14-3 halftime edge. Packers QB Matt Hasselbeck, who came off the bench midway through the third quarter after Brett Favre suffered a left ankle sprain, led Green Bay to two third quarter field goals to cut the lead to 14-9. Hasselbeck then executed the fake field goal to perfection, throwing a 27-yard pass to a wide-open Bubba Franks for Green Bay's lone lead of the game.

GAME 11

BEARS 13 BUCS 10
November 19, 2000
Soldier Field
(66,944)

CHICAGO – Tampa Bay continued its struggles in cold weather (0-18 when the temperature is below 40 degrees) as Chicago avenged a 41-0 defeat to the Bucs earlier in the season with a 13-10 victory at Soldier Field. K Paul Edinger nailed a 48-yard field goal with just over 10 minutes remaining in the game to break a 10-10 tie and snap the Bears' six-game losing streak to the Bucs. Chicago got on the board first as Edinger was perfect from 34 yards midway through the first quarter. Tampa Bay responded with K Martin Gramatica's 13th straight field goal, a 33-yarder to open the second quarter. The field goal capped an 11-play drive that spanned more than six minutes. The game remained tied until the Bears defense gave Chicago a 10-3 halftime lead with their first of two interceptions on the afternoon. S Tony Parrish picked off QB Shaun King and ran untouched 38 yards for the score. King rallied the Bucs following the break, marching Tampa Bay downfield on its first possession to tie the game at 10-10. King, who finished with a career-high 72 yards rushing on the day, scrambled for a nine-yard touchdown run after the Bucs defense forced Chicago to punt after the break. The Bucs defense stopped the Bears on the ensuing possession as S Damien Robinson intercepted QB Shane Matthews on fourth down inside Tampa Bay territory. But Tampa Bay's offense gave the ball back on RB Warrick Dunn's fumble late in the third quarter, leading to Edinger's game-winning field goal. The Bears defense shut down the Bucs the rest of the way and Chicago ran out the clock to preserve the win.

GAME 12

BUCS 31 BILLS 17
November 26, 2000
Raymond James Stadium
(65,546)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay received contributions from its offense, defense and special teams as it won its third straight game at home with a 31-17 victory over Buffalo at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs led 10-7 after three quarters but then exploded for 21 points in the final quarter, including two touchdown runs by RB Warrick Dunn sandwiched around a 73-yard punt return by WR Karl Williams. Dunn's first score, a six-yard run, gave Tampa Bay a 17-7 edge but Buffalo cut the lead to 17-14 on QB Rob Johnson's second TD pass of the day. The Bucs defense forced a punt on the next series and Williams capitalized with the third punt return touchdown of his career. Buffalo cut the lead with a field goal, but Dunn put the game out of reach with a 39-yard TD run. Dunn posted his first 100-yard game since 1998 as he tallied 106 yards on 20 carries. The Bucs defense notched six sacks to set a club single-season record and DT Warren Sapp broke Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two – giving him 13.5 for the year. For the third time in the last four games, Tampa Bay knocked off the opposing teams' quarterback as the injured Johnson was replaced by Doug Flutie in the fourth quarter. Tampa Bay's offense was held to just 180 yards but did not commit a turnover and gained 86 of its yards in the final 15 minutes.

BUCS 27 COWBOYS 7
December 3, 2000
Raymond James Stadium
(65,621)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay set a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marked the second-best single-game effort in Bucs history and he surpassed the 100-yard mark for the second straight week. Dallas fumbled the opening kickoff and Tampa Bay converted with a 28-yard FG by K Martin Gramatica. Following a Dallas punt, Dunn erupted for a 70-yard touchdown run, the second-longest score on the ground in team history, on Tampa Bay's first play. CB Brian Kelly extended the lead to 17-0 when he picked off a Troy Aikman pass and returned it nine yards for his first career touchdown. Gramatica added a 25-yard FG for a 20-0 halftime edge, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight. Dallas cut the lead to 20-7 on a four-yard run by QB Emmitt Smith, but Dunn put the game away with a four-run with less than eight minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. The Bucs defense tied a season-high with four turnovers, leading to 17 points, and added two quarterback sacks. Dallas penetrated the Tampa Bay 20-yard line three times, but came away with just seven points. DE Marcus Jones notched his 13th sack of the year, tying Lee Roy Selmon for the second-best single-season sack total in club history.

GAME 14

BUCS 16 DOLPHINS 13
December 10, 2000
Pro Player Stadium
(74,307)

MIAMI – FS Damien Robinson intercepted Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay held on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. The interception was the fourth of the game for the Bucs defense and gave them a season-high five turnovers forced. K Martin Gramatica hit two field goals in the final quarter, including a 46-yarder with 8:12 remaining, to provide the winning points. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay set a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. Miami K Olindo Mare gave Miami a 3-0 lead in the first quarter, but Bucs LB Jamie Duncan scored his first career touchdown on a 31-yard interception return early in the second quarter. LB Shelton Quarles grabbed his first career interception late in the first half and Gramatica followed with a 38-yard FG on the final play of the half for a 10-3 Bucs lead. Miami cut the edge to 10-6 on Mare's second field goal and then regained the lead at 13-10 on a one-yard touchdown run by Lamar Smith with 3:18 left in the third quarter. Gramatica hit a 30-yarder to tie the game early in the fourth period, which was helped in part by a 45-yard pass play from QB Shaun King to RB Warrick Dunn on a second-and-33 from the Miami 46-yard line. Duncan recovered a Fielder fumble on the first play of the Dolphins' next series, setting up Gramatica's game-winner. The Bucs took advantage of the Miami miscues, scoring 13 points off the five turnovers. Tampa Bay's defense remained stingy in the final 15 minutes, adding two more interceptions to go along with the fumble recovery, including CB Donnie Abraham's team-leading seventh of the year.

BUCS 38 RAMS 35
December 18, 2000
Raymond James Stadium
(65,653)

TAMPA – RB Warrick Dunn scored his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallied for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football at Raymond James Stadium. After the Rams had stormed back from a 10-point deficit to grab a 35-31 lead, QB Shaun King drove the Bucs 80 yards on 13 plays for the game-winning score on a one-yard run by Dunn. S John Lynch sealed the victory with an interception of Rams QB Kurt Warner, his third of the game, with less than 30 seconds remaining. In a game that featured seven lead changes, Tampa Bay grabbed a 24-14 halftime lead, thanks to a two-yard score by Dunn and two scoring strikes from King to WR Keyshawn Johnson. Rams RB Marshall Faulk, who scored four touchdowns on the night, accounted for St. Louis first-half points with two rushing TDs. Faulk added a TD reception following the break to cut the lead to three, but Dunn broke free for a 52-yard run to extend the edge to 31-21 and eclipse the 1,000-yard mark for the season. But the Rams responded with 14 straight points on Faulk's third rushing TD and a 72-yard score from Warner to WR Torry Holt. The Rams defense then stopped Tampa Bay on downs, but the Bucs defense responded by forcing the Rams to punt with 2:22 left in the game, setting up the game-winning drive. Dunn tied a team single-game record with three rushing touchdowns and the Bucs offense gained a season-high 446 yards.

GAME 16

PACKERS 17 BUCS 14 (OT)
December 24, 2000
Lambeau Field
(59,692)

GREEN BAY – Ryan Longwell nailed a 22-yard field goal midway through overtime as Green Bay kept Tampa Bay winless in cold weather (0-19 when the temperature is below 40 degrees) with a 17-14 overtime victory at Lambeau Field. The Bucs had rallied to tie the game with 11 fourth-quarter points but K Martin Gramatica missed a go-ahead 40-yard field goal attempt with nine seconds remaining in regulation. Gramatica did make two field goals to finish the year with a club-record 28 on the year, breaking the mark of 27 he set in 1999. Green Bay jumped out to a 7-0 lead on a touchdown run by Ahman Green in the first quarter. That lead lasted until the third quarter, when Green found the end zone again for a 14-0 edge. Gramatica got Tampa Bay on the board with a 38-yarder late in the period following a fumble recovery by S Damien Robinson. The Bucs would slice into the Green Bay lead two series later as QB Shaun King executed a perfect two-minute drill with six straight completions. The final pass hit WR Keyshawn Johnson for an 18-yard score and then King ran in the two-point conversion to make the score 14-11. The two-point play featured an option run - a handoff to RB Warrick Dunn, who gave the ball to FB Mike Alstott, who pitched it to a wide-open King. S John Lynch intercepted Packers QB Brett Favre two plays later and Tampa Bay followed with a 43-yard FG by Gramatica to tie the game with 7:50 left in regulation. After the teams exchanged punts, LB Jamie Duncan picked off Favre to give the Bucs possession at their own 43-yard line with 1:45 on the clock. King drove the team into field goal range, but Gramatica barely missed wide right to force overtime.

NFC WILD CARD GAME
EAGLES 21 BUCS 3
December 31, 2000
Veterans Stadium
(65,813)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including a club playoff-record six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

NICKERSON RE-SIGNS WITH TEAM (2/22) — LB Hardy Nickerson, the Buccaneers' Most Valuable Player in 1993 and '95, agrees to a four-year deal to remain with the team.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT TAX PASSES (9/3) — Hillsborough County voters pass the Community Investment Tax by a 53-47% margin. The tax will fund the construction of a new stadium and practice facility as well as various other community projects.

DUNGY WINS FIRST GAME (10/8) — Tony Dungy earns his first victory as Buccaneer head coach with a 24-13 victory over his former team, the Minnesota Vikings.

BUCS DEFEAT CHARGERS FOR FIRST CALIFORNIA WIN SINCE '80 (11/17) — Tampa Bay edges the San Diego Chargers 25-17 to earn its first victory in California since 1980 (24-23 vs. San Francisco).

1997

GRUBER RE-SIGNS (2/13) — LT Paul Gruber, the team's designated franchise player and cornerstone of the Buc offensive line for the past eight years, signs a three-year deal to remain in Tampa.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) — The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo, consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are Buccaneer red, pewter, black and orange.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) — The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Tampa Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) — The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) — C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) — DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) — After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) — By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) — The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) — As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) — After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract. The new deal ensures Dungy will be with the team through the 2002 season.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) — Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

EMANUEL LANDS IN TAMPA (4/14) — Less than a week after signing an offer sheet with the Buccaneers, Atlanta transitional free agent WR Bert Emanuel officially joins the team after the Falcons fail to match the Bucs' four-year offer.

McKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) — Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) – For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including pre-season) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sells out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) – Raymond James Stadium, already known as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) – The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Dunn (115).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) – Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dilfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to Jacquez Green and Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) – Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/7) – A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips.

BUCS SIGN AHANOTU TO SIX-YEAR DEAL (7/30) – The Buccaneers sign DE Chidi Ahanotu to a six-year contract. Ahanotu, entering his seventh year with the club, had been designated Tampa Bay's franchise player.

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) – Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) – Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) – Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) – Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dilfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdome. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) – Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) – Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) – Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous best home record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) – The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs.

An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) – Four Buccaneers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp – earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first-team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) – DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon turned the trick in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 12 1/2 sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) – Tampa Bay rallies from a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) – The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players – FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS SIGN PRO BOWL C CHRISTY TO FIVE-YEAR DEAL (2/15) – Tampa Bay inks two-time Pro Bowl C Jeff Christy to a five-year contract. Christy, an unrestricted free agent, had spent his previous seven seasons with the Minnesota Vikings.

TAMPA BAY HIRES STECKEL AS OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR (2/20) – The Bucs hire former Tennessee Titans offensive coordinator Les Steckel as their new offensive coordinator. Steckel, who helped the Titans reach Super Bowl XXXIV, joins Tampa Bay after five years with the Titans/Oilers. He also coached previously at Denver, New England, Minnesota and San Francisco.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER McDANIEL (3/1) – The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) – The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) – Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears just 165 total yards,including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS SIGN S JOHN LYNCH TO EXTENSION (9/11) – Tampa Bay inks Pro Bowl S John Lynch to a six-year contract extension. Lynch goes on to earn his second consecutive All-Pro selection and third trip to the Pro Bowl.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) – The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) – DT Warren Sapp breaks Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two - giving him 13.5 for the year - as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) – Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FG prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED AGAINST MIAMI (12/10) – FS Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18) – RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

CHRISTENSEN PROMOTED TO OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR (1/26) – Tampa Bay announces that quarterbacks coach Clyde Christensen, who has served on Tampa Bay's staff under head coach Tony Dungy since Dungy's arrival in 1996, has been promoted to offensive coordinator. Christensen coached Tampa Bay's quarterbacks during each of the last two seasons after tutoring the tight ends for his first three years from 1996-98.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB QB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) – Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) – Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

BUCS SWAP FIRST-ROUND PICKS WITH BUFFALO (4/21) – Tampa Bay trades its first-round pick (21st overall) and second-round selection to the Buffalo Bills for their first-round draft choice (14th overall) in order to select T Kenyatta Walker in the 2001 NFL Draft. Walker, expected to compete for Tampa Bay's starting left tackle position in his rookie season, is the first offensive lineman selected by the Buccaneers in the first round in 10 years.

JOHN McKAY DIES (6/10) – John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

Most Valuable Players

Two separate awards are presented each year to the team member chosen as the Bucs' Most Valuable Player. The St. Petersburg Times' award is determined by a vote of writers who regularly cover the team. The Tampa Sports Club, a cross section of the Tampa sports community, votes for its award. The Newspaper Enterprise Association no longer conducts a poll which was won in 1977 and 1979 by Lee Roy Selmon, in 1976 by Dave Pear and in 1978 by David Lewis.

Ed Block Courage Award

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and families in crisis.

Buccaneers In Overtime

September 9, 1979 - Tampa Bay 29, at Baltimore 26: Colts win the toss. On Baltimore's third play from scrimmage, Buccaneer DE Randy Crowder sacks Colt QB Greg Landry, forcing a fumble that is recovered by DT Bill Kollar at the opposition's 14-yard line. PK Neil O'Donoghue kicks a 31-yard field goal on the next play to win the game at 1:41 of OT.

October 12, 1980 - at Tampa Bay 14, Green Bay 14: Packers win the toss. After the two teams exchange a pair of punts, Green Bay QB Lynn Dickey continues the most prolific passing day ever by a Buccaneer opponent (418 yards), guiding the Packers into Tampa Bay territory in the final minute of overtime. A 21-yard completion to WR Aundra Thompson helps Green Bay reach the Bucs' 18-yard line, but a 36-yard field goal attempt by PK Tom Birney sails wide right as time expires, resulting in the NFL's first tie since 1978.

January 2, 1983 - at Tampa Bay 26, Chicago 23: Bears win the toss. Chicago takes possession on its own 20 but gains just five yards as QB Jim McMahon is nearly sacked on successive plays. After a 35-yard punt, the Bucs take over on their own 40-yard line. RB James Wilder takes a pitch around the right end on the Bucs' first play and runs 47 yards to the Chicago 13. Two plays later, PK Bill Capece hits a 33-yard field goal at 3:14 of OT to send the Bucs into the playoffs.

September 18, 1983 - Minnesota 19, at Tampa Bay 16: Vikings win the toss. The Buccaneers force a Minnesota punt and take over on their own 47-yard line. QB Jack Thompson produces three first downs and leads the Bucs down to the Vikings' 15-yard line, but PK Bill Capece misses a 33-yard field goal. Minnesota RB Ricky Young turns a short pass into a 48-yard gain to the Buccaneer 27-yard line, setting up a 42-yard game-winning field goal by PK Benny Ricardo at 5:33 of OT.

October 9, 1983 - at Dallas 27, Tampa Bay 24: Cowboys win the toss. Dallas takes over on its own 10-yard line after the kickoff and reaches Buccaneer territory with a 46-yard pass from QB Danny White to RB Ron Springs. RB Tony Dorsett's 12-yard jaunt around end sets up a 50-yard field goal try by PK Rafael Septien. Septien's attempt falls short, but a roughing the kicker penalty sets up another try by the Cowboy kicker and he converts from 42 yards out at 4:38 of OT.

December 12, 1983 - Green Bay 12, at Tampa Bay 9: Packers win the toss. Green Bay keeps the ball on the ground in the opening drive with RBs Jessie Clark and Harlan Huckleby running for 43 of the 65 yards gained on the possession. A 20-yard sweep by Huckleby down to Tampa Bay's seven-yard line sets up a game-winning chip of 23 yards by PK Jan Stenerud at 4:07 of OT.

September 30, 1984 - at Tampa Bay 30, Green Bay 27: Packers win the toss. After the teams trade punts, Green Bay begins at its own 27-yard line but is again forced to punt after three plays. A 16-yard Steve DeBerg pass to FB Adger Armstrong brings the Bucs down to the Packers' 17-yard line and, despite consecutive holding penalties, PK Obed Ariri connects on a 48-yard field goal at 10:38 of OT.

October 14, 1984 - at Detroit 13, Tampa Bay 7: Buccaneers win the toss. QB Steve DeBerg leads Tampa Bay into Detroit territory with completions of 10, 19 and 14 yards, but RB James Wilder fumbles at the Lions' 41-yard line (recovered by William Gay). On Detroit's fifth play, QB Gary Danielson hits WR Leonard Thompson in stride for a 37-yard TD at 4:34 of OT.

November 24, 1985 - Tampa Bay 19, Detroit 16: Lions win the toss. After forcing two three-and-out series by Detroit, Tampa Bay takes over at its own 38-yard line. After opening the drive with a 19-yard Steve Young completion, the Bucs run on nine straight plays, driving to the Detroit eight to set up a 24-yard field goal by Donald Igwebuike at 12:31 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - at Atlanta 23, Tampa Bay 20: Falcons win the toss. Neither team advances with its first possession, but the Falcons put together a 52-yard drive after taking a Buccaneer punt at their own 33-yard line, keyed by a 22-yard scamper by RB Cliff Austin on a draw play. PK Mick Luckhurst converts on a 34-yard field goal attempt to win the game at 12:35 of OT.

October 5, 1986 - at L.A. Rams 26, Tampa Bay 20: Rams win the toss. The Bucs lose their second overtime game in as many weeks on L.A.'s first possession as RB Eric Dickerson breaks a 42-yard touchdown run up the middle at 2:16 of OT.

December 11, 1988 - at New England 10, Tampa Bay 7: Buccaneers win the toss but elect to kick. Patriot QB Tony Eason opens New England's first possession with a 21-yard completion to WR Irving Fryar and follows three plays later with a 26-yard hookup with Fryar. Two short runs by FB John Stephens set up a 27-yard field goal by PK Jason Staurovsky at 3:08 of OT.

September 30, 1990 - Tampa Bay 23, at Minnesota 20: Vikings win the toss. Minnesota drives to the Buccaneer 31, but former Buc PK Donald Igwebuike's 48-yard field goal try is wide left. After a Tampa Bay punt, CB Wayne Haddix picks off QB Rich Gannon's pass on the Vikings' next play and returns it to the Minnesota 26-yard line. RB Reggie Cobb runs up the middle for six yards to position the Bucs for a successful 36-yard field goal by PK Steve Christie at 9:11 of OT.

November 27, 1994 - Tampa Bay 20, at Minnesota 17: Buccaneers win the toss. Tampa Bay's initial drive opens with a 16-yard reception by WR Courtney Hawkins but stalls at the Vikings' 49-yard line. P Dan Stryzinski's punt is fielded at Minnesota's 18, but is nullified by a penalty. On the re-kick, Viking WR Eric Guliford muffs the punt at Minnesota's four-yard line where it is recovered by long-snapper Ed Brady. PK Michael Husted wins the game with a 22-yard field goal on the next play which came at 2:08 of OT.

October 15, 1995 - at Tampa Bay 20, Minnesota 17: Buccaneers win the toss. Minnesota forces a Tampa Bay punt and takes over on its own 48. QB Warren Moon drives the Vikings to the Buccaneer 35-yard line, but PK Fuad Reveiz misses a 53-yard field goal attempt. The Bucs' ensuing possession nearly ends on a fumble by TE Jackie Harris, but WR Lawrence Dawsey strips Viking S Orlando Thomas during the return and G Ian Beckles falls on the loose ball at the Viking 45. A 15-yard Trent Dilfer-to-Alvin Harper pass then positions the Bucs for PK Michael Husted's game-winning 51-yard field goal at 8:37 of OT.

December 10, 1995 - at Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10: Buccaneers win the toss. Trent Dilfer passes to TE Jackie Harris for nine yards and WR Horace Copeland for 23 yards, plus an eight-yard scamper by RB Errict Rhett moves Tampa Bay into Packer territory. Rhett is stopped for a loss of one on a third-and-one attempt from Green Bay's 28-yard line, but PK Michael Husted kicks a 47-yard game-winning field goal on the next play at 11:14 of OT.

November 10, 1996 - at Tampa Bay 20, Oakland 17: Buccaneers win the toss. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Buc defense forces a Raider three-and-out and the home team gets the ball back at its own 39. Two big-gainers by rookie FB Mike Alstott, a 20-yard reception of a QB Trent Dilfer pass and a 10-yard run up the middle, position Tampa Bay at the Oakland five, from where PK Michael Husted kicks the game-winner, a 23-yarder with 3:11 remaining.

October 1, 2000 - at Washington 20, Tampa Bay 17: Redskins win the toss. The Buccaneer defense forces a Washington three-and-out, but Tampa Bay starts at its own 14-yard line. After Washington forces a three-and-out, Deion Sanders returns the punt 57 yards to the Tampa Bay eight-yard line. After three rushes by TB Stephen Davis, former Buccaneer K Michael Husted kicks a 20-yard field goal with 10:51 remaining for the victory.

December 24, 2000 - at Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14: Packers win the toss. Green Bay starts at its own 38 and uses nine plays to move the ball to the Tampa Bay four-yard line. On the drive, the Packers convert two third downs and K Ryan Longwell nails the game-winning 22-yard field goal with 8:29 left in overtime.

Buccaneers In Prime Time

Thursday Night, 9/11/80 (ABC) – Tampa Bay 10, Los Angeles Rams 9: In a rematch of the 1979 NFC Championship Game, the Bucs exacted a small measure of revenge with a 10-9 win over the Rams before 66,576 at Tampa Stadium. Quarterback Doug Williams scored the game's only touchdown on a one-yard sneak with 57 seconds remaining to seal the victory. Despite yielding 360 total yards, the Bucs defense intercepted Rams quarterback Vince Ferragamo four times and held Los Angeles to just three Frank Corral field goals.

Monday Night, 10/6/80 (ABC) – Chicago 23, Tampa Bay 0: Chicago's defense held the Bucs to 147 total yards en route to a 23-0 Monday Night win before 61,350 at Soldier Field. The Bears held a 3-0 lead heading into the third quarter, when Tampa Bay quarterback Doug Williams hit tight end Jimmie Giles for an apparent touchdown. The play was nullified because of a penalty and the Bears' defense stiffened from there.

Monday Night, 11/29/82 (ABC) – Tampa Bay 23, Miami 17: The Bucs intercepted five passes to pick up their first win of the strike-shortened season, a 23-17 triumph over Miami before 65,854 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay led 23-10 late, when Dolphins quarterback Don Strock hit tight end Joe Rose on an 11-yard scoring strike to cut the Bucs lead to six with 34 seconds remaining. Miami recovered the ensuing onside kick, but cornerback Mike Washington intercepted Strock on the game's final play to secure the win.

Monday Night, 12/12/83 (ABC) – Green Bay 12, Tampa Bay 9 (OT): Veteran kicker Jan Stenerud booted a 23-yard field goal with 4:07 left in overtime to lift Green Bay to a 12-9 win over the Bucs before 50,763 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay led 9-6 when kicker Bill Capece missed a 35-yard attempt with 2:49 remaining in regulation. The Packers then drove 65 yards to set up Stenerud for a 23-yarder that sent the game into overtime. The Bucs' defense – which surrendered 55 points to the Packers in their first meeting of the season – kept Green Bay out of the end zone but couldn't prevent the team's third overtime defeat of 1983.

Sunday Night, 9/23/90 (TNT) – Tampa Bay 23, Detroit 20: Vinny Testaverde hit running back John Harvey on a three-yard touchdown pass with 4:21 remaining to rally the Bucs past Detroit, 23-20, before 55,075 at Tampa Stadium. Testaverde completed 5 of 7 passes for 91 yards in the fourth quarter, as the Bucs erased their third deficit of the contest. Gary Anderson rushed for 71 yards and one touchdown.

Sunday Night, 12/8/91 (ESPN) – Minnesota 26, Tampa Bay 24: A valiant Bucs rally fell short as Minnesota escaped with a 26-24 win before 41,091 at Tampa Stadium. The Vikings jumped out to a 20-3 lead before Tampa Bay battled back behind Vinny Testaverde, who threw for a season-best 330 yards. Testaverde hit wide receiver Mark Carrier on a 21-yard scoring toss to cut the lead to two late in the fourth quarter, but the Bucs could pull no closer. Carrier totaled 110 yards on six catches.

Sunday Night, 12/6/92 (ESPN) – Los Angeles Rams 31, Tampa Bay 27: The Los Angeles Rams erased a 24-point halftime deficit to stun the Bucs 31-27 before 38,387 at Tampa Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 27-3 lead, thanks to two touchdown passes from Vinny Testaverde and a 26-yard fumble return on a kickoff by cornerback Roger Jones. But the Rams scored three touchdowns in an eight-minute span of the third quarter to close the gap to 27-24. Quarterback Jim Everett then hit tight end Pat Carter on an eight-yard scoring toss with six minutes left to cap the comeback.

Sunday Night, 11/21/93 (ESPN) – Tampa Bay 23, Minnesota 10: Bucs running back Vince Workman keyed a workman-like dismantling of Minnesota as Tampa Bay rolled to a 23-10 victory before 40,848 at Tampa Stadium. Workman rushed for 58 yards and one touchdown, adding seven catches for 65 yards in his first career start. The Vikings led 7-6 at halftime before cornerback Milton Mack returned a Sean Salisbury pass 27 yards for his first career touchdown. Workman sealed the win with a one-yard scoring plunge in the fourth quarter. The Bucs' offense did not commit a turnover for the first time all season, while the defense turned in its best effort of 1993, limiting Minnesota to 235 total yards.

Sunday Night, 11/13/94 (ESPN) – Detroit 14, Tampa Bay 9: Detroit running back Barry Sanders rushed for 237 yards, leading the Lions to a 14-9 win over the Bucs before 50,814 at the Silverdome. Tampa Bay marched to the Lions' one-yard line twice in the first half but could only muster a 3-0 halftime lead. Detroit regrouped in the second half as Sanders careened for 200 yards after the intermission. Michael Husted's third field goal cut the margin to five points in the fourth quarter, but Sanders sealed the win with a 48-yarder late in the game, enabling Detroit to run out the clock.

Sunday Night, 12/10/95 (ESPN) – Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10 (OT): Michael Husted nailed a 47-yard field goal 2:46 into overtime, vaulting the Bucs to a pulsating 13-10 win over the Green Bay Packers before 67,557 at Tampa Stadium. Earlier, Husted had tied the game at 10 with a 38-yard field goal. The Packers had a chance to win with eight seconds remaining in regulation, but Chris Jacke missed a 45-yarder wide left. Wide receiver Horace Copeland caught a career-high eight passes for 122 yards, including a 23-yarder that led to the Bucs' lone touchdown, a one-yard plunge by running back Jerry Ellison.

Sunday Night, 9/15/96 (TNT) – Denver 27, Tampa Bay 23: Denver quarterback John Elway engineered another of his patented fourth-quarter comebacks, rallying the Broncos past the Bucs 27-23 before 71,535 at Mile High Stadium. Elway directed a 14-play, 80-yard march, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by Terrell Davis with 3:32 remaining. Earlier, Michael Husted had given the Bucs a 23-20 lead on a 28-yard field goal, set up by Derrick Brooks' first career interception. Tampa Bay running back Reggie Brooks ran for 114 yards, while tight end Jackie Harris paced the Bucs receiving corps with five catches for 96 yards.

Sunday Night, 9/21/97 (TNT) – Tampa Bay 31, Miami 21: The Bucs ran their record to 4-0 with an electrifying 31-21 win over Miami before 73,314 at Houlihan's Stadium. Tampa Bay rang up 357 yards on the Dolphins' defense while holding Miami to just 48 yards on the ground. Rookie running back Warrick Dunn – fresh off two straight 100-yard rushing outings – caught six passes for 106 yards, including a 58-yard touchdown catch. Meanwhile, fullback Mike Alstott rushed for 95 yards and caught two short scoring tosses from Trent Dilfer in the first half. Dilfer outdueled Miami's Dan Marino, completing 18 of 24 passes for 248 yards and a career-high four touchdowns.

Monday Night, 9/28/98 (ABC) – Detroit 27, Tampa Bay 6: Detroit made the Bucs' first Monday Night appearance in 15 years a sobering one, racing past Tampa Bay 27-6 before 74,724 at the Silverdome. Despite being doubled in total yardage (170-85) in the first half, Tampa Bay trailed just 6-3 as the third quarter opened. Bryant Westbrook then intercepted a Trent Dilfer pass and raced 34 yards for a score to give Detroit a 13-3 lead. Quarterback Charlie Batch added a one-yard scoring run before Michael Husted's 47-yard field goal closed the gap to 20-6. Cornerback Terry Fair returned the ensuing kickoff 105 yards for a touchdown to ice the contest.

Sunday Night, 11/8/98 (ESPN) – Tennessee 31, Tampa Bay 22: Quarterback Steve McNair raced 71 yards for a touchdown with 1:46 left, squelching a Bucs comeback and lifting Tennessee to a 31-22 win over Tampa Bay before 65,054 at Raymond James Stadium. Trent Dilfer connected with wide receiver Reidel Anthony on a 10-yard scoring strike to pull the Bucs within 24-22, but misfired on the subsequent two-point conversion. Tampa Bay pressed the Oilers into a third-and-eight at their own 29 before McNair scampered to the end zone. The Bucs jumped out to a 16-3 halftime lead, but Tennessee stormed back behind running back Eddie George, who totaled 134 rushing yards.

Monday Night, 12/7/98 (ABC) – Tampa Bay 24, Green Bay 22: The Bucs ended a string of futility against Green Bay in style, beating the defending NFC champions 24-22 before 65,497 at Raymond James Stadium. Quarterback Trent Dilfer connected on two long scoring strikes in the first half – a 64-yarder to Jacquez Green and a 62-yarder to Bert Emanuel – to give the Bucs a 14-6 halftime lead. Meanwhile, Tampa Bay's defense was suffocating, sacking quarterback Brett Favre eight times and forcing a team-record eight fumbles, recovering two. The Packers clawed to within two points with 2:20 remaining, but the Bucs then ran all but 24 seconds off the clock. Defensive tackle Brad Culpepper and Warren Sapp capped the sack parade by downing Favre on the last play of the game.

Sunday Night, 10/10/99 (ESPN) – Green Bay 26, Tampa Bay 23: QB Brett Favre hit WR Antonio Freeman on a 21-yard touchdown pass with 1:05 left, capping a wild fourth quarter and lifting the Packers to a 26-23 win over Tampa Bay before 59,868 at Lambeau Field. The Bucs fell behind 10-0 early, but rallied to take a 13-10 lead on a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Trent Dilfer to RB Warrick Dunn and two field goals by Martin Gramatica. Ryan Longwell booted a 49-yarder to tie the score at the half. After the team traded field goals, Longwell hit from 43 yards to give Green Bay a 19-16 lead. But FB Mike Alstott scored on a 22-yard rumble with 1:45 remaining, giving the Bucs a 23-19 lead. Favre wasn't done, however, ushering Green Bay to the winning score in just 40 seconds. He threw for 390 yards on the night, the most ever against Tampa Bay in regulation.

Sunday Night, 10/31/99 (ESPN) – Detroit 20, Tampa Bay 3: For the second consecutive week, Tampa Bay's offense could not reach the end zone, resulting in a 20-3 loss to Detroit before 63,135 at the Silverdome. The Bucs rolled up 292 yards of total offense, besting the Lions by 36 yards. But one Tampa Bay fumble led to a Lions TD, while the other miscue prevented a seemingly certain Bucs TD. The team traded field goals before Detroit pinned the Bucs back at their goal line, forced an errant punt and took over at the Tampa Bay 36. Greg Hill's 27-yard scamper set up Sedrick Irvin for a two-yard TD run, lifting Detroit to a 10-3 lead. Two plays into the second half, it was 17-3. LB Chris Claiborne nailed QB Eric Zeier, forcing a fumble that LB Allen Aldridge returned 21 yards for a score. Hanson booted a late field goal to make it 20-3.

Monday Night, 12/6/99 (ABC) – Tampa Bay 24, Minnesota 17: The Bucs coupled a big-play defensive effort with some timely offense to rally for a 24-17 win over Minnesota before 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out on top on the third play of the game. CB Donnie Abraham blitzed from the left side, timed his jump perfectly and picked off a Jeff George pass. He raced 55 yards for a TD to give Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead. Martin Gramatica hit a 20-yard FG to push the lead to 10-0. But the Bucs coughed the ball up twice in the second quarter, leading to two Vikings touchdowns. Tampa Bay answered midway through the third quarter, when QB Shaun King – making his first NFL start — hit WR Jacquez Green on a 29-yard scoring strike. After Minnesota muffed a punt, King found TE Dave Moore in the back of the end zone on a one-yard toss, giving Tampa Bay a 24-14 lead. Gary Anderson pulled Minnesota within seven points on a 34-yard FG, then George mounted one final charge. But a 4th and 19 pass from the Bucs 34 fell incomplete.

Monday Night, 10/9/00 (ABC) – Minnesota 30, Tampa Bay 23: For the second time in its last three games, Tampa Bay lost a fourth quarter lead as Minnesota rallied for a 30-23 victory before 64,162 at the Metrodome. The Bucs, who trailed for most of the game, took their first lead with 12:13 remaining in the game when CB Donnie Abraham returned a blocked field goal attempt 53 yards for a 23-20 Bucs lead. The block by DT Warren Sapp, his second in the last two weeks, gave Tampa Bay its first touchdown on a return of a blocked field goal since 1978. But the Vikings regained the lead on a 42-yard scoring pass from QB Daunte Culpepper to WR Randy Moss and then extended the edge to seven on a Gary Anderson field goal with 59 seconds left in the game. Tampa Bay reached the Viking 43-yard line, but QB Shaun King's "Hail Mary" pass on the final play of regulation fell incomplete in the end zone.

Thursday Night, 10/19/00 (ESPN) – Detroit 28, Tampa Bay 14: For the first time since 1996, Tampa Bay lost its fourth straight game as Detroit came back for a 28-14 victory before 65,557 fans at Raymond James Stadium. The Lions, who had trailed for most of the first half, scored 14 points in the final quarter on two short touchdown runs by James Stewart after K Martin Gramatica had tied the game at 14-14 with a career-long 55-yard FG. Gramatica, who tied his single-game mark with four field goals, connected on his first two and the Bucs added a safety after a blocked punt by LB Nate Webster for an 8-0 lead early in the second period. The two teams traded field goals, but Detroit evened the game at 11-11 just before the half on the first of Stewart's three TDs. Gramatica and Lions K Jason Hanson swapped field goals again after the break before Detroit took control in the final 13 minutes. DE Marcus Jones set a club record with four sacks and added a blocked field goal as the Bucs totaled seven quarterback sacks.

Monday Night, 12/18/00 (ABC) – Tampa Bay 38, St. Louis 35: RB Warrick Dunn scored his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallied for a 38-35 win over St. Louis at Raymond James Stadium. After the Rams had stormed back from a 10-point deficit to grab a 35-31 lead, QB Shaun King drove the Bucs 80 yards on 13 plays for the game-winning score on a one-yard run by Dunn. S John Lynch sealed the victory with an interception of Rams QB Kurt Warner, his third of the game, with less than 30 seconds remaining. In a game that featured seven lead changes, Tampa Bay grabbed a 24-14 halftime lead, thanks to a two-yard score by Dunn and two scoring strikes from King to WR Keyshawn Johnson. Rams RB Marshall Faulk, who scored four touchdowns on the night, accounted for St. Louis first-half points with two rushing TDs. Faulk added a TD reception following the break to cut the lead to three, but Dunn broke free for a 52-yard run to extend the edge to 31-21 and eclipse the 1,000-yard mark for the season. But the Rams responded with 14 straight points on Faulk's third rushing TD and a 72-yard score from Warner to WR Torry Holt. The Rams defense then stopped Tampa Bay on downs, but the Bucs defense responded by forcing the Rams to punt with 2:22 left in the game, setting up the game-winning drive. Dunn tied a team single-game record with three rushing touchdowns and the Bucs offense gained a season-high 446 yards.

Buccaneer Playoff History

1979 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17

TAMPA STADIUM, DECEMBER 29, 1979

The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settle for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

L.A. RAMS 9, TAMPA BAY 0

TAMPA STADIUM, JANUARY 6, 1980

In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charle Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was interception in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

1981 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DALLAS 38, TAMPA BAY 0

TEXAS STADIUM, JANUARY 2, 1982

The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME
DALLAS 30, TAMPA BAY 17

TEXAS STADIUM, JANUARY 9, 1983

For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dextor Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from midfield when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 20, DETROIT 10

HOULIHAN'S STADIUM, DECEMBER 28, 1997

In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lion RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies — RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards — the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

1997 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME
GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7
LAMBEAU FIELD, JANUARY 4, 1998

The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay actually had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

1999 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

TAMPA BAY 14, WASHINGTON 13

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM, JANUARY 15, 2000

The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

1999 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6

TRANS WORLD DOME, JANUARY 23, 2000

Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

2000 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

PHILADELPHIA 21 TAMPA BAY 3

VETERANS STADIUM, DECEMBER 31, 2000

Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

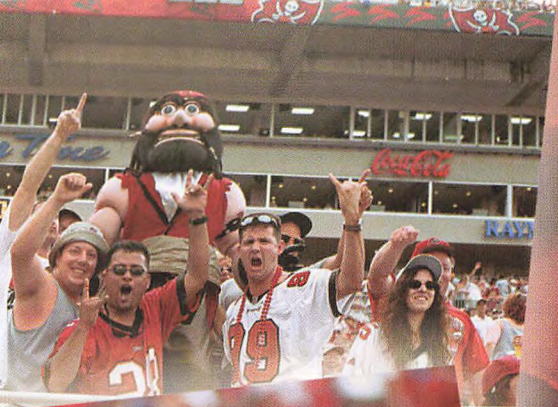
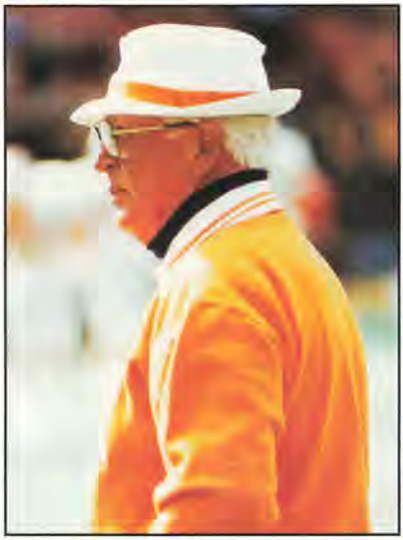
SIDELINES



John McKay
1923-2001



John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10 from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. With his passing, the Buccaneer family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning. He turned around the fortunes of a team that lost its first 26 games, taking it to the postseason three times.

McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Tampa Bay Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the lone Hall of Famer in Buccaneer history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

He also guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over the New Orleans Saints on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the 1985 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760) at USC. McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). McKay produced outstanding players at nearly every position at USC, including RB Ricky Bell, FB Sam Cunningham, QB Pat Haden, WR Lynn Swann, LB Richard Wood, OT Ron Yary and TE Charles Young. During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant coach at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959.

McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue (1946) before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered the following three seasons. He still holds the Ducks record for yards per carry (6.4 avg.). McKay led the Ducks in scoring in 1948 while earning All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II.

McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettsville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife Corky (the former Nancy Jean Hunter) celebrated their 50th anniversary on June 19, 2000. The couple had four children, sons John and Rich and daughters Michele and Terri. Rich has been general manager of the Buccaneers since 1994, while John served as the general manager of the XFL's Champion Los Angeles Xtreme last season and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78. McKay also leaves behind 10 grandchildren.

Lee Roy Selmon

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneer player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1995. The Buccaneers' first draft choice in 1976, Selmon proved to be the most outstanding player to date in team history. Drafted out of Oklahoma where he won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season, Selmon went on to become the cornerstone of the Buccaneer franchise for nearly a decade.

A member of eight All-America teams while with the Sooners, Selmon was an even greater professional. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), Selmon anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. His lengthy list of Buccaneer records include: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13), career fumbles caused (28.5) and Pro Bowl selections (six). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986.

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equalled only by his generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Since his retirement, Selmon has remained highly-visible in community affairs.In addition to occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority, Selmon has taken on the responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF since August of 1994 before being named Athletic Director this past June. Selmon was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

Selmon was born and raised in Eufaula, Okla. He has five brothers and three sisters, including Dewey, who played for the Bucs from 1976-80, and Lucious, who is currently the outside linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Lee Roy and his wife, Claybra, have three children, Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr., a sophomore on the USF football team, and Christopher.

Raymond James Stadium

A new era in Tampa Bay sports opened on September 20, 1998, when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Chicago Bears, 27-15, in the inaugural event at Raymond James Stadium. The culmination of three years of intense research, development and construction, Raymond James Stadium is a combination of the finest elements of modern stadium design and its own groundbreaking innovations. Referred to as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL' by league insiders, the stadium's features are centered around one concept: enhancing the fan's experience at a Tampa Bay Buccaneers game.

Raymond James Stadium was designed by HOK Sports Facilities Group and constructed under the joint management of Huber, Hunt & Nichols and Metric Constructors. It is administered by the Tampa Sports Authority and includes among its tenants the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League, the Tampa Bay Mutiny of Major League Soccer and the University of South Florida football team.

The $168.5 million facility was financed by a half-cent sales tax for community investment purposes that was approved by voters on September 3, 1996. A Florida sales tax rebate also funded the stadium construction, as did a portion of a tourist development tax. The remainder of the stadium's finances were provided by Buccaneers Owner/ President Malcolm Glazer. Bryan Glazer and Joel Glazer, team executive vice presidents, oversaw stadium design and were responsible for the development of the stadium's unique fan enhancements. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers hope you enjoy Raymond James Stadium throughout the 2001 NFL season and share in the bright future of the team, the stadium and the Tampa Bay community.

Ticket Information

For the second consecutive year, the Buccaneers have sold out Raymond James Stadium to season ticket holders. The Buccaneers Ticket Office is adding names to their season ticket waiting list, which currently has over 20,000 requests. The ticket office may be reached by phone at (813) 879-2827 or (800) 282-0683, over a TTY line for hearing-impaired guests, and via e-mail at TicketOffice@buccaneers.nfl.com. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Buccaneers single-game tickets can be found in four price ranges, as shown by the accompanying stadium diagram. Raymond James Stadium is currently sold out through season ticket sales and most sections are not available on a game-by-game basis.

Should any single game tickets become available, they may be purchased through TicketMaster outlets, TicketMaster charge-by-phone, and online at TicketMaster.com. If tickets remain available on game day, they will be sold at the Raymond James Stadium box office at the south end of the stadium beginning three hours before kickoff.

Amenities At Raymond James Stadium

General Seating. After 22 years of watching Buccaneer football from bench seating, Tampa Bay fans now comfortably settle into individual seats, measuring 19-21" wide and with 32-33" from one seat back to the next. Overall, Raymond James Stadium holds over 65,000 fans, 50,000 of which are in general seating. There are up to 650 wheelchair-accessible seats located in all areas, not just the end zone. Seats in all sections also feature cupholders.

Club Seats. Raymond James Stadium also has over 12,000 club seats, a modern feature that allows fans to experience Buccaneer games and entertain guests in maximum comfort. Club seats are extra-wide and padded and feature waiter service and prime sideline locations. The seats are accessible from a luxurious, air-conditioned club level that houses restaurants, sports bars, video walls, lounge seating and additional views of the field.

Luxury Suites. A total of 195 suites on three floors at mid-level along both sidelines offer absolutely the most luxurious setting to watch a Buccaneer game. Each suite has retractable glass windows, private bar and restroom and televisions that can carry other NFL action. The suites are accessible from private elevators.

Concessions. Raymond James Stadium has over 600 points of sale for food, beverages and merchandise, a ratio of one point for every 103 seats. A wide variety of concessions will be available, from hot dogs and sodas to gourmet pizzas and cappuccino.

Restrooms/Services. Raymond James Stadium is equipped with 60 restroom locations and a total of 972 fixtures. That ratio of one fixture for every 81 fans is an immense improvement in comfort for Buccaneer fans. The ratio for women fans is one fixture for every 70 people, improved from 1 for every 129 in Houlihan's Stadium. There are also five first aid stations, with at least one on each level.

Media Facilities. The Raymond James Stadium press box seats up to 225 members of the media in a spacious, comfortable box on the west side upper suite level. A dining area featuring a multiple-screen video wall has been added, and the box is accessible from an elevator dedicated specifically to the media. The media entrance is located at Dock D on the southwest corner of the stadium.

Escalators. An added comfort feature in Raymond James Stadium is a total of 20 escalators. With a bank of four escalators located at each corner ramp and an additional four in the club lounge, Buccaneer fans will find it easier and quicker to navigate the stadium than ever before.

Traffic Control. Patrons of events at Raymond James Stadium can be assured that their travel to and from the facility will be as time-efficient as possible. The stadium is outfitted with a comprehensive traffic control system that automatically assists with the progression of traffic in and around the stadium traffic area. The system is comprised of a traffic control center located adjacent to the Tampa Sports Authority offices on the ground level of the south end zone plaza. From there, a crew of over 50 uniformed officers will assist in easing traffic flow. In addition, the system is equipped with 10 cameras and a staff of four constantly monitoring each major intersection surrounding the stadium and altering traffic light cycles accordingly.

Raymond James Stadium

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that combine to create the most exciting and enjoyable game atmosphere in the National Football League. Some of the most extraordinary features include:

Buccaneer Cove

In an effort to expand and enhance the overall game experience at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers constructed a $3 million pirate ship extravaganza called Buccaneer Cove. Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village façade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions and other game enhancements.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the majestic, 103-foot-long ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s pirate ship, arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the pirate ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate Buccaneer touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire, smoke, mini-footballs and a variety of Buc merchandise into the stands. The ship will also be complete with working rigging and a crew to raise and lower its huge 32'x50' sails.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic ship looms out over the the crowd in the north end zone.

- Ship Length .....103'
- Ship Weight .....43 tons
- Ship Height .....78'
- Bow Detail .....9'x7'
- Ship Width .....32'
- Swords.....16' each

The ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tones of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

The ship's dock serves as an interactive entertainment area from which patrons enjoy the most unique vantage point in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the ship's stern.

Raymond James Stadium

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccaneer Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Buccaneer Cove was designed by HOK Studio E and constructed by The Nassal Company.

BucVision

BucVision, which features two massive videoboards at each end of Raymond James Stadium, is arguably the most sophisticated video and scoreboard system in the NFL.

The main attraction of BucVision is the sheer size of the two videoboards, each measuring 24 feet high by 92 feet wide, which is significantly larger than conventional NFL scoring systems.

BucVision is not only larger, it is more technologically advanced. In addition to viewing plays from three different angles at each end of the field, fans are also treated to highlights from up to six games simultaneously from around the NFL before and after Buccaneer games, essentially transforming Raymond James Stadium into the world's largest sports bar.

Operated by more than 30 technicians, BucVision allows Tampa Bay to become the first professional team in any sport to show images through high-definition television (HDTV), the wide-screen television images which are revolutionizing the television industry. In addition to showing the network feeds, the system incorporates five in-house cameras that capture the festive atmosphere of Raymond James Stadium patrons.

The system also contains a crystal-clear sound system which enhances the gameday experience for general fans, club seat holders, and luxury suite patrons.

Who Is Raymond James?

There are those who claim to have met him... which is odd, because no one by the name of Raymond James exists. Never did. It's simply a combination of two names, Robert James, who founded the firm in 1962, and Edward Raymond, who sold his firm to Bob James in 1964. The James family is still very much a part of Raymond James. Bob's son, Tom, is the CEO and his two sons, Hunt and Court, are actively involved with the firm.

And although no one really knows a person by the name of Raymond James, the firm itself is very well known for:

- Being the fourth largest U.S. investment firm with more than 1,900 offices.
- Having one of the top-rated equity research teams in the country.
- Being one of the largest employers in the Tampa Bay community.
- Having the distinction of being the only brokerage firm in the nation to buy the naming rights to an NFL stadium.

Through its three investment firms, Raymond James & Associates, Raymond James Financial Services and Raymond James Ltd., the firm is located in all 50 states of the United States, in Canada and in eight countries overseas.

Raymond James has its international headquarters in the Feather Sound area of St. Petersburg, Florida, just off Ulmerton Road. Over the last 39 years, the firm has built an international reputation as a leader in investment and financial planning for individuals, corporations and municipalities.

Raymond James Financial is a highly diversified, financial services firm with its own insurance company, bank, trust companies, merchant banking company and asset management subsidiaries.

Nearly 3,000 Associates are employed at the firm's international headquarters in St. Petersburg and more than 10,000 are affiliated with the firm worldwide. Raymond James has international offices in Argentina, Belgium, Canada, England, France, Germany, India, Switzerland and Turkey.

And it's growing every day. The firm recently acquired Goepel McDermid, one of Canada's largest independent broker/dealers. In January 2001, Goepel McDermid became Raymond James Ltd., Raymond James Financial's third wholly-owned broker/dealer subsidiary.

But being first is nothing new to Raymond James.

In 1998, when Raymond James decided to buy the naming rights to Tampa's new community stadium, it became the first investment firm in the United States to make such a bold move.

Raymond James is widely known as a firm of firsts. In addition to being one of the first firms to offer financial planning, it was among the first to affiliate an insurance agency in support of its financial planning process. It also became one of the first to offer clients the alternative of wrap-fee accounts and the first to provide

Thomas A. James, CEO

The Raymond James Financial Center, the firm's sprawling headquarters complex, is situated on 45 acres in northeast St. Petersburg, right in the heart of the Tampa Bay area. Three fourth-story bridges connect the three towers. The bridge between Towers 2 and 3 is 320 feet long, making it one of the longest in Florida and a landmark in the area. The Financial Center houses Tom James' personal art collection, the largest privately owned collection in the Southeast, and is surrounded by beautiful landscaping comprised entirely of plants and trees indigenous to Florida.

investors with a "Client Bill of Rights," a detailed explanation of an investor's rights and responsibilities.

In 1998, Raymond James achieved another first when it became the only firm to offer investors exclusive mutual fund research with specific recommendations (highly recommended/hold-under review or not recommended) on load and no-load mutual funds and sectors.

Raymond James is also one of the industry's front runners in financial services technology, offering clients a full array on online services including account access and online trading in alliance with his or her personal Financial Advisor.

Service makes Raymond James special

A key factor in the firm's success is its unswerving commitment to clients, embodied in a philosophy we call "Service 1st." Bob James, whose concern for people and their financial well being was legendary, set this extraordinary standard for client service. The firm's commitment to service has only grown more resolute over the years as Tom has continued to stress his father's allegiance to client service.

The firm is also distinguished for its support of the communities in which we live and work. In Tampa Bay alone, Raymond James is perennially one of the largest contributors to the United Way, sponsors major art events such as the Gasparilla Festival of the Arts, supports the Florida Orchestra, contributes to several important museums and assists many Tampa Bay educational institutions. Raymond James also encourages its Associates around the world to participate enthusiastically in worthwhile volunteer activities that enrich their communities.

Work, work, play environment

It's commonly known in the Tampa Bay area that people who choose to work for Raymond James remain with the firm. Many Associates have celebrated and surpassed their 20-, 25-, even 30-year anniversaries with the 39-year-old firm.

Raymond James works hard to find employees who meet the firm's standards in terms of knowledge, aptitude, energy and service orientation. And, once those employees are on board, Raymond James works even harder to ensure that they stay with the company.

While the turnover rate is low, the firm's growth rate is tremendous. At any time, there are 150-170 openings at the international headquarters. On average, the firm receives 20,000 applications a year and conducts nearly 4,000 interviews. Not surprisingly, a large percentage of new hires spring from Associate referrals.

Raymond James' state-of-the-art trading floor sits atop miles of computer, phone and TV cabling under the floor. Wall-mounted monitors keep traders constantly apprised of breaking developments in the markets.

Three key factors figure into the high employee retention rate at Raymond James. They are the firm's distinctive "work, work, play" environment, its flexibility with regard to work schedules and dress, and the educational opportunities the firm offers. In addition to its own on-site "university," Associates are encouraged to continue advancing their educations by way of a generous tuition reimbursement program.

A Sight to Behold, the Raymond James Art Collection

Another benefit enjoyed by Associates at Raymond James is the opportunity to enjoy magnificent art on every floor of every tower at the Raymond James Financial Center. Tom James personal art collection is one of the largest private collections in the Southeast and runs the gamut from Wall Street paintings by Leroy Neiman to stunning outdoor Indian bronzes by Dave McGary. The collection is maintained by a full-time art curator who supervises Associate, client and community tours on a regular basis.

For the second year in a row, the firm sponsored "Wildlife Reflections," a one-of-a-kind art show and sale featuring paintings and sculptures from nationally and internationally acclaimed wildlife artists. The show was held at our headquarters in St. Petersburg and was open to the public. The event featured 14 nationally and internationally recognized artists and more than 300 works of art — including paintings, bronzes and prints — were displayed.

It may seem like a stretch for a firm that specializes in investment and financial planning and is noted for its art and community involvement to partner with the hard-hitting star of the National Football League, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. But it's proven to be a good match.

Finances and Football – An Intelligent Mix

Tom believes that the national exposure of having the firm's name associated with one of the NFL's finest sports facilities will pay big dividends in building brand identity beyond the boundaries of Florida.

The partnership between the Buccaneers and Raymond James has proven to be a good one. Several Buccaneers have interned at Raymond James to learn more about the corporate world and hone their business skills and more internships are planned.

Derrick Brooks kicked off Raymond James' 1999 United Way Campaign and the firm has had the pleasure of hosting several other players and cheerleaders at special events. The Raymond James Financial Center also served as host for numerous Bucs/WQYK pep rallies last year, with more planned for this season.

Currently, Raymond James is working with Bucs' Kicker Martin Gramatica on a special program designed to benefit children's hospitals in the Tampa Bay area and in other NFL cities in which the Bucs play.

According to Tom, "We're proud to have our firm's name associated with the Buccaneers and we look forward to growing that partnership by having our two teams work together to improve the community of Tampa Bay."

Bucs In the Community

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers owners, players, coaches and staff members support a variety of community programs. During the 2000 football season, members from all areas of the Buccaneers organization donated significant amounts of time and funding to established charities, and several created their own philanthropic programs. The following is just a sample of the many community programs the Buccaneers have supported over the past year:

• Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks accompanied 25 members from the Ybor City and Ponce De Leon Boys & Girls Clubs on a tour of the western United States as part of the "Brooks' Bunch - Wild, Wild West" program. In order to qualify for a spot on the trip, Boys & Girls Club members participated in classes that focused on such topics as the War of 1812, Lewis and Clark, Indian resettlement, the railroad system, the Gold Rush and the Buffalo Soldiers. Participants were required to complete a variety of assignments that tested their knowledge of the Western settlement, and students who earned high grades on their assignments and exhibited good behavior in the classes made the trip with Brooks. The Wild, Wild West tour included stops at the Grand Canyon, Hoover Dam and the Golden Gate Bridge. Other Brooks' Bunch trips have included tours of South Africa, Washington, D.C., Atlanta and Ft. Lauderdale.

Twenty-two single moms and their 66 kids have been able to move into new homes with help from Pro Bowl RB Warrick Dunn's "Homes for the Holidays" program.

• Over the years, Pro Bowl RB Warrick Dunn has helped 22 single-mothers become first-time homeowners through his annual "Homes for the Holidays" program. In 2000, Dunn made the down payments on new homes for three Baton Rouge, Louisiana families two days before Thanksgiving, and did the same for three single-mother families in the Tampa Bay area two weeks before Christmas. Dunn worked with local businesses to fill each house with such necessities as furniture for every room, washer and dryer, kitchen appliances, lawn mowers, dishes and food.

• During his fourth annual "Circle of Friends — Winter Week," OT Jerry Wunsch accompanied a group of pediatric cancer patients on a five-day ski trip to his hometown of Wausau, Wisconsin. Wunsch partnered with St. Louis Rams DE Grant Wistrom to host the trip, and the two brought together 30 young cancer patients from Tampa's Children's Cancer Center and from similar centers in St. Louis, Atlanta and Wisconsin. The Circle of Friends enjoyed cross-country and downhill skiing, dog sled and snowmobile rides and a sleigh ride through the country.

• During the 2000 off-season Pro Bowl S John Lynch and his wife, Linda formed the John Lynch Foundation, a non-profit organization that benefits children in the Tampa Bay area and the Lynches' hometown of San Diego, California. Through the Foundation, the Lynches have strengthened their existing charitable programs, including the John Lynch Salute the Stars and the Lynch Family Legacy Scholarship programs, both of which recognize student-athletes for their academic and community service work. They also continue to work closely with Boys & Girls Clubs in both the Tampa Bay and San Diego communities and are in the process of creating new programs.

• Pro Bowl CB Donnie Abraham was the official spokesperson for Tampa Children's Hospital's "Kids Are Heroes," a program that recognizes Bay area students who have demonstrated heroic and unselfish acts. Kids receive nominations from teachers, guidance counselors, parents or other relatives, and a panel of judges consisting of Tampa Children's Hospital patients selects the Kids Are Heroes award winners. Donnie and his wife, Tunisia, helped young judges determine award finalists during a pizza party at the hospital and they presented the awards at the annual Kids Are Heroes banquet. Additionally, the Abrahams hosted the Kids Are Heroes winners at the Buccaneers' home game against Buffalo as part of the "Abraham's Cover Zone" ticket program.

• Quarterback Shaun King sponsored "King's Dream," an education-based program that involved teaching middle school students about civil rights. Twenty students attended a series of 12 classes at Academy Prep Center for Education, where they were required to perform various research and writing assignments on topics such as the United States Civil Rights Movement, colonialism, slavery and the Civil War. The students also learned about civil rights struggles around the world and discussed the Holocaust and the controversies in such areas as Bosnia and Northern Ireland. The King's Dream program concluded in April of 2001 with an educational trip through the South, including stops in Atlanta, Birmingham and Montgomery.

• Several Buccaneers, including Pro Bowl K Martin Gramatica, LB Jamie Duncan, C/G Todd Washington, G Cosey Coleman, TE Todd Yoder and TE Blake Spence spent Halloween at the Children's Home, a residence for children ages 5 — 18 who have backgrounds of severe abuse, neglect and abandonment. The Buccaneers carved pumpkins and decorated trick-or-treat bags with kids who live at the Children's Home.

• Pro Bowl center Jeff Christy created the "Brookwood Birthdays" program for the young girls who reside at Brookwood, a licensed therapeutic group home for adolescent girls who are victims of abuse, neglect or violence. Through the program, he and his wife, Kris send a birthday card, personalized birthday cake and a Target gift certificate to every Brookwood girl on her birthday. He also invites the Brookwood girls to Buccaneers home games through his "Christy's Corner" ticket program.

• Pro Bowl K Martin Gramatica continued his relationship with Shriners Hospitals for Children by visiting young patients at the facility located on the University of South Florida campus. During his visits to the hospital he worked on arts and crafts projects with the kids, signed autographs and posed for photos.

Quarterback Shaun King visits the Alabama Department of Archives and History during his "King's Dream" trip.

• Several Buccaneers donated to Bay area charities by sponsoring on-field-incentive programs. Pro Bowl K Martin Gramatica sponsored "Kicking for Kids" in conjunction with Raymond James Financial. For every field goal Martin kicked, Raymond James Financial donated $500 to various children's hospitals. For each Buccaneers touchdown made in Raymond James Stadium, Buccaneers general manager Rich McKay and his wife, Terrin, donated $200 to the Children's Home of Tampa Bay. For each touchdown he made, Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott contributed money to the Mike Alstott Fund, which benefits various Bay area children's charities. Through his "Tackles for Tampa" program, Pro Bowl S John Lynch pledged funds to the John Lynch Foundation based on the number of tackles, interceptions and sacks he made.

• Receiver Keyshawn Johnson celebrated Thanksgiving with some of Tampa's underprivileged families by giving away 400 turkeys to families who receive assistance from the Tampa Housing Authority and the Tampa-Hillsborough Urban League. Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks distributed Thanksgiving dinners to families whose children attend the Ponce de Leon and Ybor City Boys & Girls Clubs.

• Several Buccaneers players stuffed Thanksgiving food baskets at the Metropolitan Ministries holiday food tent. Players who participated in the annual event included Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel and his wife, Marianne, Pro Bowl K Martin Gramatica, LB Shelton Quarles, RB Rabih Abdullah, DE John McLaughlin, P Mark Royals, S David Gibson, TE Todd Yoder, C/G Todd Washington, S Eric Vance and DT James Cannida.

• Several players celebrated the Christmas season with area children and families. For the fourth consecutive year, Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott and TE Dave Moore visited kids who reside at the Joshua House, a home for abandoned, abused and neglected children. Quarterback Shaun King celebrated Christmas with families whose children attend the Childs Park Recreation Center in St. Petersburg by providing them with holiday food baskets and Christmas trees. DT James Cannida distributed holiday food baskets to families in need during the 11th Annual Project H Christmas Food Basket Giveaway. Pro Bowl CB Donnie Abraham distributed 20 Nintendo machines and 20 new Nintendo games to the individual rooms and the new cancer wing of Tampa Children's Hospital at St. Joseph's, and also supplied several items such as portable stereos, stuffed animals and games to the hospital's play areas. During his annual Christmas party, Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks distributed Nike tennis shoes and gifts to the most needy members of the Ponce De Leon and Ybor City Boys and Girls Clubs. Pro Bowl C Jeff Christy delivered Christmas stockings to abused, abandoned and neglected youth who reside at The Children's Home and Brookwood, a young women's residence. Pro Bowl S John Lynch and his wife Linda, hosted their fourth annual Christmas party for Hillsborough and Pinellas County Boys & Girls Club members where they distributed gifts such as clothing, shoes and toys to children in need. Receiver Keyshawn Johnson hosted a Christmas party for 240 inner city kids where he shared lunch with the children, hosted a Q&A session and distributed Buccaneers prizes.

• Linebacker Shelton Quarles served as Tampa's official spokesperson for the American Heart Walk. Quarles was the featured speaker at the American Heart Association's Leadership Breakfast/Team Captain Kickoff. He also appeared in an American Heart Walk public service announcement and helped promote the Walk to the Tampa Bay community via radio and television interviews.

• The Buccaneers launched the NFL/Buccaneers Community Quarterback Award, a national program that recognizes volunteers in the 31 NFL markets who demonstrate leadership, dedication and a commitment to bettering the community in which they live. The Buccaneers and NFL Charities made grants in the name of the winners to the non-profit organizations where they serve. Ten finalists received $1,000 grants, two runners-up received $2,500 grants, and one overall winner received $10,000. The Buccaneers' overall winner, Laura Lockwood, was the winner of the national NFL Community Quarterback Award and received a donation of $25,000 from NFL Charities the week before the Super Bowl.

• The Buccaneers selected the second Student Advisory Board, an all-student committee that brings together high school students to perform marketing and community service projects and develop their leadership skills in preparation for continuing their education. Student Advisory Board members are responsible for working on community service projects and developing creative techniques to promote Buccaneer spirit at their high schools.

• The Buccaneer Women's Organization, a charitable group formed by the wives, fiancées and girlfriends of several Buccaneer players and coaches, hosted a Fall Festival for area children's charities. The event took place at Raymond James Stadium and involved approximately 80 children from Redlands Christian Migrant Association, Edgewood Children's Ranch and the Big Brothers/Big Sisters waiting list. At the festival, kids enjoyed arts and crafts, games, face painting, food and Buccaneers prizes. They also participated in the Buccaneers Gatorade Junior Training Camp, a mini football clinic that gave them the opportunity to execute several football and agility drills.

• The Buccaneers hosted the annual Bank of America FanFest, an event that gave fans the opportunity to meet and receive autographs from players and coaches. Fans also had the opportunity to participate in interactive games and attractions on the field, a question and answer session with Buccaneers head coach Tony Dungy and his coaching staff, and photo opportunities with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders and mascot.

• The Buccaneers hosted an NFL-high number of charitable groups and school children at every home game as part of the game day ticket program. Buccaneers who hosted groups were Owner/President Malcolm Glazer, Head Coach Tony Dungy, WR Karl Williams, WR Jacquez Green, WR Reidel Anthony, DT Anthony McFarland, QB Shaun King, Pro Bowl C Jeff Christy, WR Keyshawn Johnson, Pro Bowl S John Lynch, Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks, Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott, T Jerry Wunsch, TE Dave Moore, P Mark Royals, Pro Bowl CB Donnie Abraham and the Buccaneers Secondary.

• The Buccaneers were a Finish Line sponsor of the Susan G. Komen Tampa Bay Race for the Cure, a local component of the national event designed to raise funds for breast cancer education, screening and treatment programs. Lauren Dungy, wife of Buccaneers head coach Tony Dungy, and Shari Glazer, wife of team Executive Vice President Edward Glazer, were the honorary chairpersons for the Tampa Bay Race. The Buccaneers had a team of walkers that consisted of Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders, Buccaneer Women's Organization members and Student Advisory Board members, and the cheerleaders lead race warm-ups.

• Since 1993, several Buccaneers have served as "Big Brothers" through the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Tampa Bay organization. Receiver Karl Williams, LB Shelton Quarles and tight ends coach Ricky Thomas currently have little brothers.

• Pro Bowl FB Mike Alstott hosted the annual Mike Alstott Youth Football Camp, a four-day event that typically involves 350 Bay area children. Every year Mike brings together a group of instructors that consist of professional players and high school and college coaches to teach the clinics.

• The Buccaneers and Checkers Drive-In Restaurants sponsored the annual "Bucs on the Beach" charity volleyball tournament, which featured appearances by Buccaneers players, coaches and cheerleaders. Several Buccaneers players, including Pro Bowl K Martin Gramatica, P Mark Royals, T Jerry Wunsch, S Dexter Jackson and RB Rabih Abdullah attended the event, and Buccaneers coaches and General Manager Rich McKay played the winning volleyball team. All proceeds generated through Bucs on the Beach went to the Glazer Family Foundation and the Spring of Tampa Bay.

• Several Buccaneer players and coaches have established scholarships that benefit either Bay area students or kids from that player's or coach's high school or college. Those Bucs include Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks, Pro Bowl RB Warrick Dunn, Pro Bowl S John Lynch and QB Shaun King.

• Tackle George Hegamin sponsored a Buccaneers weekend for a group of 10 high school students through the George Hegamin Foundation. The students, who attend Hegamin's alma matter, Camden (NJ) High School, received a trip to Florida by winning an essay contest about their future plans. Hegamin treated the teens to a fun-filled weekend including stops at Busch Gardens, GameWorks and the Buccaneers' home game against the Dallas Cowboys.

CHEERLEADERS

After being recognized as the "SwashBuclers" since the Tampa Bay Buccaneers were introduced into the NFL in 1976, the team's 30-member dance team has adopted a new name: the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders.

The name change is an effort to publicize the organization's cheerleaders on a national and international level. The Tampa Bay Buccaneer Cheerleaders bring a fresh, energetic style of entertainment to the Buccaneers' sidelines every Sunday and share a community-minded spirit with the rest of the Buccaneer organization.

The squad is comprised of athletes, businesswomen, mothers and full-time college students. While not working at their jobs or performing at a game, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders are volunteering a considerable amount of time to various community organizations throughout the Bay Area. The team makes routine appearances at Bay Area Charitable organizations, including All Children's Hospital, United Way, American Heart Association and Shriners Hospital for Children.

Cheerleading Coordinator Carole Wood enters her fourth season with the Buccaneers after serving as captain and guest choreographer for the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders from 1991 to 1997. Wood uses her 20 years of cheerleading and dance experience to map out all the squad's pre-game and sideline dance routines, while also managing its day-to-day operations. Under Wood's guidance, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers are committed to creating a dynamic, exciting game day atmosphere for Buccaneers fans. Wood also manages the Buccaneers' mascot, as well as the Pewter Pirates.

Wood will also direct the Junior Program for the fourth consecutive season. The clinic provides young girls (7-17) an opportunity to learn cheer and dance routines from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders. At the conclusion of the clinic, participants will perform during one of the Buccaneers' NFL Halftime Shows.

Sandy Charboneau enters her first season with the Buccaneers as Cheerleading Assistant. Charboneau handles all community and corporate appearances.

For more information about Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleading appearances, or the Junior Program please call (813) 870-2700, extension 518.

The Story of Captain Fear, the Buccaneer

The moment he saw the ship's masts rising above the North End Zone of Raymond James Stadium, he knew he was home.

Still delirious from nearly two years adrift at sea, with a memory still foggy and blurred, the massive seaman nonetheless recognized his beloved ship. After all, its image was burned not only into his brain, but into his arm.

On June 2, 2000, the Clearwater Coast Guard rescued an unidentified, 6-2, 250-pound, bearded man from the choppy waters of Tampa Bay. Though he was suffering from amnesia and unable to tell the Coast Guard his name or origin, he remembered vaguely that he had been the powerful captain of a mighty pirate ship.

The memories slowly came back. One night while sailing his ship through an intense Caribbean storm, the famous captain was thrown overboard when the vessel was struck by lightning. He stayed afloat and managed to struggle onto a makeshift raft of wood planks, but he could not locate his ship in the furious storm. Amazingly, he had been adrift at sea ever since. His ship, meanwhile, drifted to shore off Tampa Bay, damaged but still seaworthy. It was rebuilt and docked permanently in Buccaneer Cove in Raymond James Stadium.

As they helped the huge seafarer regain his bearings, the Coast Guard recognized that same ship on the tattoo on the pirate's arm. They returned him to his ship in Buccaneer Cove the next day, and the overjoyed captain took up residence on the ship and vowed never again to be separated from his vessel. Now, he lives in the captain's quarters of the Pirate Ship and uses the ship's crow's nest to keep watch over Tampa Bay every night.

As he regained his strength and fell back into his role as captain of the ship, memories of his life flooded back. For instance, he recalled...

...his favorite food: Checkers hamburgers, though he also greatly enjoys seafood (that is, he sees food, and he eats it). It didn't take him long to pack all that muscle back on his frame.

...his favorite drink: Coke, of course. Two years of seawater was quite enough, thank you.

...his favorite play: The Pirates of Penzance

...his favorite movie: Jaws. However, he much prefers seeing it at his local AMC theater, as opposed to up-close and personal while adrift on the seas.

...his favorite 'leisure' activity: Lifting weights. Now that he's permanently in Tampa Bay, the seaman prefers to work out at least three days a week with the Buccaneer players. Mike Alstott, who is similarly musclebound, is often his lifting partner.

What the captain does not remember, however, is his name. With all hope of that detail returning to his mind, he has agreed to take whatever name Buccaneer fans choose for him, for he has taken it upon himself to serve as the team's official mascot. Last summer, there was a naming contest over the internet to determine just what we would call Tampa Bay's own great captain of the sea. Now that he has been given his new name, Captain Fear, the Buccaneer, the seafarer's great ordeal is finally complete.

Buccaneers' Preseason TV

For the 12th consecutive year and the 25th overall season, WTOG-TV (UPN-44) will serve as the official preseason television station for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. WTOG-TV will provide live coverage of three of Tampa Bay's four preseason games. The station will also air a live pre-game show and halftime show from each preseason location.

Bob Alvarez returns as the host of "Countdown to Kickoff", a live half-hour pre-game show airing 30 minutes prior to kickoff. Alvarez has worked in the Tampa Bay area since 1988. He served as WTOG's Sports Director from 1998-95, where he was host and reporter for the Buccaneer Coaches Shows. In addition, Alvarez serves as a reporter for the Tampa Bay Lightning's weekly television show and host of the Lightning's post-game radio show on the Lightning Radio Network.

WTOG's preseason package will feature live telecasts of three Buccaneers' contests beginning with the second game on Saturday, August 18 at Cleveland. Tampa Bay then hosts New England on Saturday, August 25 at 7:30 p.m. before closing out its preseason slate at Atlanta on Friday, August 31 at 7:30 p.m.

Ron Jaworski will serve as the color analyst for the Buccaneers' preseason games. Jaworski has provided analysis on a myriad of NFL shows for ESPN the past 10 years, including NFL Monday Night Countdown, Edge NFL Matchup and NFL 2 Night. He is also a frequent contributor as a pre- and post-game reporter on NFL Sunday Countdown. Additionally, the former Philadelphia Eagles quarterback was nominated for an Emmy in 1996 for his work as the host of Eagles Game Day Live.

Joining Jaworski in the broadcast booth will be Dave Sims, who will handle the play-by-play duties for the fifth consecutive season. Sims is an Emmy award-winning announcer who has called college basketball action for CBS Sports during NCAA tournaments and regular season action with ABC, ESPN and the Big East/ Creative Sports Networks. Additionally, he serves as the play-by-play voice covering NFL regular season games and NCAA basketball on Westwood One Radio Network. Sims' other credits include Major League Baseball play-by-play announcing for ESPN and track and field coverage for NBC Sports at the 1988 Seoul Olympics and 1990 Goodwill Games. Sims is currently in his third year as host of the Philadelphia Phillies Sunday pre-game show called "Phillies Weekly." He also hosts "Game Face," a live weekly talk show for New York Cablevision, and serves as the TV play-by-play voice of the Arena Football League's New Jersey Red Dogs.

RON JAWORSKI

Doug Graber will serve as a sideline reporter after serving as the color analyst for one Bucs' pre-season game last year. The former Bucs' defensive coordinator (1987-89) also currently works as the color analyst for the University of South Florida Bulls football program and spent 1997-98 working with USF, ESPN-Regional and SportsChannel. Before he entered the field of broadcasting, Graber worked since 1966 as a football coach at the high school, college and professional level. His coaching experience includes stints with Rutgers University (head coach, 1990-95), Kansas City Chiefs (secondary coach, 1983-86) and the Buccaneers. This past season, Graber coached NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy.

DAVE SIMS

DOUG GRABER

BOB ALVAREZ

WTOG will host a weekly half-hour Buccaneers show scheduled every Saturday at 6:30 p.m. EDT during the regular season. The show, co-hosted by Alvarez and Graber, takes a look at the past week's game and a look ahead to the following week's opponent.

Buccaneers' Radio Network

For the 11th consecutive year, WQYK-FM (99.5) will serve as the flagship station for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Radio Network. WQYK broadcasts all Buccaneer games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area. WQYK will also simulcast Buccaneer football on its AM affiliate, 50,000-watt WQYK (1010 The Team).

For the past 11 years, WQYK has been the top-rated radio station in the Tampa Bay market. The station has consistently been an industry leader and has also been an active corporate participant in the Tampa Bay community. This season, WQYK's coverage will again include the pre-game show along with a post-game report.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the 13th straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff has also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball for the past 21 years.

Deckerhoff is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a five-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Joining Deckerhoff for the third consecutive season will be former Buc Scot Brantley. Brantley played linebacker for the Buccaneers from 1980-87. The third-round pick from Florida racked up 622 career tackles, five sacks and eight interceptions. He has been a sports radio talk show host in the Bay Area for the past 11 years and is also the color analyst for University of Florida football. He joined 1010 The Team in 1999 on the station's afternoon drive show.

Ronnie "Night Train" Lane begins his first season as Tampa Bay's sideline reporter. Lane is a 20-year broadcast veteran who previously served on the Buccaneers' broadcast team from 1986-89. Lane co-hosts WQYK's afternoon drive program with Brantley.

GENE DECKERHOFF

Buccaneer fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers' Radio Network. Deckerhoff's descriptions of the action and all of the attending pre-game, halftime and post-game action are simulcast on at least 13 AM and FM stations in locations ranging from Gainesville (WGGG, 1230 AM) to Stuart (WSTU, 1450 AM).

SCOT BRANTLEY

Once again, Orlando fans can catch all the Buccaneer game day action on WQTM, 740 AM. A full list of Tampa Bay Buccaneers' Radio Network affiliates is in the box below.

Media Policies and Information

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Tampa Bay Buccaneers players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Communications Department, headed by Director of Communications Reggie Roberts. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged at least two days in advance and will be subject to availability. Head Coach Tony Dungy will address the media after each practice and will make a weekly conference call each Wednesday to speak with the opposing team's assembled media.

Open Locker Room Periods: The Buccaneers' locker room is open for accredited media each Wednesday and Thursday from 12:00 to 12:45 p.m. Buccaneer players will also be available to the media following workouts on Monday and Friday with the assistance of team communications personnel. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays.

Practice Regulations: The Buccaneers practice every Wednesday and Thursday from 2:00 to 4:30 p.m. and every Friday from 11:30 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. at the team's One Buccaneer Place headquarters. All practices are open from beginning to end to accredited local media only. Still photographers may shoot any portion of practice; video photographers may shoot approximately the first 20 minutes of stretching and individual drills.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignment and must be made through the Buccaneers' communications department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a free-lance basis unless the request is made by a recognized publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted in writing to Reggie Roberts, Director of Communications, One Buccaneer Place, Tampa, FL, 33607 or by fax at (813) 878-0813.

Press Releases: The Buccaneers' weekly press release may be obtained in the team's press facility at One Buccaneer Place or on the internet at www.buccaneers.com. The team's weekly injury report, which is first released on Wednesday and updated on Thursday and Friday, can be found in the same locations.

Game Day Information

Entry: The media entrance at Raymond James Stadium is located near Dock D on the the southwest corner of the facility. The entrance to the media lobby can be found just north of the southwest ramps and just south of the television truck parking area. The press box and television and radio booths may be reached via a media-dedicated elevator on the east side of the lobby.

Will Call: Members of the media needing to pick up their pass at the game will find the media will call area just inside the media entrance at Dock D. Ticket will call is located on the south end of the stadium, accessible from the outside between Ramps C and D.

Phones: Media needing a phone on gameday must contact Tom Galloghy of Sprint (813-249-3043) prior to the day of the game. If you do not place an order prior to the day of the game, you will be responsible for any charges from Sprint for setting up these services on gameday.

Locker Room Access: Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room at a designated time in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the ground level and follow the corridor running parallel to the field's west sideline. NOTE: No interviews of players for either team are allowed on the field following the game.
